REMEMBERING THE IMMORTAL TEN

- BU will honor the 95th anniversary of the 1927 Immortal Ten team. That season was canceled after the team bus was hit by a train while traveling to Austin, killing 10 of 22 players, coaches and fans in the Baylor travel party.
- BU players will wear the last names of the Immortal Ten on the backs of their jerseys.
- Jack Castellaw, a senior from Ennis, was the team's official scorekeeper. He loved traveling with the basketball team and naturally wouldn't miss this important game. Baylor's Castellaw Communications Center is named for him; his friend Dave Cheavens, BA '33, a Lariat editor who was also on the bus that day, dedicated the final years of his life to raising money for the building.
- Sam Dillow, a junior from Fort Worth, was a Baylor Chamberman as well as a starting guard who had captained the team the year before. Sam's parents, who had attended Baylor as well, were planning to celebrate his 22nd birthday with him a week later in Fort Worth when the team played TCU.
- Merle Dudley, a second-year law student from Abilene and the only yell leader who planned to attend that game. Merle lived with five of of those on the bus, including three of those who perished (Castellaw, Dillow, and Hannah).
- L.R. "Ivey" Foster, Jr., a freshman from Taylor who had been named sports editor for the Lariat just a week earlier. Ivey had been hitchhiking to Austin through the freezing January rain when the bus driver saw him and picked him up. The Lariat's coverage of the crash had to include the death of their own reporter.
- Robert "Bob" Hailey, a sophomore from Lott and substitute guard. The first in his family to attend college, Bob was known as "Smilin' Bob" due to his ever-present grin. He had just joined Baylor Chamber, and was to have been initiated the next week.
- Robert "Bob" L. Hannah, Jr., a junior from Waco and starting guard. His parents had relocated to St. Louis for his father's engineering job. His best friend? William Winchester.
- James Clyde "Abe" Kelley, a substitute forward on the basketball team and captain-elect of the football team. He was studying business administration and was working at a local fire department to pay for housing. Kelley had seen the train coming just before impact and, rather than save himself, pushed his childhood friend and roommate, Weir Washman, out the window. Abe left behind his parents, nine siblings, and longtime girlfriend Dorris Roberts.
- Willis Murray, a junior from Gatesville, substitute guard and team manager. Though he served as manager most of the time, he was happy to be part of the team. Much of his interest in basketball came from his friendship with teammate Jim Walker, a high school classmate. Willis had come to Baylor at age 16 and was earning both a bachelor of arts and a law degree. He left behind his parents, five siblings, a girlfriend, and his childhood pony, Snip.
- James "Jim" Walker, a junior from Gatesville and a forward on the team. He had come from a large, humble family, and his basketball, football and track skills gave him the opportunity to study business administration. Unlike his outgoing, prank-playing teammates, Jim was often the quiet one of the group.
- William Winchester, a senior from Waco and substitute center and guard. William was majoring in history and French, was in the top 10% of his class, and was a leader in the local Boy Scout order. He left behind at Baylor his twin brother, Robert, and their younger brother, Albert.
- One of 12 survivors of the tragedy was John "Killer" Kane, a football and basketball player who graduated in 1928 and went on to serve as a Colonel in the Army Air Corps in World War II. He was awarded the Medal of Honor after leading a daring air raid against Nazi petroleum reserves dubbed Operation Tidal Wave. Four others in the raid were awarded the Medal of Honor, making it the most highly-decorated single engagement in the nation's history.

PREVIOUS IMMORTAL TEN GAMES

- Baylor began the annual tradition of playing Immortal Ten Games for the 90th anniversary in 2017. This year's game will mark the fourth time the Bears have been top-10 ranked out of six Immortal Ten Games.
- Jan. 17, 2017 – #6 Baylor 74, Texas 64
- Jan. 22, 2018 – Kansas State 90, Baylor 83
- Jan. 19, 2019 – Baylor 73, #8 Texas Tech 62
- Jan. 20, 2020 – #1 Baylor 61, Oklahoma 57
- Jan. 27, 2021 – #2 Baylor 107, Kansas State 59

SERIES HISTORY VS. WEST VIRGINIA

- Monday is the 22nd all-time series meeting, all of which have been played since 2011.
- Baylor won seven of the first eight series meetings, but the Bears are 6-7 vs. WVU since then.
- BU leads the series 13-8, including a 5-3 mark in Waco.

LAST TIME VS. WEST VIRGINIA

- Baylor was without starting point guard James Akinjo (31.1 mpg) and reserve forward Jeremy Sochan (21.9 mpg), but the short-handed Bears fought off a tough West Virginia team for a 77-68 win in Morgantown on Jan. 18.
- LJ Cryer (25) and Matthew Mayer (20) both scored career-highs, while Adam Flagler added 14 points and a game-high 7 assists). That trio combined for 20 points in the final 8 minutes as BU erased WVU's 54-53 lead.
- Dale Bonner contributed 4 assists in a season-high 26 minutes and had a game-high +18 plus-minus.

BAYLOR PARTNERS WITH CITY OF WACO ON $700 MILLION RIVERFRONT PROJECT

- Baylor and the City of Waco have partnered on a $700 million riverfront development project, headlined by the $185 million Foster Pavilion, the future home for Baylor's national champion basketball programs.
- Foster Pavilion (capacity 7,500) will be located along the Brazos River on the opposite side of I-35 from McLane Stadium.
- Groundbreaking is expected in June 2022, with the pavilion targeted for a January 2024 opening.
- Development Centers for both basketball programs are included in the 245k square foot Foster Pavilion project.
