Feb. 13-15 / Stephenville, Texas

WEEK 2: AT BAYLOR / AT ABILENE CHRISTIAN (DH)

THE LEAD

South Dakota State continues its stay in the Lone Star State this week competing against two opponents in midweek games. The Jackrabbits take on Baylor at the Bears' Gettman Stadium at 5 p.m. Tuesday, then head to Abilene Christian to face the Wildcats on Wednesday in a doubleheader starting at 2 p.m. SDSU eventually closes its stay in Texas by participating in Tarleton State's Whataburger Invitational starting on Friday.

SDSU is 1-1 all-time against Baylor. The Jackrabbits played at doubleheader in Waco against the Bears in 2023. The Jacks lost a game 3-0 to Baylor, but also beat the then No. 20-ranked Bears 5-2. It was SDSU's first ever victory against a ranked opponent at the time. Two current Jackrabbits played in that doubleheader in Alli Boyle and Alivya Bollen, while graduate assistant coaches Tori Kniesche and Rozelyn Carrillo were standouts in the ranked win.

The Jackrabbits have previously played Abilene Christian once. The two sides also met in that same 2023 season. SDSU defeated the Wildcats, 10-9, that February in a tournament hosted by Texas State.

KEY STORYLINES

■ The Jacks are coming off a five-game appearance at the East Texas A&M Leadoff in Commerce. The Jackrabbits went 4-1 with victories over Texas Southern (4-1), Bucknell (7-3), East Texas A&M (9-2) and Stephen F. Austin (4-3). SDSU's lone defeat came by a 7-6 score to SFA in a game in which the Jacks led 6-1 in the sixth inning.

■ Multiple pitchers stood out in the circle for SDSU. Madi Mangulis earned a 2-0 record, including a save, to go along with a 1.43 ERA in 15 innings pitched. Akayla Barnard, Hailey Herman and Amanda Vacanti all made starts as well. Both Herman and Vacanti picked up wins for SDSU, while Barnard holds a team-best 1.40 ERA.

■ South Dakota State is hitting .331 as a team following the opening five games of the season. Six Jackrabbits are hitting at least .333 with at least 10 at bats in Alivya Bollen (.500), Barnard (.444), Boyle (.400), Emma Christensen (.389), Ella Berlage (.333) and Bria Riebel (.333).

■ South Dakota State returns to action with a great deal of experience representing the Yellow and Blue in 2026. The Jackrabbits in the circle bring back 98% of their innings pitched from 2025. ophomores Tayler Baker and Sylvia Shromoff were SDSU's standouts in conference play. Baker was a Second Team All-Summit League selection and Shromoff was an honorable mention. Both finished their freshman seasons with sub-4.00 ERAs.

■ Two players that will be notably missed from last year's roster are Brooke Dumont and Mia Jarecki. Multiple time all-conference honorees, the former SDSU duo made their impact on the Jackrabbit record book. Jarecki finished as SDSU's all-time runs scored record holder (154) and Dumont as the program's all-time runners caught stealing record holder (34).

■ The Jackrabbits went 29-26 overall during the 2025 season. SDSU extended its streak of consecutive winning seasons to seven which is the longest stretch in program history. South Dakota State is led by fourth-year head coach Kristina McSweeney who holds a 101-67 record in her time guiding the program. One of seven coaches in SDSU history with more than 50 wins, her current .601 win percentage ranks the best among that same group.

WE ARE THE SOUTH DAKOTA STATE JACKRABBITS

Please call us South Dakota State or SDSU.

Please do not call us San Diego State, SDST or SDS, and please, never call us South Dakota. What's the difference? Great Question. Calling us "South Dakota" is like calling Arizona State, "Arizona," or Ohio State, "Ohio."

Again, calling South Dakota State "San Diego State" is just not cool, so please don't do it.

Also, Jackrabbits is one word, not Jack Rabbits or JackRabbits. Our jackrabbit mascot is modeled after a real species of rabbit, not a rabbit named Jack. Technically speaking, a jackrabbit is a hare, but let's not get technical. Calling us the Jacks is an acceptable second reference.

