BROTHER VS. BROTHER

- Baylor wide receiver Landry Kinne is the brother of first-year Texas State head coach G.J. Kinne.
- Landry Kinne made the switch from quarterback – the position he played in his first season on campus in 2022 – to wide receiver in the spring of 2023. It was a similar move that G.J. made in 2015 with the Philadelphia Eagles.
- Landry is in his second year after playing the two seasons at Tyler Junior College as a QB in 2020-21. He prepped locally at La Vega High School, leading his team to the state championship game in 2019.
- The father of Landry and G.J., Gary Joe – played linebacker at Baylor from 1986-89 and later served on the coaching staff.

CONNECTING THE TEAMS

- Just a couple hours away from each other, and with coaching units that have been in the state of Texas, there are several connections between the two teams, none more notable than Texas State head coach G.J. Kinne being the son of former Baylor linebacker Gary Joe Kinne and the brother of current BU wide receiver Landry.
- Baylor third-year offensive line coach Eric Mateos coached the 2017 and 2018 seasons as the offensive line coach with the Bobcats.
- Coach Dave Aranda served on the same Hawaii staff in 2008 as Texas State's Craig Stutzmann, who is the passing-game coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Bobcats. Aranda was the defensive line coach in 2008 for Hawaii.

SCOUTING THE CATS

- Texas State is under first-year head coach G.J. Kinne, who came to the Cats after a 12-win season in his lone year as a head coach at UIW. Kinne prepped as a coach at SMU (2017), Arkansas (2018), Philadelphia Eagles (2019), Hawaii (2020) and UCF (2021) before getting the head job in downtown San Antonio.
- Kinne replaces Jake Spavital for third-year athletics director Don Coryell and credits UTSA head coach Jeff Traylor, his high school coach at Gilmer High School in Gilmer, Texas, as his lead mentor. Kinne and Traylor face off in week 2. Kinne led UIW to the FCS semifinals in his lone year as a head coach, falling at powerhouse North Dakota State in Fargo, N.D., which followed a thrilling 66-63 win over second-ranked Sacramento State in the quarterfinals.
- Kinne brought his offensive coordinator, Mack Leftwich, and his defensive coordinator Jonathan Patke from UIW. Leftwich spent the 2018-22 seasons at UIW under multiple head coaches, while Patke served as the linebackers coach/special teams coordinator at Miami from 2018-21 before joining the UIW staff.
- Texas State looks poised to use former Arkansas QB Malik Hornsby as its signal caller in 2023, with wide receiver Ashtyn Hawkins, who had seven TDs and 587 receiving yards last year, set to lead the offense. RB Calvin Hill rushed 76 times for 333 yards and a score during the 4-8 TXST season in 2022. Defensively, Jordan Revels had 70 tackles, 11 for a loss, and 4.5 sacks as a junior for the Cats. The Bobcats will run a likely wide-open offense, with the passing game coordinated by Craig Stutzmann, who was the offensive coordinator at Utah Tech and led an offense dubbed the "Spread-N-Shred". The defense under Patke will likely feature a base 4-2-5 alignment.
- Coryell is in his third year as the AD after spending 19 years in the athletics department. He leads a 16-sport department in the Sun Belt Conference and in 2021-22 the Cats won the Bubas Cup, given to the best program in the Sun Belt. A 1998 graduate of Lamar who played basketball for the Cardinals and played a season overseas professionally, began his career as the Assistant AD for Development at Lamar before joining the Bobcats staff in an external role. Travis Comer is the sport administrator for football and has been with TXST since 2008, currently serving as the Executive Senior Associate AD for Development and Administration.

PRESEASON HONORS

- The Bears have had a bevy of honors in the preseason, including members of several watch lists, including safety Alfonso Allen (Wuerffel Trophy), offensive lineman Clark Barrington (Rimington Trophy), defensive lineman Gabe Hall (Bronko Nagurski Trophy) and running back Richard Reese (Maxwell Award, Doak Walker Award).
- In addition, the College Football Network named Baylor the Preseason Big 12 Offensive Line of the Year.

