What to Note

Starting Five

- Kansas City Men's Basketball has its first road test of the season this week, traveling to No. 15 Baylor before a meeting at Colorado State. Across the past 10 seasons, the Roos are 1-9 in road openers, eight of which have been played against Power Five opponents. The lone win came in 2014-15, when the Roos took down Missouri, 69-61.
- Defense has been the name of the game for Kansas City in its first two wins to open up the season. The Roos are allowing just 45.0 points per game and 30.1% field goal shooting and are forcing 25.0 turnovers per game, all marks which rank first in the Summit and top-ten in Division One.
- Jamar Brown has shown his value as a do-it-all player in his first two games in the Roo blue and gold. He led the team's scoring efforts in both games, averaging 17.0 points on 60.0% field goal shooting. In addition, he is averaging 5.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.0 steals per game.
- After struggling to shoot from three-point range in the season-opening win over Avila, the Roos were more decisive with their long-range shooting against St. Mary. Kansas City ended the game with the same amount of three-point makes (8) in both games, but shot at a 42.1% clip against the Spires.

- Kansas City will enter the Baylor contest looking for its first win against a Power Five opponent since taking down Missouri, 80-66, on Nov. 15, 2021. The Roos will also be looking for their first-ever win against a Top-25 team. Currently 0-25 against ranked opponents, the closest call came in a 52-44 loss to No. 25 Kansas State on Dec. 29, 2012.

Baylor Notes

- Baylor enters the 2023-24 season fresh off a Second Round appearance in the NCAA Tournament last season.
- The Bears are 3-0 to begin the year, picking up wins over Auburn, John Brown and Gardner-Webb.
- Kansas City holds a 4-3 edge in the all-time series between the two teams, but they have not met since 1998-99 season.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME NOTES: BAYLOR/COLORADO STATE

Jerod Fox, Athletic Communications | jtfcw6@umsystem.edu | 316.249.2846

- In Waco, the Bears are 3-0 against the Roos. The last time KC played on the Bears' home court was Dec. 3, 1996, a 79-71 overtime loss.
- Through three games, Baylor has five double-digit scorers, led by Ja'Kobe Walter's 16.3 points per game average. Walter was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on Nov. 13.
- The Bears average 5.7 blocks per game, which ranks 49th among all Division One teams.

Colorado State Notes

- Colorado State enters 2023-24 after going 15-18 last season, including an eighth-place finish in the Mountain West.
- The Rams seem set to elevate their level of play this season, opening the year with a pair of wins over Louisiana Tech and Wright State.
- Currently ranked T9 in the Mid-Major Madness 'The Other Top 25,' CSU was selected for a fifth-place finish in the Mountain West Preseason Poll.
- This will be the first-ever meeting between the Roos and the Rams.
- Through two games, Isaiah Stevens leads CSU with 18.5 points per game. He is followed closely by Nique Clifford and Joel Scott, both at 17.5 ppg.

Marvelous Resume

- Head Coach Marvin Menzies entered his tenure at Kansas City as the most decorated incoming coach in program history.
- He came to KC with 12 years of DI head coaching experience and 246 wins to his name.
- During his time at New Mexico State, he won three WAC regular season championships.
- He also won the WAC tournament championship and qualified for the NCAA Tournament five times, in 2010, and 2012-15. He was named WAC Coach of the Year in 2015.
- During his stint at UNLV, Menzies improved the Runnin' Rebels' final spot in the Mountain West standings each year.

How to Start?

- Plagued by injury last season, the Roos had trouble finding a consistent starting lineup.
- The Roos ran out 16 different starting lineups across 32 games, with three lineup combinations getting four starts.
- Kansas City used a different starting lineup in each of the last six games of the year, ending the season with three freshmen in the starting lineup against Omaha on Mar. 3.

Board Man Gets Paid

- Jeff Ngandu established himself as a presence on the boards last year, notching a team-high 177 total rebounds, including three double-digit rebounding games.
- He also led the Summit and ranked 88th in the nation, averaging 2.6 offensive boards per game.
- He went for back-to-back 17-rebound games against St. Thomas and Western Illinois in January. He was the first player in program history to reach that mark in back-to-back games.
- His 10 offensive rebounds against Western Illinois were the most by a Roo since at least the 2010-11 season, according to Basketball Reference.

