STORYLINES

CREAM OF THE CROP

- No. 1 meets No. 3 as the Bears travel to Austin this week for a two-match series with the Longhorns.
- When the Bears and Longhorns competed in 2019, No. 4 Texas def. No. 1 Baylor on Oct. 23, and No. 3 Baylor def. No. 1 Texas on Nov. 20. The two sides have never matched up as the top-two teams in the nation.
- Baylor is 1-12 all-time against No. 1-ranked opponents, winning its most recent matchup over UT in 2019.
- BU is 5-10 all-time against top-10 opponents and 3-11 all-time against the top-five, including 3-2 and 2-2 marks last season.

GOING STREAKING

- Baylor carries an 11-match win streak into the series with Texas.
- This is BU's third-longest win streak under sixth-year head coach Ryan McGuyre, behind 2019's streaks of 16 and 13 wins.
- Eight of the Bears' 11 wins have been sweeps, including four of the last five.
- The Bears streak of five-consecutive weeks at No. 2 in the AVCA Fall Coaches Poll was snapped as BU checked in at No. 3 on Nov. 4's rankings.

STRENGTH ON THE SECOND DAY

- Coach McGuyre has preached all season long that the tougher team always comes out on top on the second day, and the Bears have shown their strength by sweeping each series finale so far in 2020.
- BU is 6-0 on the second day, winning all 18 sets that it has played.

AGAINST THE LONGHORNS

- Baylor collected its first win against Texas since 2001 last season when the two sides met in Waco.
- The Bears outlasted the Longhorns in a thrilling five-set affair, 25-23, 25-23, 21-25, 23-25, 15-9.
- BU has never won in Austin and was swept last season 19-25, 10-25, 19-25.
- Under McGuyre, the Bears are 1-9 against Texas.

RACKING 'EM UP

- Senior OH Yossiana Pressley and sophomore MB Kara McGhee were named the Big 12 Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week on Nov. 3 after standout performances against No. 15 West Virginia.
- Pressley picked up her second weekly award of the season, and 17th of her career, tying her for the most in conference history.
- She knocked down 31 kills on a .380 clip over the weekend, collecting 4.43 kills per set, with nine digs and nine blocks. On Saturday, Pressley hit .654 with 17 kills on 26 swings and zero errors.
- McGhee received the defensive award for the second-consecutive week and fourth time in her career. She tallied 14 blocks in the series, helping BU to a season-high 14.5 rejections on Friday.
- Baylor has garnered the most Big 12 weekly awards this season with six, ahead of Kansas State (5) and Texas (4).
- This is the first time in program history that the Bears have won the same award in four-consecutive weeks, as Shanel Bramschreiber, Laché Harper and McGhee have teamed up to bring home defensive honors each week since Oct. 13.

Quick Hits

HIT THE FLOOR
• Baylor has seen its back row defense improve over the last few weeks, receiving strong production from redshirt junior S Callie Williams and junior L/DS Shanel Bramschreiber.

• Bramschreiber leads the Bears with 3.70 digs per set (7th in the Big 12) and has matched her previous career-high for digs in a single match eight times this season.

• Williams has recorded double-digit digs five times this season.

• Campbell Bowden, Yossiana Pressley and Emily Van Slate have all contributed in the passing game as well, with Bowden starting in nine of her 10 matches played, Pressley recording three double-digit dig performances, and Van Slate tallying a career-high 14 digs on Oct. 29 vs. WVU.

• Jena Kelly and Gabby Brown, both redshirt freshmen defensive specialists, have taken ownership of their roles. With limited playing time, both are still making strides in the Bears' passing game and developing in the practice gym.

BY THE NUMBERS
• Baylor is currently fourth in the nation in team hitting percentage at .290, but ranks third in the same category amongst teams that have played at least 20 sets.

• Senior Yossiana Pressley is sixth nationally and leads the Big 12 with 189 kills.

• The Bears place in the top-15 of five statistical categories (by percentage) as a team: hitting percentage (.290, 4th), opponent's hitting percentage (.131, 5th), assists per set (12.74, 10th), blocks per set (2.55, 11th), and kills per set (13.65, 13th).

DOMINATION UP FRONT
• Baylor has held its opponents to below a .165 hitting percentage nine times in 2020.

• The Bears have totaled at least 10 blocks as a team six times this year, including each of the last three matches and four of the last five.

