WHAT'S POPPIN'

- Baylor brings a five-match win streak into the weekend series against Texas Tech.
- This is the ninth streak of at least five victories during sixth-year head coach Ryan McGuyre's tenure.
- The Bears have held steady at No. 2 in all three editions of the AVCA's fall coaches poll.

AGAINST THE RED RAIDERS

- Baylor has won each of the last three meetings with Texas Tech, including two consecutive sweeps.
- BU has claimed each of the last eight contests against TTU in Lubbock.
- Texas Tech leads the all-time series 48-36 and 25-16 in Lubbock.
- Under McGuyre, the Bears are 9-1 against the Red Raiders.
- Of the 10 matchups during the McGuyre era, five have resulted in Baylor sweeps.

CAN YOU DIG IT?

- Junior L/DS Shanel Bramschreiber was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 13 after recording 39 digs in two matches against Oklahoma, 4.88 per set.
- Bramschreiber posted a career-high in both matches vs. the Sooners, tallying 19 digs in the five-set thriller on Oct. 8 and following that up with a 20-dig performance in the three-set sweep on Oct. 9.
- "Nelly" has reached double-digit digs in each of her last four matches.
- This is the first-career weekly conference honor for Bramschreiber.

BY THE NUMBERS

- Baylor is currently second in the nation in team hitting percentage at .327.
- Sophomore Kara McGhee is sixth nationally with a .450 efficiency.
- The Bears place in the top-15 of five statistical categories as a team: hitting percentage (.327, 2nd), opponent's hitting percentage (.152, 9th), kills per set (13.36, 12th), assists per set (12.27, 12th), service aces (28, 14th).

Quick Hits

MCGHEE IN THE MIDDLE

- After a strong freshman season in which she recorded 158 kills and 139 total blocks in 2019, sophomore MB Kara McGhee is off to a hot start in 2020.
- The 6-4 San Antonio native leads the Bears with a .450 attack percentage, which is also good for sixth nationally. She has already tied and surpassed her previous career-best 11 kills with four such performances this season.

ANCHORING THE DEFENSE

- Baylor has no shortage of options in the back row, as junior L/DS Shanel Bramschreiber anchors the Bears defense in 2020, with redshirt freshman OH/DS Campbell Bowden making a strong impact as well.
- Bramschreiber currently leads the Bears with 76 digs (3.45 per set) and has worn the libero shirt in all six matches.
- Setter Callie Williams notched 20 digs in two matches against TCU, recording Baylor’s first double-double of 2020 in the process, with 32 assists and 13 digs on Oct. 3 against the Horned Frogs.
- With Bowden unavailable at Kansas due to non-COVID related illness, redshirt sophomore Emily Van Slate stepped up and led the team in digs over the opening weekend with 18 (2.25 per set).
- Jena Kelly and Gabby Brown, both redshirt freshmen defensive specialists, also saw playing time in the back row at Kansas, helping to shore up the Bears passing game.

HITTING .400

- Baylor has hit above .400 as a team in three of its five victories this season.
- Prior to the 2020 season, Baylor had hit above .400 as a team in just four matches from 2017-2019.
- BU has had at least one player hit .400 or better individually (min. 12 kills) in four of its six matches this season.

NEW IN 2020

- Due to precautions taken in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Ferrell Center will be restricted to 25 percent capacity (just under 700 seats) in order to provide the safest environment for student-athletes, fans, coaches and staffs.
- The revised 2020 schedule includes a new, 16-match format in which teams will play on back-to-back days against league opponents.
- The Bears will host four Big 12 opponents and travel for four road series, splitting the 2020 ledger evenly with eight home and eight away contests.
- The Big 12 has set the minimum number of players required to play a match this season at nine, which must include one setter. Teams falling below the benchmark, based on game week test results, could still elect to play as scheduled if so desired. Otherwise, upon approval by Big 12 Commissioner Bob Bowlsby, the match would be declared a no-contest if it cannot be moved to a later date.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

- The Bears are coming off the most successful season in program history, going 29-2 and making a run to the NCAA National Semifinals.
- The Bears were ranked No. 1 in the nation for six weeks during the 2019 campaign. Prior to last season, BU had never been ranked higher than No. 12.
- Baylor broke its school record for single season wins with 29 and won a share of the Big 12 title for the first time in program history after posting a 15-1 conference record.
- BU’s Nov. 9 win over Texas Tech gave the Bears their fourth-straight 20-win season under head coach Ryan McGuyre and four consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in program history.
- The win over Texas Tech also gave the Bears double-digit wins in Big 12 play for the third-straight season, a new program best.
- The Bears were the final undefeated team in D1 college volleyball after holding a 16-0 record.
- Baylor had a program-best 31-set winning streak during the 2019 season, sweeping 10 straight matches after a fourth-set win against Houston on Sept. 12.

Head Coach

RYAN MCGUYRE

6th season at Baylor
19th season overall (w)
28th season overall (w/m)

In five seasons at the helm of Baylor volleyball, head coach Ryan McGuyre has put the program amongst the sport's biggest names and into the national spotlight. After narrowly missing the postseason in his first year, McGuyre and the Bears marched their way to the program's first Big 12 title and the NCAA National Semifinals in 2019 while earning the school's first No. 1 AVCA national ranking and No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Entering his sixth season, McGuyre has compiled five consecutive winning seasons, four-straight 20-win seasons and a program-best four consecutive NCAA appearances since his arrival in 2015.

Named the 2019 AVCA and VolleyballMag.com National Coach of the Year, 2019 AVCA Southwest Region Coach of the Year, 2017 and 2019 Big 12 Coach of the Year, McGuyre has coached nine AVCA All-America selections, 11 All-Region honorees, 18 All-Big 12 awardees and 39 Academic All-Big 12 selections at Baylor.

McGuyre's teams continue to lock down home court advantage behind record-breaking crowds at the Ferrell Center. Baylor has broken its own attendance record in three straight seasons. Last season's win against No. 1 Texas on Nov. 20 drew 7,357 fans, almost double the old attendance record set earlier against Tennessee in September.

Baylor went an unblemished 17-0 at home in 2019, securing wins over five ranked opponents and hosting through the NCAA Regional final to book a spot in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Along with matching the most home wins in program history with 13 in 2017, BU's season opener against LSU in 2018 drew a record crowd of 3,858. The team has had 10 top-10 crowds at the Ferrell Center under McGuyre.

McGuyre has coached at the collegiate level for both men and women since 1999 including head-coaching stints at California Baptist (CBU) and Biola University, both of which are faith-based institutions.

As associate head coach for two seasons, McGuyre and the Florida State Seminoles finished a 2014 NCAA Tournament run reaching the Sweet 16 before a loss to national runner-up, BYU. Prior to his arrival at Florida State, McGuyre was an assistant at Maryland for one season following a 10-year head coaching stint at CBU. There, he was the head coach for both the men's and women's programs, and he crafted a men's program that won six NAIA national championships and three women's national titles.

Among many accolades at CBU, McGuyre was named the 2005 NAIA Men's National Coach of the Year and in 2011 the NCCAA Division I National Coach of the Year. In 2010, he made history by being named both the AVCA Men's and Women's NAIA National Coach of the Year in the same calendar year.

A 1998 graduate of Biola, McGuyre is married to former University of Hawaii volleyball standout and USA National Team member Jennifer (Roberts) McGuyre. The couple has three children: sons, Tryston and Ryder, and a daughter, Kitana.
