JOHN AIKEN

Head Coach

13-25 (2nd Season at McNeese as Head Coach, 5th Season at McNeese) 53-56 (4th Season Overall)

Southern Maine, 2008

John Aiken was announced as the 11th head coach in McNeese Cowboy basketball history on March 11, 2021.

In 2021-22, Aiken led the Cowboys to their first Southland Conference Tournament win in five seasons.

Aiken has 14 years of coaching experience at the Division I level and 20 overall. He was head coach at Belhaven University, an NAIA school, for two seasons and helped guide those teams to the NAIA Division I National Tournament.

When Aiken arrived on campus four years ago, the new H&HP Arena was still under construction. Three years later, Aiken went through another rebuilding process due to the damage left by hurricanes Laura and Delta. The team returned to the Legacy Center in January for its first game since the spring of 2020.

Aiken began his coaching journey while gaining valuable experience working prestigious summer camps at the University of Louisville, Xavier University, University of Connecticut, Wake Forest, Florida State and the University of Miami.

Prior to joining Schroyer at McNeese, Aiken spent two seasons as the top assistant at Nicholls where he helped lead the Colonels to a share of the Southland Conference regular season title in 2017-18. In his two years with the Colonels, he was responsible for recruiting three SLC All-Conference selections, two SLC All-Defensive Team players, and the '17-'18 Newcomer of the Year. He was instrumental in turning around a Colonels' team that posted a 14-17 record his first season to a 21-11 mark in his second year with his recruiting and teaching skills.

Before Nicholls, Aiken spent two seasons as Schroyer's assistant at UT Martin where he helped the Skyhawks to 21 victories during the 2015-16 season, one win shy of the school's single season record.

While at UT Martin, not only did he help build a program, the Skyhawks tallied the program's first three postseason victories since becoming a Division I member in 1992. He was part of UT Martin's 13-win increase in 2014-15 from the previous year, which ranked as the fourth-best turnaround in Division I basketball.

Before joining UT Martin, Aiken totaled seven seasons of collegiate coaching experience, including two years as head coach of Belhaven University, an NAIA school in Jackson, Miss. Aiken posted 30 overall wins and a 22-16 Southern States Athletic Conference record as head coach at Belhaven. In 2013-14, he helped guide the Blazers to an 18-15 record (14-6 SSAC) and a spot in the NAIA Division I National Tournament. He spent the previous four seasons as the top assistant at Belhaven, which included two more trips to the NAIA national tournament (2010 and 2012). The Blazers went 24-10 during the 2009-10 season, earning a spot in the national tournament for the first time since 1972.

All in all, Aiken coached four honorable mention All-Americans, six all-division honorees and nine all-conference selections during his tenure at Belhaven.

Prior to his stint with the Blazers, Aiken was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of New England, an NCAA Division-III school located in Biddeford, Maine. He helped the Nor'easters reach the 2008 ECAC New England Regional Championship game after New England posted a 17-12 overall record.

Aiken also served as an assistant coach at Cheverus High School in Portland, Maine and Greater Portland Christian School in South Portland, Maine before entering the collegiate coaching ranks.

A native of Portland, Maine, Aiken earned his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Southern Maine in 2008. He also completed his Master's degree in sports administration at Belhaven in 2013.

He and his wife Michelle spent a summer working with Athletes in Action in South Africa and Mozambique where they volunteered at orphanages, coached against several professional and club teams and visited with various schools and governmental organizations.
