The group takes that mentality to practice every day. They have a blue-collar, bring-your-lunch-pail-to-work mentality. The linemen have hats with a diesel pump and a drop of fuel on the front. Legend has it that they found the hats at a truck stop. The mother of a former Falcon, Wolfgang Rehbock, helped secure

AIR FORCE ONE OF ONLY TWO

THIESSEN LONGEST TENURED OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Air Force offensive coordinator Mike Thiessen is in his 18th at Air Force overall and 13th as offensive coordinator in 2024. Thiessen is the longest-tenured offensive coordinator in the nation.

Thiessen was a two-sport standout at Air Force, earning letters in football and baseball. The 2001 graduate was a freshman All-American in baseball in 1998 and a third-team honoree in 2000. Drafted by Arizona in 2001, Thiessen is the all-time Air Force record holder in hits, games, runs, doubles, total bases and walks. He was named Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year in 2000 while leading Air Force to a 9-3 overall record. He was inducted into the Air Force Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017.

Thiessen's offenses have won nine conference rushing titles and ranked among the nation's top five 11 times in his previous 12 seasons. The Falcons became just the second team to win three straight national rushing titles, winning the title from 2020-22.

AIR FORCE ACADEMY 101

The Cadet Wing

- To prepare cadets for the life of an officer, the Cadet Wing at the U.S. Air Force Academy simulates the organization of an operational Air Force wing.
- Cadets are responsible for running and operating the wing, which affords them the opportunity to learn how to use a chain of command, how to function as part of various military formations and how military units organize to accomplish collective tasks.
- The wing is led by the Cadet Wing Commander who is the highest-ranking, first-class cadet.
- Within the Cadet Wing, first-class (senior) cadets hold the positions of cadet officers, second-class (junior) cadets act as the cadet non-commissioned officers and third-class (sophomore) cadets represent the cadet junior non-commissioned officers. Fourth-class cadets act as followers and function as cadet Airmen.

Cadet Squadrons

- The 4,000+ cadets who comprise the Cadet Wing are divided into four groups of 10 squadrons each. Cadets live, eat and take part in military training with their squadrons, which are comprised of roughly even numbers of cadets from all four class years. The squadron is the "home" or "family" for the cadets. Cadets typically forge very close bonds with their squadron-mates.
- When the first class entered the academy in the summer of 1955, they were divided into four squadrons. In the years following, the number of squadrons gradually increased at an average of four to eight per year. By 1970, the size in the cadet wing reached its peak of 40 squadrons. The number of squadrons dipped from 40 to 36 in 1999 but returned to its current strength of 40 squadrons in 2006.
- Air Officers Commanding (AOC) supervise cadets and are located within each group and squadron. These Air Force officers oversee all cadet activities, provide instruction and serve as role models as the cadets experience firsthand the processes of command and organization to accomplish the mission. Academy Military Trainer (AMT) NCOs complement the AOCs and provide an enlisted role model perspective.
- Squadron patches were designed in the early 1960s.

THE RAM-FALCON TROPHY

Air Force and Colorado State compete each year for the Ram-Falcon Trophy. The 2024 season marks 44th year of the trophy competition with Air Force holding a 28-15 lead following a 30-13 win in Fort Collins last season. The Falcons have won seven straight trophy titles. The trophy's origin is tracked back to Shelly Godkin, a former ROTC commander at Colorado State. He watched the teams play in 1978 and sought to translate his impressions into a trophy symbolic of an annual game. The first Ram-Falcon trophy game was in 1980.

AIR FORCE TO HONOR AFSOC WITH 2024 APLS EDITION

The Air Force football team will honor Air Force Special Operations Command with the 2024 edition of the Air Power Legacy Series uniform. Air Force Special Operations Command (AFSOC) is always ready to answer our nation's call and provide forces for worldwide deployment. The Falcons will wear the special uniform for the Navy game scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 5, in Falcon Stadium and broadcasted on CBS.

The uniform combination has a number of key elements highlighting areas of the AFSOC mission. The helmet features the official emblem of AFSOC. The back bumper of the helmet highlights AFSOC's motto, "Any Place, Any Time, Anywhere." A sticker on the back of the helmet highlights the Air Force Special Tactics logo with a lightning bolt, green feet, and dagger, representing the "First there, that others may live" community. The front bumper of the helmet features the Special Tactics Combat Control motto "First There." The jersey name plate on the right chest features each player's name. The right sleeve is adorned with an American flag, while the left showcases one of three different badges representative of Air Force Special Tactics. The red swoosh on the jersey and pants, along with the red outline in the numbers, are a tip of the cap to the scarlet beret worn by Special Tactics Combat Controllers. On the back of the jersey will be AFSOC in the traditional nameplate. The pants will feature a dagger, a symbol of special operations, on the left leg and the Special Tactics Combat Control motto "First There" on the right leg.

Air Force Special Operations Command, headquartered at Hurlburt Field, Florida, is the special operations component of the United States Air Force. AFSOC is also the service's component to United States Special Operations Command (USSOCOM), a unified combatant command located at MacDill Air Force Base, Florida. AFSOC provides all Air Force Special Operations Forces (SOF) for worldwide deployment and assignment to regional unified combatant commands.