Phoenix Connection

- This year's Kansas City team has three players from the Phoenix area - where both Head Coach Marvin Menzies and Associate Head Coach Joe Esposito have past roots.
- Cameron Faas and Jamar Brown are both from the Phoenix area and spent the last two years in local community colleges. Jayson Petty is a Phoenix Prep product.
- The three are the first Arizona natives on the Kansas City roster since at least the 2000-01 season.

Sticking Around

- Anderson Kopp is the longest-tenured Roo on roster, having spent the 2021-22 season in Kansas City prior to Coach Menzies' arrival.
- He is the only player still on roster to have played under the previous coaching staff.
- Jevin Sullivan and Cole Glasgow were both signed previous to Menzies' arrival, and kept their commitment after his hiring.
- In addition, Brody Werner is the longest-tenured member of the Roos' staff. He came to KC as a Graduate Assistant in 2021-22, finishing his master's program last year while aiding Menzies' staff. He was kept around for this season, joining full-time as the video and scouting coordinator.

Last Time Out (Recap)

KC Cruises Past St. Mary (KS)

11/11/23

KANSAS CITY, MO- Kansas City Men's Basketball (2-0) took down Saint Mary (3-3) in convincing fashion tonight, 95-42. The Roos dominated this one from the early going thanks to an explosive first half of shooting that saw them shoot 64.7% from the field and knock down eight threes.

Jamar Brown continued his impressive offensive play in his second game with the Roos, tallying 18 points on 70% shooting. He was far from the only Roo who had a big night, as Anderson Kopp, Melvyn Ebonkoli, and Allen Mukeba all put up double-digit scoring nights.

Kansas City would also turn in another dominate night on the defensive side of the ball, forcing 26 turnovers and creating 14 steals. Artese Stapleton was responsible for five of those steals, as he ups his season total to seven through the first two games.

KEY MOMENTS

1H - 17:39 / 6-0 | Brown kicked it to Kopp who pulled up for a jumper that would cap off a quick Roos 6-0 run to begin the night.

1H - 13:04 / 17-11 | Cameron Faas passed it to Kopp who pulled up way behind the arc and buried a three for his second bucket of the night.

1H - 6:09 / 34-19 | Khriston Courseault drove to the basket and finished through the contact drawing the foul and completing the and-1.

1H - 4:43 / 41-24 | Mukeba got the ball down low and passed it to Jayson Petty in the corner who knocked down a three to extend the Roos lead towards the end of the first half.

1H - 0:00 / 57-29 | Stapleton dribbled out the remaining seconds of the first half at the top of the key before driving into the paint and kicking it out to Jamar Brown who hit a buzzer-beating three to give the Roos a 28-point advantage at the break.

2H - 13:13 / 71-35 | Promise Idiuru intercepted a Saint Mary pass at halfcourt and took it in for an emphatic slam as the Roos continued to cruise.

2H - 7:38 / 80-42 | Babacar Diallo went flying through the paint to clean up a Mukeba miss with a put-back layup to get himself in the scoring column.

2H - 6:12 / 87-42 | Mukeba picked up a steal and then dunked one home on the other end to open a 45-point lead. Kansas City had no problems from there, cruising to a victory.

STATS TO NOTE

This win makes the Roos 2-0 for the first time since the 2020-21 season.

Kansas City shot 42.1% from the three-point line in the win, including an absurd 66.7% in the first half on 12 attempts.

Kansas City recorded double digit steals (14) as a team for the first time since December 19, 2022, against South Dakota.

The 95 points are the most scored in a game from the Roos since November 14, 2022, against Calvary Bible.

Marvin Menzies was officially announced as the eighth head coach in Kansas City Men's Basketball history on April 26, 2022. Menzies comes to KC as a proven coach with more than 30 years of college coaching experience, 246 head coaching wins, five NCAA Tournament appearances and six McDonald's All-American signees as head coach at New Mexico State and UNLV.