STAFF ADDITIONS

- Baylor added several key members to its coaching and support staff in the offseason.
- The Bears have added new defensive coordinator Matt Powledge, who will also coach safeties, after Powledge spent the 2022 season as the co-defensive coordinator at Oregon. A native of Huntsville, Texas, Powledge spent two seasons as the safeties and special teams coordinator at Baylor in 2020-21 before joining the staff at Oregon.
- AJ Steward has been tabbed as the assistant head coach and running backs coach for the Bears after spending the last two seasons as the running backs coach at Oregon State. He previously had stops at Arizona (2020), BYU (2018-19) – where he coached with Jeff Grimes and Eric Mateos – and Rice (2012-17). A native of St. Louis, Mo., Steward helped Oregon State to a 10-3 record last year.
- Baylor also added Christian Robinson as the coach of the inside linebackers, with Robinson joining the staff after coaching linebackers at Auburn in 2022, which followed four seasons in the same role at Florida. Robinson, a native of Norcross, Ga., has also had coaching stops at Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Georgia, where he played for a pair of SEC Eastern Division Championship teams.

He hit 22.8 MPH on the GPS during a TD catch vs. Oklahoma State, which marked the fastest player in college football in 2022. A 5-foot-9, 170-pounder, Baldwin bench presses 405 pounds, squats 550 pounds and power cleans 300.
- Senior defensive lineman Gabe Hall checked in No. 45 on the Freaks list. A 6-6, 296-pounder, Hall bench presses 500 pounds, squats 565, cleans 365 and did a 750-pound trap bar deadlift. He has also hit 19.9 MPH on the GPS.

REESE SETS FRESHMAN RUSHING RECORD

- Reese ranked fourth in the nation among freshmen rushers in 2022 and second with 14 rushing TDs, which also ranked fourth in program single-season history.
- Reese enters the 2023 season on the Maxwell Award and Doak Walker Award Watch Lists, and has earned preseason first-team All-Big 12 honors from Athlon Sports, the Big 12 media and Pro Football Focus.

HOLDING SERVE AT McLANE

- Baylor owns a 12-5 record at McLane Stadium under the direction of Coach Dave Aranda, including a 10-3 mark over the last two years. The Bears had a nine-game winning streak at home snapped in a loss to Oklahoma State.

A BAYLOR WIN WOULD ...

- Make Coach Dave Aranda 4-0 in season openers in his Baylor career.
- Improve Aranda to 21-16 in his fourth year as the head coach of the Bears.
- Make Baylor 10-0 all-time against Texas State and 9-0 in games played in Waco.
- Mark the sixth-straight season-opening win with the last loss coming in 2017.
- Improve Aranda to 3-0 all-time against Texas State.
- Give Baylor's its 37th home win at McLane Stadium in 55 games, improving the mark to 37-18.
- Make the Bears 628-593-44 all-time.

PERSON > PLAYER

- A hallmark of Coach Dave Aranda’s philosophy in building a program is placing an importance on understanding that the person is more important than the player. This mantra is executed in everything the program touches on a daily basis. Throughout the football building, signage adorns the walls that emphasize, “better people make better players” and that Baylor will “win with character”.
- Aranda preaches that players focus on today and be authentically themselves in an effort to be comfortable and confident in their roles.

CHASING RUSH DEFENSE HISTORY

- The Bears opened the 2022 season holding each of their first four opponents, and five of their first seven, to under 100 rushing yards. It marked the longest streak of consecutive games holding foes to under 100 yards on the ground since 1953, when the Bears held opponents in games 2-6 (Miami, Arkansas, Vanderbilt, Texas A&M, TCU) to under 100 yards rushing.
- The season program standard for holding an opponent to 100 yards or fewer on the ground came in 1986, when the Bears held Wyoming, LA Tech, USC, Houston, Texas A&M, Rice and Texas to under 100 yards rushing. BU held six opponents to 100 yards or fewer on the ground during the historic 2021 season.
- A total of 11 opponents in the last two years haven’t reached 100 yards rushing, the best two-season total in program annals.

Baylor Opponents in Bold

TIGHT END U

- Baylor’s offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes is also the tight-end coach for the Bears, marking one of just 10 coaches in college football to serve in those two roles.
- Grimes is one of two offensive coordinators who also serves as the tight-ends coach in the Big 12, joining Andy Kotelnicki at Kansas.
- The Bears are consistently talent rich at the tight end position and Grimes places tremendous value in the TE role in his offensive attack. Baylor regularly runs sets with two or three tight ends on the field at the same time and in 2023, boast a plethora of talent in the position, including sophomore bruiser Kelsey Johnson, North Texas transfer Jake Roberts and senior Drake Dabney. In addition, the Bears can use tight end Gavin Yates in a variety of roles, and boast youthful talent in Cody Mladenka and true freshmen Matthew Klopfenstein and Hawkins Polley.

