The OSU Outlook

- New look Oklahoma State is picked 10th out of 14 teams in the super-sized Big 12.
- Senior guard Bryce Thompson, last year's leading scorer, is one of just three scholarship holdovers from a 2022-23 group that won 20 games and reached the NIT quarterfinals after finishing one spot out on Selection Sunday.
- Mike Boynton Jr. not only has new faces, but a new approach. The seventh-year head coach used the off-season overhaul as an opportuinity to bring a little more balance to a program that has ranked among KenPom's top-20 defenses in each of the last three seasons but, at times, struggled to score. He put a premium on finding better shooters and ball-handlers and largely succeeded with a freshman class that has been ranked as high as seventh nationally, supplemented by an experienced transfer crop.
- Injured, inexperienced and just plain unlucky – that's perhaps the best way to sum up the early portion of OSU's non-conference schedule. A group of nine scholarship newcomers (six of them freshman) took it lumps during a 3-5 start that included four last-second defeats but played some of its best basketball in December.
- The Cowboys rank among the top-40 nationally in three-point percentage (.375) after finishing among the bottom-40 last year (.310) and their assist-to-turnover ratio has jumped from a league-low 0.87 to 1.21.
- Junior point Javon Small has been the primary catalyst. Boynton calls the ECU transfer his most-impactful addition since Cade Cunningham, and the numbers support him. Small leads the team in points (15.2) and assists (4.9) while averaging 2.3 threes on 43.8% accuracy.
- Small has also unlocked opportunities for Thompson, who is averaging a career-best 12.4 points on 23-of-56 three-point shooting (.411).
- Energy guy Quion Williams (8.1 ppg, team-best 6.2 rpg) has made the leap from deep reserve to full-time starter as sophomore. He can play the 3 or the 4 and is often tasked with guarding the opposing team's best scorer.
- Four of the five members of the OSU frontcourt are freshmen, including both starters:
- 6-8 power forward Eric Dailey Jr. -- a member of USA's Basketball's FIBA U19 World Cup squad -- is a versatile, inside-out weapon who averages close 10 points and 6 rebounds.
- 6-11 McDonald's All-American Brandon Garrison (5.6 ppg, 5.8 rpg) has a team-high 24 blocks while platooning with the group's wise elderstatement, 6-10 Jacksonville grad transfer Mike Marsh (6.8 ppg, 4.1 rpg).
- Backing up Small is freshman Jamyron Keller (6.3 ppg), a physical combo guard who can get down hill in a hurry.
- Two graduate guards -- John-Michael Wright and North Florida transfer Jarius Hicklen -- add poise and experience. They've combined for more than 3,500 points and 500 triples.
- Three other freshmen offer additional depth and upside: 6-6 sharp-shooter Connor Dow, 6-9 forward Justin McBride and 7-1 Isaiah Miranda (a redshirt last year at NC State).

- It was a lights out performance for Baylor – both literally and figuratively. The Bears made 8-of-15 threes in the first half to build a 39-23 lead and upped the margin to as many as 28 midway through the second half – around the time that a power failure halted play for more than 15 minutes.
- LJ Cryer scored 16 points with four 3-pointers for the Bears, who scored the game's first 13 points and never trailed.
- Caleb Asberry had 14 for the Cowboys, who used a 13-1 run to trim the deficit to 17-15 but were outscored 22-8 over the remainder of the period.

- Adam Flagler scored a career-high 29 points and James Akinjo sank a pull-up jumper with 14 seconds remaining in overtime to lift Baylor.
- Flagler made 11-of-20 field goals , including 7-of-13 threes. He also drew two charges in overtime.

- OSU made 15 of its last 21 field goal attempts of the first half, capped by Cisse's alley-oop dunk from Thompson, to go into the locker room with a 36-29 lead.
- Likekele, who joined OSU's 1,000-point club earlier in the day, hit an apparent game-winner with less than a second to play in regulation, but his circus shot from behind the basket was waived off due to a shot clock violation.

A Cowboy win would...

- Give them their longest winning streak (6) since a 6-0 start to the 2020-21 season.
- Be their eighth in the last 10 games on the heels of a 1-3 start.
- Make them 1-0 in Big 12 play for the first time since the 2015-16 season when they opened with a 69-48 home win over TCU.
- Up their home record to 8-2 with five consecutive victories.
- Be their first against Baylor at GIA since Jan. 27, 2015, snapping an eight-game losing streak.
- Up their all-time series lead over the Bears to 58-36 (27-13 in Stillwater).
- Be Boynton's 24th over an AP ranked opponent.