"I am beyond excited to take over the helm for the Roos. I've been patiently looking for the right opportunity to give back to the game I love!" Menzies said. "After sitting with Chancellor Agrawal and Dr. Martin, it was clear that this would be an excellent new home for Tammy and I. The alignment at UMKC is exactly what we were looking for. We are extremely blessed and fortunate to join the Kansas City Athletics family. We can't wait to get started and get a chance to meet all the fans, alumni, faculty, students, and faithful supporters! Kansas City is clearly a special place with a rich athletic pride and commitment. My staff and I will work relentlessly to bring conference championships to Kansas City. I'm looking forward to taking Kansas City basketball to the NCAA Tournament."

A prolific recruiter and builder of championship culture, Menzies has 12 years of head coaching experience, including a nine-year run at New Mexico State and a three-year tenure at UNLV. During his time at NMSU, his teams won the WAC regular season title three times and took the postseason crown five times to advance to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, he was named the WAC Coach of the Century by BustingBrackets.com.

"We are thrilled to welcome Marvin and his wife Tammy to our Kansas City Athletics family," Martin said. "Coach Menzies's body of work in college basketball has been noteworthy, particularly in the areas of program academic success, player development, recruiting and establishing championship-level culture and standards. His postseason appearances and success are laudable and I hope to duplicate them in Kansas City. Coach Menzies will undoubtedly contribute to our mantra of comprehensive excellence."

Menzies was most recently an Associate Head Coach at Grand Canyon University during the 2019-20 season, manning the sidelines alongside Head Coach Dan Majerle. During his season with the Lopes, Jovan Blacksher Jr. was named WAC Freshman of the Year, while Carlos Johnson, Alessandro Lever and Mikey Dixon were all named to All-Conference teams.

Prior to his stint at GCU, Menzies held the reins at UNLV from 2016-19. During his time with the Runnin' Rebels, he stabilized the program, beginning with just two scholarship players and building a team that won 20 games and held a 3.0 team GPA in back-to-back years for the first time in program history. Across his three years, Menzies's teams notched five Mountain West Player of the Week honors, had five players named to All-Mountain West squads and saw Brandon McCoy named Freshman of the Year in 2018.

UNLV moved up in the Mountain West Conference standings each year while Menzies was on the sidelines, beginning with an 11th-place finish in the 2016-17 season, moving up to seventh place in 2017-18 and culminating with a fourth-place finish in the 2018-19 season. The Runnin' Rebels won 11 Mountain West games in the 2018-19 season, the program's most in nine years.

The 2017-18 Runnin' Rebels squad won 20 games for the first time in four seasons, a nine-win improvement over the previous year. The team finished ranked 10th in the NCAA in rebounding (40.5 per game) and 13th in scoring (83.4 points per game), leading the Mountain West in both categories.

Following his first season at UNLV, Menzies brought in one of the highest-ranked recruiting classes in program history, ranking as high as No. 12 in the country and No. 2 in the Mountain West. Among that class were McDonald's High School All-American Brandon McCoy and National Junior College Player of the Year Shakur Juiston.

Menzies's first head coaching gig came at New Mexico State, where he led the Aggies for nine years, compiling a 198-111 overall record and a 103-37 mark in Western Athletic Conference play. His squads earned either a regular season or postseason conference title in seven of his nine years, including each of the final five seasons. He left Las Cruces with the third-most wins in programs history and the third-best winning percentage in WAC history. He was named the WAC Coach of the Year in the 2014-15 season.

Menzies brought and developed talent during his nine-year tenure at New Mexico State, highlighted by 2016 first round NBA draft pick Pascal Siakam. He saw two Aggies named AP Honorable Mention All-American, Siakam in the 2015-16 season, and Daniel Mullings in the 2013-14 year. Additionally, during his time on the sidelines the Aggies had 12 All-WAC First Teamers, 21 All-WAC selections overall, two WAC Freshman of the Year winners, two WAC Player of the Year winners and five WAC Tournament MVPs.