ADDING VIA THE PORTAL

- Following the 2021 Big 12 Championship season, the Bears elected to approach the offseason with caution in relation to the embracing of the transfer portal. The Bears added just a handful of players via the portal before the 2022 season and with a roster full of youth at skill positions during the season, Baylor has taken a different approach leading into 2023.
- Coach Dave Aranda spoke openly about his adaptation and growth via the portal during the preseason talking circuit: “One of the struggles for me,” Aranda said, “has always been if you say yes to something, a player outside your team that’s in the portal, you’re saying no to a player on your team that maybe is struggling from an injury, that’s maybe trying to get his class, his schoolwork in order, that’s maybe trying to hone the techniques of his new position that he’s playing or maybe he’s trying to gain weight or any of those things. When you bring somebody in, you almost kind of stunt the growth of that person. For me to kind of come to grips with, ‘Hey, this is what needs to happen for the betterment of the team’ as opposed to just looking at what’s best for that one particular player on your team.”
- The Bears added 13 players via the transfer portal in 2023, including BYU offensive lineman Campbell Barrington and Clark Barrington, Liberty linebacker Mike Smith, wide receiver Ketron Jackson Jr., Utah State linebacker Bryon Vaughns, Oklahoma State running back Dominic Richardson, Maine defensive lineman Justin Sambu, Oregon defensive lineman Treven Ma’ae, Miami cornerback Isaiah Dunson, Mississippi State quarterback Sawyer Robertson, Michigan State kicker Jack Stone and North Texas tight end Jake Roberts.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF EXTRA YEARS

- A total of six Baylor Bears are using 2023 as their additional year of eligibility through the NCAA’s COVID-19 impacted rules.
- Two returnees, including TJ Franklin and Bryson Jackson, are using 2023 as their COVID years, while transfers Mike Smith Jr., Byron Vaughns, Justin Sambu and Clark Barrington are all transfers from previous institutions and enter the season already possessing their undergraduate degrees.

SPRING ENROLEES

- A total of 21 of Baylor’s newcomers arrived on campus to participate in spring practice.
- Transfers Isaiah Dunson (Miami), Sawyer Robertson (Mississippi State), RJ Martinez (Northern Arizona), Domininc Richardson (Oklahoma St.), Mike Smith (Liberty), Clark Barrington (BYU), Campbell Barrington (BYU), David Marshall Jr. (Navarro CC), Jake Roberts (UNT) and Jack Stone (Michigan State) all enrolled in time for spring practice. Several freshmen including Carl Williams, Caden Jenkins, Bryson Washington, Hawkins Polley, Matthew Klopfenstein, Jonathan Nielsen, Wes Tucker, Micah Gifford, Tay’Shawn Wilson and Palmer Williams all got a jump on spring ball.

SHAPEN IS QB1

- Baylor junior Blake Shapen won the quarterback competition after a strong spring practice. The 2021 Big 12 Championship Most Outstanding Player, Shapen set a Big 12 Championship and AT&T Stadium (college games) record with 17-straight completions in the first half vs. Oklahoma State.
- He won the starting job in the 2021 spring as well and made all 13 starts as a sophomore in 2022. Shapen threw for 2,790 yards and 18 TDs during the year, adding a pair of rushing scores.
- Shapen played in six games with two starts in 2021 after a redshirt season in 2020, throwing for 596 yards and five TDs without an interception, completing 72.1 percent of his attempts.
- A native of Shreveport, La., Shapen came to Baylor as a two-sport athlete, and was on the baseball 2021 roster after coming out of high school as the No. 1-ranked high school shortstop prospect and the fourth-best HS prospect overall in Louisiana.
- He prepped at Evangel Christian Academy, where he was a four-star prospect according to ESPN and was ranked as the No. 22 QB nationally.

FOURTH-DOWN AGGRESSIVENESS

- Baylor under Coach Dave Aranda is one of the most aggressive teams in college football on fourth down. In 2022, the Bears ranked second nationally in fourth-down conversions (30), trailing only Texas Tech (33).
- The Bears converted 63.8 percent of their fourth-down attempts, which ranked 12th among teams that have attempted 15+ fourth-down tries in 2022.