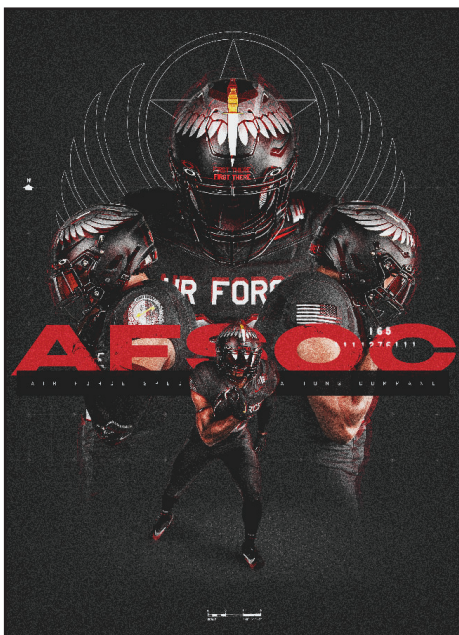

With a rich 30-year history, AFSOC boasts a legacy of Air Commandos who have excelled in missions globally. Air Commandos epitomize resilience, leadership, and teamwork. They are known to push boundaries, embodying the ethos that humans are more important than hardware. Fueled by a warrior spirit and tenacity, they drive towards innovative solutions, serving as community leaders and unit pillars.

Special Tactics is the Air Force's special operations ground force, using airpower to solve ground problems anytime, anywhere. Their missions include precision strike, global access, personnel recovery and battlefield surgery. They operate as independent Special Tactics teams and embed with joint SOF partners including the Navy SEALs, Army Special Forces and Marine Raiders.

Special Tactics is the Air Force's most decorated community since Vietnam with one Medal of Honor recipient and hundreds of Air Force Crosses, Silver Stars, Bronze Star Medals, and Purple Hearts. Since Sept. 11, 2001, Air Force Special Tactics has been involved in almost every major combat operation and enabled global humanitarian aid missions. Notably, they have had 21 operators killed in action since 2000, three of which were Air Force Academy graduates.

HEAD COACH TROY CALHOUN

Troy Calhoun is in his 18th season as head coach at Air Force, where he has a 131-83 overall record and a 77-55 mark in Mountain West play. He has led Air Force to 13 bowl games, including a school-record six straight from 2007-12.

Calhoun, who won his 100th game during the 2020 season, has led the program to an 11-win season (2019), four 10-win seasons (2014, 2016, 2021, 2022), three nine-win seasons (2007, 2010, 2023) and three with eight wins (2008, 2009 and 2015). He has led the Falcons to the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy five times, including 2022. Calhoun led the Falcons to an 8-6 overall record in 2015 and the Mountain Division championship and first-ever MW title game appearance. The 2019 Falcons posted an 11-2 overall record, the third-most wins in program history, and finished second in the MW Mountain Division with a school-record-tying 7-1 record.

Calhoun is the only coach in the 100-plus year history of service academy football to lead teams to at least seven wins and a bowl game in each of his first five seasons. Calhoun has been a semifinalist for the National Coach of the Year award three times (2007, 2010, 2019). Calhoun came to his alma mater in 2007 and took over a program that had three straight losing seasons. Air Force finished the 2007 season 9-4 overall and placed second in the Mountain West Conference with a 6-2 mark in Calhoun's first year. The Falcons earned their first bowl bid in five seasons, advancing to the Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth, Texas. The five-game turnaround from the previous season was the largest in the nation by a first-year head coach and tied as the third largest overall in the nation.

Calhoun brought a wealth of experience and impressive resume at the collegiate and professional levels that is flooded with success at every stop. Calhoun came to the Academy after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Houston Texans in 2006. The Texans were one of only two NFL teams to triple their number of wins from the previous year.

Calhoun became a well-rounded NFL coach, working as a defensive assistant, special teams assistant and offensive assistant with the Denver Broncos from 2003-05. He began his NFL coaching career by serving as the defensive assistant under defensive coordinator Larry Coyer in 2003.

Prior to the NFL, Calhoun was an offensive coordinator for six seasons on the collegiate level. He began his coaching career at Air Force, where he worked as a graduate assistant from 1989-90. He started at quarterback for the Academy in 1986 and was one of only two freshmen to letter for the 1985 team that finished fifth in the final polls with a 12-1 record that included wins over national powers Notre Dame and Texas.

Calhoun served his country from 1989-95 as an active-duty officer in the Air Force. He was the Falcons' recruiting coordinator and the junior varsity offensive coordinator in 1993-94. He moved to Ohio University in 1995 where he served as the quarterbacks coach for two seasons. Calhoun was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1997. Calhoun moved to Wake Forest in 2001 and remained there prior to his stint with the Broncos.

Groomed on the basics of integrity and passion, Calhoun is a native of Roseburg, Ore., and was raised in a home where both kids graduated from the Air Force Academy and were varsity letter winners on nationally ranked teams. He and his wife, Amanda, live in Colorado Springs and have two children, Tyler and Amelia.