HEAD COACH KRISTINA MCSWEENEY

Kristina McSweeney was announced as head coach of the Jackrabbit softball program on June 24, 2022, and is in the midst of her fourth season in 2026.

McSweeney came to SDSU following a 10-year stretch guiding Arkansas Tech. The Golden Suns two conference regular season titles and four GAC tournament crowns under her direction. They qualified for the NCAA Division II Regional Tournament six of her last seven seasons at Arkansas Tech. McSweeney was tabbed her conference's Coach of the Year in 2016 and 2022. She also served four years as head coach at the junior college level at Seminole State College prior to her tenure at ATU.

McSweeney led SDSU to its first undefeated Summit League campaign in program history in 2023 and was rewarded as the conference's Coach of the Year. SDSU extended an active regular season conference title streak to four in 2024. The Jackrabbits have pushed their winning season stretch to seven consecutive years, the longest span in SDSU's program history. McSweeney has coached a pair of Summit League Players of the Year (2024 - Mia Jarecki; 2025 - Abby Gentry) along with the 2023 Pitcher of the Year in Tori Kniesche.

Three points behind the Mavericks in the poll was St. Thomas which tied Omaha in the regular season standings last year. SDSU held the No. 3 spot with 25 total points.

TAKING CARE OF BIG TEN FOES

SDSU defeated Minnesota in 2024 in a mid-week showdown in Minneapolis on April 24, 7-0. The victory for the Jacks was their first over the Gophers since 2007, ending a four-game win streak for Minnesota, while SDSU improved to 4-8 in the series. The Jackrabbits went 4-1 versus Big Ten opponents in 2024 with two wins over Purdue and a split of contests against Ohio State.

NON-CONFERENCE LEADS TO SUMMIT

The Jackrabbit squad again faced a tough slate of opponents in 2024 prior to beginning Summit League play. A year after facing the 36th toughest strength of schedule in the non-conference among DI teams, the 2024 SDSU team faced the 19th most difficult schedule.

South Dakota State has now faced off against 37 (includes 2025) nationally-ranked foes in its time as a Division I program. Eleven of those meetings came in 2024 alone. The Jacks faced Missouri, Oklahoma State, Arkansas, Duke, Florida State and Kentucky, all of which were ranked when SDSU faced them. The Jackrabbits pulled out a win over Arkansas on its home field on March 2 by a 7-3 score. The victory served as SDSU's highest in its program history with the Hogs ranked 15th at the time and just its second ever, both of which have come in the last two seasons.

MCSWEENEY GETS WIN NO. 400

South Dakota State got out to a 2-0 start to the 2024 season. The second win, a 1-0 score versus Santa Clara, signified an achievement for the program's head coach. The victory over Santa Clara served as the 400th of SDSU head coach Kristina McSweeney's during her career at the NCAA level. In the midst of her second season at SDSU, McSweeney spent a majority of her head coaching tenure -- which has spanned 12 seasons -- at Arkansas Tech at the Division II level. McSweeney stood at a 401-207 (.660) record following the tournament.

PROGRAM REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

Despite their 2024 season ending in The Summit League Tournament Championship game, the year signified the recent consistent success the Jackrabbits have had.

South Dakota State's Summit League championship appearance, though it was its third consecutive, was just the fourth overall as a program.

SDSU made its title game debut in 2018.

The Jackrabbits' appearance in the 2023 NISC represented a fifth straight trip to postseason play. Excluding the COVID year, SDSU won 30-plus games in six straight seasons which was a first in the program's history.

COACHING STAFF AT HOME IN BROOKINGS

The 2024 season is the third under head coach Kristina McSweeney. She spent the previous 10 seasons guiding the Arkansas Tech program and went 359-186-1 (.658) during her time in Russellville.

Making the move with her from Arkansas Tech was Josh Bertke who serves with her as associate head coach at SDSU. Their first season in Brookings saw McSweeney chosen as The Summit League's Coach of the Year as she led an undefeated regular season campaign.

Joining the coaching fray are graduate assistants Rozelyn Carrillo and Tori Kniesche. Both had standout careers in Yellow and Blue for the Jackrabbits.