18 STRAIGHT GAMES HOLDING OPPONENT UNDER 30

- Over the course of the 2021 season during the start of 2022, Baylor’s defense put up a historic run, the likes of which haven’t been seen in 36 years, holding 18 consecutive opponents to 30 or fewer points.
- It was the longest such Baylor streak in the modern-era of college football and the longest since 1984-86. Only three times since 1964 has Baylor had a streak of 18 or more games holding an opponent to 30 or fewer points, also doing it in 1979-81, a 25-game stretch.
- The Bears were one of only three teams to hold each opponent of 2021 under 30 points, joining Clemson and Cincinnati. Last year, Baylor on average held opponents to 10.6 points per game below their averages in other games.

- The season lid-lifter will start a stretch of four consecutive home games and the Bears will play five of their first six at home to open the year. The eight home games is the most in program history, and the four straight to open the year at home marks the most consecutive home games to start a season since the 2013 Big 12 Championship season.

- Through the 2022 season, Baylor has won 96 games since 2011, second-most among the state of Texas’ 12 FBS teams.
- BU’s 96 wins in the last 10+ years are shy of Houston (97) and tied with Texas A&M (96) and TCU (96), and ahead of Texas (84), SMU (70), Texas Tech (69), UTSA (69), North Texas (66), Rice (54), UTEP (43) and Texas State (39).

BARRINGTON BROS

- A big boost for the Baylor offensive attack came in the form of a BYU transfer offensive lineman, Clark and Campbell Barrington, brothers from Spokane, Wash.
- The dynamic duo arrived in time for spring practice in 2022 and immediately slotted into the rotation, with Clark manning center and Campbell seeing time primarily at left tackle.
- The Barringtons are the only brother combination in the nation to start on the offensive line.
- Clark arrives having played 46 games with 40 starts at BYU, where he started the final 37 games of his career. He started all 13 games in 2022 for the Cougs at left guard, which followed an All-America season in 2021.
- Campbell played in nine games in 2022 as he battled injury. It followed a Freshman All-America season in 2021, where he helped the BYU offense score 33 points per game and average over 450 yards of total offense.
- The Barrington Bros unite with offensive line coach Eric Mateos, who coached Clark at BYU and recruited Campbell. BU OC Jeff Grimes was also the offensive coordinator while Clark was with the Cougs.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

- Baylor has forced considerably more turnovers than it has allowed in 36 games under head coach Dave Aranda.
- BU has 65 takeaways (45 INTs, 19 FR) and 41 giveaways (26 INTs, 15 FL) in 36 games under Aranda.
- Baylor has scored 11 non-offensive touchdowns in 35 games under Aranda – three kickoff returns (Ebner x 3), five interception returns (Pitre x 2, McCarty, Walcott, Woods), one punt return (Holmes) and two fumble returns (Hall, Woods).

- Baylor was ranked or receiving votes in 10 of 16 polls in 2022.
- Baylor has been ranked in the AP Top 25 in 10 of 13 seasons since 2010, after going 17 years between national rankings (1993-2010). BU has been ranked in 23 of 25 spots since 2013 (exceptions No. 1 and No. 23).

FASTEST GUY IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

- Junior wide receiver Monaray Baldwin was clocked as the fastest player in college football in 2022, coming on a TD catch vs. Oklahoma State.

- The Bears use Baldwin in a variety of ways in addition to his role as a primary slot receiver. Baldwin has the ability to carry the rock on jet sweep and reverse plays and return punts and kickoffs.

KETRON A WELCOME ADDITION

- A major story for the Bears over the course of the spring and preseason has been the development of skill-player weapons in 2023. A lead in that process has been the addition of Arkansas WR transfer Ketron Jackson Jr.
- Jackson, a 6-foot-3, 208-pounder played in 25 games over the last two seasons in Fayetteville, totaling 21 catches for 374 yards and four TDs.
- Jackson has been the primary outside weapon for the Bears throughout the spring and into the opening stages of the season. He owns elite speed and ball skills and has the ability to win contested catches down the sideline.
- When Jackson arrived for spring practice as a priority transfer, he made it known to WR coach Dallas Baker, he didn't want anything given to him in terms of playing time and team status, that he was going to work for everything. "I told him that before I came in because I know how that is," said Jackson. "I respect those guys; I'm not going to do that. I'm going to work for whatever I get."