In the 2015-16 season, Menzies led the Aggies to their fifth-straight 20-win season, the seventh in eight years, and the second-straight WAC regular season title. The team went 13-1 in conference play and extended the NMSU in-conference home winning streak to 35 games, the second-longest streak in the nation at the time.

Menzies's 2014-15 team was a defensive-minded group, ranking top-25 in the nation by allowing just 59.8 points per game. The team won 19 of its final 22 games, including a 13-game win streak to claim the regular season conference title, the third-longest winning streak in program history. His squad won the WAC Tournament for the fourth-straight year and were the first team in conference history to win more than two tournament titles in-a-row.

The Aggies won 26 games in the 2013-14 season, tied for their winningest season under Menzies. They became the first team to win three-straight WAC Tournament titles, led by Sim Bhullar, who was named tournament MVP for the second-straight year.

In the 2012-13 season, the Aggies broke school records for blocked shots in a season (193) and field goal percentage in a game (68.6% against UTA). The squad won 18 of its final 21 games, earning the second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Menzies's 2011-12 squad began NMSU's streak of NCAA Tournament appearances, winning 26 games, the team's most since the 1992-93 season. The Aggies had four all-conference selections, and Wendell McKines became just the second player in program history and the 12th in WAC history to surpass the 1,000-point and 1,000-rebounds marks.

The Aggies won their second-ever WAC Tournament title in 2009-10, posting a 22-12 overall mark. It was the program's first NCAA Tournament bid since 2007, earning a No. 12 seed in the Midwest regional.

Menzies saw immediate success after taking over the helm at New Mexico State, claiming a share of the Aggies' first-ever WAC regular season title in 2007-08. His squad won 12 conference games and ranked second in the country in rebounding margin.

Prior to his success as a head coach, Menzies rose to prominence as one of the best recruiters in the nation, spending time as an assistant coach as Louisville, UNLV, USC, San Diego State and Cal State Sacramento.

In his two seasons at Louisville, the Cardinals made two postseason appearances, including an NCAA Tournament Second Round qualification in 2006-07. That team also finished the year ranked No. 20 in the final USA Today/ESPN Coaches Top-25 poll.

Menzies was at UNLV for a year prior to his time at Louisville, assisting Head Coach Lon Kruger to bring in the fourth-best recruiting class in the nation.

In the 2003-04 season, Menzies was an assistant at Southern California. The Trojans brought in one of the best recruiting classes in the nation with his help, ranking third overall.

Menzies spent four years on the sidelines at San Diego State from 1999-2003, helping to guide the Aztecs to back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 1975-76. He helped ink top-25 (2001) and top-40 (2000) recruiting classes, including the program's first-ever McDonald's All-American.

Menzies began his collegiate coaching career at Santa Monica (Calif.) College as an assistant coach under John McMullen. Menzies spent six seasons as an assistant and associate head coach (1991-94, 1995-96 and 1997-99) there. He was the team's head coach for a year (in 1994-95) and guided the Corsairs to a 24-8 record. Menzies led Santa Monica to the Western States Conference title while he earned conference coach of the year honors.

With Menzies on the staff, the program was a collective 181-46. During his tenure, 38 players went on to NCAA schools. In 1996, the Corsairs produced a school-record 27-game winning streak and a school-best 32-2 finish. Menzies recruited the top three scorers in the school's history.

Between his time at Santa Monica, he was as an assistant coach at Cal State Sacramento (1996-97). He coached under Don Newman as the program transitioned from Division II to Division I.

Beginning his coaching career at his prep alma mater, Hamilton High School in Los Angeles, Calif., Menzies was an assistant coach for eight years. A California native, Menzies was a letter-winner in three sports at Hamilton.

Menzies earned a bachelor's degree in economics from UCLA in 1987 and a master's degree in education from Cal State Sacramento in 2003. In 2016, Menzies was recognized by President Barack Obama with a "Lifetime Achievement Award in Service."

He and his wife, Tammy, have a daughter, Andreanna, a son, Andre, and a niece, Aja Stankevich, who they consider another daughter.