• Sophomore MB Kara McGhee (44, 4th) graduate transfer MB Laché Harper (40, 7th), and redshirt junior OPP Marieke van der Mark (38, 8th) power the Bears block, each ranking in the top-10 in the conference in total blocks.

HITTING .400
• Baylor hit above .400 as a team in three of its first four victories of the year and have done so four times in 2020.

• Prior to the 2020 season, Baylor had hit above .400 as a team in just four matches from 2017-2019.

• BU has had at least one player hit .400 or better individually (min. 12 kills) in five of its 12 matches this season.

NEW IN 2020
• Due to precautions taken in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Ferrell Center will be restricted to 25 percent capacity (just under 700 seats) in order to provide the safest environment for student-athletes, fans, coaches and staffs.

• The revised 2020 schedule includes a new, 16-match format in which teams will play on back-to-back days against league opponents.

• The Bears will host four Big 12 opponents and travel for four road series, splitting the 2020 ledger evenly with eight home and eight away contests.

• The Big 12 has set the minimum number of players required to play a match this season at nine, which must include one setter. Teams falling below the benchmark, based on game week test results, could still elect to play as scheduled if so desired. Otherwise, upon approval by Big 12 Commissioner Bob Bowlsby, the match would be declared a no-contest if it cannot be moved to a later date.

THE QUEEN RETURNS
• Baylor returns the 2019 AVCA/ESPNW National Player of the Year in senior Yossiana Pressley after she averaged 5.41 kills per set and 5.83 points per set as a junior.

• After undergoing offseason surgery, Pressley is finding her form in 2020 with 4.40 kills per set on a .278 attack percentage. She has recorded 11 double-digit kill performances, including a season-high outing with 27 against Texas Tech on Oct. 16.

Head Coach

RYAN MCGUYRE
6th season at Baylor
19th season overall (w)
28th season overall (w/m)

In five seasons at the helm of Baylor volleyball, head coach Ryan McGuyre has put the program amongst the sport's biggest names and into the national spotlight. After narrowly missing the postseason in his first year, McGuyre and the Bears marched their way to the program's first Big 12 title and the NCAA National Semifinals in 2019 while earning the school's first No. 1 AVCA national ranking and No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Entering his sixth season, McGuyre has compiled five consecutive winning seasons, four-straight 20-win seasons and a program-best four consecutive NCAA appearances since his arrival in 2015.

Named the 2019 AVCA and VolleyballMag.com National Coach of the Year, 2019 AVCA Southwest Region Coach of the Year, 2017 and 2019 Big 12 Coach of the Year, McGuyre has coached nine AVCA All-America selections, 11 All-Region honorees, 18 All-Big 12 awardees and 39 Academic All-Big 12 selections at Baylor.

McGuyre's teams continue to lock down home court advantage behind record-breaking crowds at the Ferrell Center. Baylor has broken its own attendance record in three straight seasons. Last season's win against No. 1 Texas on Nov. 20 drew 7,357 fans, almost double the old attendance record set earlier against Tennessee in September.

Baylor went an unblemished 17-0 at home in 2019, securing wins over five ranked opponents and hosting through the NCAA Regional final to book a spot in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Along with matching the most home wins in program history with 13 in 2017, BU's season opener against LSU in 2018 drew a record crowd of 3,858. The team has had 10 top-10 crowds at the Ferrell Center under McGuyre.

McGuyre has coached at the collegiate level for both men and women since 1999 including head-coaching stints at California Baptist (CBU) and Biola University, both of which are faith-based institutions.

As associate head coach for two seasons, McGuyre and the Florida State Seminoles finished a 2014 NCAA Tournament run reaching the Sweet 16 before a loss to national runner-up, BYU. Prior to his arrival at Florida State, McGuyre was an assistant at Maryland for one season following a 10-year head coaching stint at CBU. There, he was the head coach for both the men's and women's programs, and he crafted a men's program that won six NAIA national championships and three women's national titles.

Among many accolades at CBU, McGuyre was named the 2005 NAIA Men's National Coach of the Year and in 2011 the NCCAA Division I National Coach of the Year. In 2010, he made history by being named both the AVCA Men's and Women's NAIA National Coach of the Year in the same calendar year.

A 1998 graduate of Biola, McGuyre is married to former University of Hawaii volleyball standout and USA National Team member Jennifer (Roberts) McGuyre. The couple has three children: sons, Tryston and Ryder, and a daughter, Kitana.