In his first season, the Bears boasted the Big 12's best rushing attack, averaging 219.3 yards per game, the 10th-best mark in the nation. Baylor allowed the second-fewest sacks in the circuit and finished as semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, given to the nation's best offensive line. Connor Galvin earned Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year and All-America honors from The Athletic and Associated Press. - Offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes - entering his third year at Baylor - has brought RVO to Waco - "Reliable Violent Offense" - an attacking, multiple-formation offense that runs a few plays a lot of ways with as much misdirection as any team in the country.
- In 2022, Baylor ranked among the tops in single-season offensive output in program history, totaling the seventh-most TDs (34), the 10th most total yards (5,380) and first downs (296), while ranking fourth-best in completion percentage (63.0).
- Baylor's offense ended the year in 2021 ranked 10th in rushing offense (219.3 yards per game), 19th in fewest interceptions thrown (seven), 14th in fewest sacks allowed (1.29/game), 20th in time of possession (31:31) and 40th in scoring offense (31.6).
- The Bears increased their rushing output by 129 yards per game from 2020 (219.3 ypg, up from 90.3 ypg), without sacrificing the passing game (203.4 passing yards per game in 2021, 219.9 ypg in 2020).
- Grimes' 2020 BYU offense finished third nationally in scoring (43.5 ppg) and seventh in total offense (522.2 ypg).
- Joining Grimes in making the move from Provo to Waco in 2021 was offensive line coach Eric Mateos, who spent two seasons at BYU. Mateos' offensive line ranked eighth nationally in 2020 with 1.0 sacks allowed per game, and the Bears ranked 14th nationally with only 1.29 sacks allowed per game in 2021.

FUDGE FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT CENTER

- The Bears have a bevy of facility projects underway in Waco to keep Baylor among the nation's elite in terms of student-athlete support. One major project that is slated to be completed in time for the 2024 preseason is the Fudge Family Football Development Center.
- The Fudge Center will provide a new home for Baylor football, including locker rooms, meeting spaces, weight rooms, training rooms, coaching offices and recruiting areas. The state of the art building will connect to the existing Allison Indoor Facility, which will be expanded to feature a full 120-yard practice field.
- In addition to the Fudge Development Center, Baylor is preparing to open the Foster Pavilion across I-35, which will be the new home for men's and women's basketball. The building is slated to open in January for the conference basketball seasons.

BEARS LAUNCH BAYLOR+

- Baylor Athletics has launched Baylor+, the official content platform for the Bears. It will offer fans an insider's look into the experiences of student-athletes and coaches as well as the compelling stories that shape Baylor Athletics. Baylor+ will feature exciting coverage of the current teams in Waco, while celebrating beloved Bears' Legends and pivotal moments from the past.

ARANDA ONE OF TOP DEFENSIVE MINDS IN COUNTRY

- Fourth-year head coach Dave Aranda has earned a reputation as one of the nation's top defensive minds over his 20-plus-year career, including stops as defensive coordinator at LSU, Wisconsin, Utah State and Hawaii.
- Aranda led the LSU defense in 2019 as the Tigers posted a perfect 15-0 record and won the National Title with a 42-25 victory over Clemson in CFP National Championship Game.
- In six seasons as defensive coordinator at Power 5 schools from 2014-19, his defenses were ranked top-12 nationally in total yards five times. The units also ranked top-10 in scoring four times in seven years from 2013-19.

MARSHALL FOURTH OLDEST NON-KICKER IN NATION

- Defensive lineman David Marshall Jr., a sophomore, ranks as the fourth-oldest non-kicker in college football, checking in at 25 years old with a birthday in late November.
- Marshall came to the Bears following a brief junior college stint at Navarro CC, which followed military service. A 6-foot, 279-pounder, Marshall provides great maturity and work ethic to the defensive line room.

Oldest Non-Kickers in College Football (overall oldest)

- 1 (11). Tyrone Taleni, DL, USC (27, 6/10/96)
- 2 (15). DeAngelo Gibbs, DB, South Carolina (25, 9/23/97)
- 3 (16). Baily Smith, TE, Central Michigan (25, 10/15/97)
- 4 (17). David Marshall, DL, Baylor (25, 11/30/97)
- 5 (18). Devaughn Vele, WR, Utah (25, 12/12/97)

IKA NABBED IN NFL DRAFT

- Baylor had defensive lineman Siaki Ika picked in the 2023 NFL Draft, giving Baylor seven selections over the last two years.
- Baylor tied a program record with six players picked in the 2022 NFL Draft, led by four top-three round selections, including safety Jalen Pitre, wide receiver Tyquan Thornton, safety JT Woods and linebacker Terrel Bernard.