Up Next: Texas Tech
Tuesday, Jan. 9 | 7 p.m. CT | ESPN+

- The Cowboys play each of their next two games on the road at Texas Tech (Tuesday) and Iowa State (Saturday).
- The Red Raiders are in their first year under Grant McCasland, a former Baylor assistant who spent the past six years at North Texas. McCasland's Mean Green defeated OSU at GIA during their run to the 2023 NIT title.
- Picked eighth in the Big 12 preseason poll, Texas Tech (11-2) takes a six-game winning streak into Saturday's opener at Texas.
- OSU has won three straight and six of the last seven series meetings.
- The Cowboys swept last year's home-and-home by identical 71-68 scores. Caleb Asberry hit seven threes to lead the Cowboys to a road victory in the regular season finale. In Stillwater, Bryce Thompson scored 21 points and John-Michael Wright converted a game-winning three-point play with 0.4 seconds left.

Another Big Year for the Big 12

- The Big 12 (KenPom's highest-rated conference in eight of the last 10 seasons) is No. 1 again in 2023-24.
- The Cowboys ample opportunity to prove themselves NCAA tournament worthy with 12 of the 18 league games, including Saturday's matchup with Baylor, currently falling into Quadrant I territory.

Doing it with Defense:

- The Jan. 3 win over Chicago State marked the 102nd time under seventh-year head coach Mike Boynton Jr. that the Cowboys have held their opponent under 40% from the field.
- OSU is one of eight programs that have done it 100+ times in that span.
- OSU is 80-22 in those games and a perfect 6-0 this year.

Mike Boynton Jr.
7th year | South Carolina '03

- "Let's Work!" More than just a cliché team slogan, this defense-first, blue collar mentality is the foundation for seventh-year head coach Mike Boynton Jr.'s program at Oklahoma State.
- The 41-year-old Brooklyn native has guided the program to five postseason victories during his tenure along with three 20-win campaigns while winning the hearts and minds of the OSU community.
- The 2021 Cowboys finished with a No. 11 ranking and reached the second round of the NCAA tournament, while the 2018 and 2023 squads both advanced to the NIT quarterfinals.
- OSU's Nov. 12, 2023 win over Sam Houston State was Boynton's 108th and moved him into sole possession of fourth on OSU's career wins list.
- Boynton's 23 wins over nationally-ranked teams are the third-most in OSU history behind Eddie Sutton (49) and Henry Iba (27) and 11 of those victories have come against top-10 foes.
- Boynton's teams have led the Big 12 in blocked shots and finished among the top-20 in KenPom's defensive efficiency rankings in each of the last three seasons.
- Known as one of college basketball's good guys, Boynton was a finalist for the 2021 Skip Prosser Man of the Year, given annually to a head coach who exhibits strong moral character. Core values of his program center on respect, appreciation, accountability and discipline.
- In his first six seasons as the helm, Boynton has mentored 10 All-Big 12 selections and 22 academic all-conference honorees, including Cade Cunningham, who earned consensus First Team All-American, National Freshman of the Year and Big 12 Player of the Year honors during a standout 2020-21 season.

Cowboys in the Pros:
- Cunningham – drafted No. 1 overall by the Detroit Pistons – is one of three Boynton Era Cowboys who have gone on to play in the NBA, joined by Cameron McGriff (Blazers) and Lindy Waters III (Thunder).

On the Recruiting Trail:
- Boynton's tireless work ethic extends to all areas of the Cowboy program but has been most evident on the recruiting trail. Since November, 2019 he's signed three five-star and 12 four-star recruits, including Cunningham – the No. 1 recruit in the Class of 2020 and winner of the Naismith Trophy as the nation's best high school player.
- OSU's 2023 class (which has been ranked as high as seventh by national pundits) is Boynton's highest-rated, edging out the 2020 group. The front court trio of Brandon Garrison (Rivals No. 30), Eric Dailey Jr. (247Sports, No. 33) and Justin McBride (Rivals No. 79) all earned four-star grades, while guards Jamyron Keller (Rivals No. 134) and Connor Dow were three-star prospects. Not included in that ranking was redshirt freshman Isaiah Miranda, who ranked as high as 29th in that class before reclassifying.
- Garrison joined current Cowboy senior Bryce Thompson and Cunningham as former McDonald's All-Americans have who have gone on to play for Boynton.

