OFFENSIVE NOTES

- The Bears finished with 337 total offensive yards, 258 passing and 79 rushing.
- Out of Baylor's 258 passing yards, 198 came in the first half. Prior to BU, ISU had not allowed 125 yards passing in a game this year.
- Baylor put up 21 points, the most ISU has allowed this season. Prior to Baylor, Iowa State's defense led the Big 12 and ranked fourth nationally, allowing 7.3 points per game.
- Baylor is the first team in three weeks to reach the red zone vs. ISU, doing so in the opening drive and going 2-2 in the red zone.
 - Prior to Baylor, Iowa State's opponents have only reached the red zone just five times in four games.
- Junior QB Sawyer Robertson went 25-44-1 and 258 passing yards with three passing touchdowns.
 - Marked back-to-back games that Robertson has thrown for three passing touchdowns.
- Redshirt junior TE Michael Trigg found the endzone for the second time this season, the first since season-opener, and the seventh time in his career.
 - Trigg ended with a career-high night with best seven catches and best 61 yards.
 - Trigg led the team for the first time this season in receptions.
- Senior WR Ketron Jackson outdid his season-total with five catches for 66 yards and a touchdown, including a 25-yard reception for touchdown.
 - Jackson led the team in receiving yards.
- Redshirt junior WR Josh Cameron added on his fourth touchdown of the season and fourth of his career on a four-yard pass in the endzone.
 - Cameron ended the night with two catches for 10 yards.
- Robertson found senior WR Hal Presley for a 31-yard completion, longest reception for Presley this season.
 - This marks only the third time this season ISU has allowed a pass longer than 25 yards this season.
 - Presley ended the night with five catches for 57 yards.