OKC Native is OSU's First 2024 Signee:
- Another of Oklahoma's own will suit up for the Cowboys next fall. 6-foot-4 playmaker Jeremiah Johnson made his Oklahoma State commitment official on Nov. 8 by signing an NLI.
- Originally from Oklahoma City, Johnson played for Utah-based Wasatch Academy last spring in the National Interscholastic Basketball League and will further test himself this year in the Overtime Elite League while competing for PHHoenix (AZ) Prep.
- Johnson is a four-star recruit, per ESPN, and 247Sports rates him the No. 141 prospect in the Class of 2024. He chose the Cowboys over finalists LSU, SMU, Saint Louis and TCU.

Boynton on Johnson:
- "We're excited for another homegrown Oklahoma athlete to decide Stillwater is the place to be. Jeremiah Johnson has had a heck of a journey. He's endured setbacks but shown tremendous resiliency. We look forward to his continued growth once he gets to campus. Jeremiah is a high-level athlete and competitor. He's driven to be his best and wants to win above anything else. His versatility will be a great asset. He can function as a both scorer and as a playmaker and shot creator for his teammates."

Going Back to Give Back:
- Mike Boynton Jr. was among a select group of Big 12 men's and women's basketball coaches who traveled to Rucker Park last July to lead youth clinics as part of the conference's inaugural Big 12 Hoops in the Park program.
- Despite a busy summer travel schedule that included overseas trips to Hungary and Spain, the choice to participate was an easy one for Boynton. The Brooklyn native grew up watching games at the world-famous venue and embraced the opportunity to give back to his home city.
- Boynton was joined by Big 12 men's coaches Scott Drew (Baylor), Mark Pope (BYU), Wes Miller (Cincinnati), Jerome Tang (Kansas State) and Jamie Dixon (TCU) and five others from the women's side.

'Orange & Black' --> 'Red, White & Blue'
- Head coach Mike Boynton, video coordinator Kris Quintana and freshman Eric Dailey Jr. logged some serious frequent flyer miles this summer. Prior to the Cowboys' foreign tour of Spain, the trio were in Hungary with USA Basketball for the FIBA U19 World Cup.
- Boynton served as an assistant coach for the U.S. while Quintana handled the team's film scouting.
- Dailey averaged 9.7 points on 50% in seven tournament games, along with 4.3 rebounds, 1.0 block and 1.0 steal in 17.9 minutes. On a per-40-minute basis, he put up 21.8 points and 9.6 rebounds.
- The U.S. team won its first five games by an average of 38 points before losing a heartbreaker to France in the semifinal round.

NOTING THE PROGRAM

- Cowboy Basketball enjoys a rich history with two national championships (1945 & 1946) and five representatives in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.
- OSU was the first Division I men's basketball program to win back-to-back national titles. Then known as the Aggies of Oklahoma A&M, they defeated NYU, 49-45, in the 1945 NCAA tournament title game and downed North Carolina, 43-40, for the 1946 crown. Both games were played at Madison Square Garden.
- Gallagher-Iba Arena is often referred to as The Madison Square Garden of the Plains. The historic venue enters its 85th season of use in 2023-24. Cowboy teams are 850-256 all-time. A 2000 renovation doubled the building's capacity of the while perserving its history and sightlines.

Eddie Sutton	Inducted in 2011

- Mr. Henry Iba was one of college basketball first great head coaches, responsible for pioneering modern concepts such as a patterned, motion offense. He was also the first to incorporate the help principles of zone defense with man-to-man defense. Iba won 752 games over his 40-year career -- the last 36 of which came in Stillwater.
- A three-time All-American from 1943-46 and the Most Outstanding Player on each of OSU's national title winners, Bob Kurland's not only left his mark in college basketball's record book but also its rule book. One of the game's first 7-footers was known to routinely leap up and grab opponent shots before they hit the rim, leading the creation of the goaltending rule.
- Kurland is also credited with college basketball's first dunk during a 1944 road game at Temple. "The ball happened to be under the basket. I got it up and stuffed it in. That started it, I guess," he told the Orlando Sentinel in 2012. "It was an unintentional accident. It wasn't planned, just a spontaneous play in Philadelphia."
- Eddie Sutton played and coached under Iba in the 1950s and returned in 1990 to lead OSU back to national prominence with Final Fours in 1994 and 2005. OSU's court is named in his honor.
- Before he coached Texas Western to the 1967 national title and inspired the motion picture Glory Road, Don Haskins played for Iba at OSU. The 1952 graduate lettered three years for the Aggies and played on two NCAA semifinalists.
- Kansas head coach Bill Self played four years at OSU (1981-85) and spent seven years as an OSU assistant under Sutton (1986-93) before landing his first head coaching job at ORU.