ROAD WARRIORS IN 2022

- Baylor won three road games in Big 12 play in 2022, which was just a win shy of equaling the program record for league wins, which had only been done in 2019, and then in 1991 and 1980 in the Southwest Conference.
- The Bears posted wins at Iowa State and Oklahoma and routed Texas Tech in Lubbock, 45-17, in a game that was billed a "black out" and featured the jersey retirement of TCU legend Patrick Mahomes. Baylor picked off five passes from the Texas Tech offense in the win.
- Baylor had only won three or more road games in league play six times in the last 30 years and only five times in the history in the Big 12, dating back to 1996.
- The Bears had gone through a 37-game stretch from 1995-2005 without a road conference win, going 0-4 in every year from 1996-2004. BU was 2-50 in road conference games from 1996-2008.

SPECIALISTS BATTLE

- A fascinating story line in the preseason camp is the battle to replace starters at placekicker, punter and kickoff specialist.
- The Bears have qualified candidate competing for the roles, including sophomore kicker Isaiah Hankins, who is up for all three jobs. Michigan State transfer kicker Jack Stone is competing with Hankins for the field-goal and kickoff specialist role, while Palmer Williams – rated as the top punter recruit in the nation in 2023 – is in the mix with Hankins for the punter role.
- With the departure of four-year starting punter Isaac Power and the all-time leader in field-goal percentage, John Mayers, both roles will feature a new BU player. In addition, kickoff specialist Noah Rauschenberg is trying his hand at field goals with his extra year at North Texas, opening that vacancy for 2023. Power also handled all holding duties in his career, so the Bears will also feature a new player in that key role.

COLDEST BOWL GAME IN FOOTBALL HISTORY

- The Bears advanced to their 11th bowl game in the last 13 years with a berth in the Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth in 2022, playing Air Force.
- The game was the coldest bowl game in collegiate football history, kicking off at 12 degrees with significant wind throughout the game.

JACKSON SHIFTS TO STAR

- After gaining a seventh year of eligibility, Baylor's Bryson Jackson made a late-career position change heading into 2023. Jackson, a 6-foot-2, 209-pounder had played linebacker throughout his career, excelling as a pass-rush specialist.
- In the spring of 2022, Jackson shifted to the STAR position, a hybrid safety-linebacker role – popularized by Jalen Pitre during the Big 12 Championship season in 2021. He will provide great veteran experience at the position and will rotate with a more traditional safety in certain defensive sets to properly match up with the offensive attack.
- Jackson has played in 48 games entering 2023 and owns 47 tackles, 10.5 tackles for a loss and 6.5 sacks. In 2023, he made two starts at linebacker and played in all 13 games, with 21 tackles, 5.5 for a loss and three sacks, forcing and recovering a fumble and totaling three QB Hurries. He was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 26, after a two-sack, QB hurry game in a win at Iowa State.

LEMEAR PACES SECONDARY

- The Bears return one primary starter in the secondary in 2023, sophomore safety Devin Lemear. A native of Manor, Texas, Lemear started all 13 games at safety as a redshirt freshman.
- Lemear finished with 57 tackles with two for a loss, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries in 2022.
- He will pace a youthful but talented secondary that will feature new cornerbacks on both ends and a new safety starter, in addition to a new starter at STAR.

NEW LOOK O-LINE READY TO MAUL

- The Baylor offensive line will break in four new starters on the offensive line, as departing starters Connor Galvin, Jacob Gall, Grant Miller and Khalil Keith have graduated to professional football.
- The Bears return a starter in Gavin Byers, who is working on the interior of the offensive line after starting at right tackle in 2022. BU will be able to immediately plug in BYU transfers Clark and Campbell Barrington on the offensive line, with Clark set to start at center and Campbell running at left tackle. Sophomore Tate Williams and George Maile are candidates to start at guard, while Elijah Ellis, Alvin Ebosele and Kaden Sieracki are in the mix at tackle opposite Campbell Barrington.
- Nationally, the Bears rank 36th in college football in games played on the offensive line entering the year, which includes transfer portal additions.

FRANKLIN, HALL LEAD D-LINE

- The Baylor defensive line is paced in 2023 by the return of senior standouts TJ Franklin and Gabe Hall. Franklin enters his fifth season of competition, while Hall is a veteran fourth-year senior.
- A native of Temple, Texas, Franklin made 10 starts at defensive end last year and has played in 45 games over his first four seasons. He totaled 36 tackles, three for a loss, and 1.5 sacks last year.
- Hall, a native of Waller, Texas, made 12 starts a defensive end in 2022 and finished with 36 tackles, 5.5 stops for a loss and 4.5 sacks, returning a fumble for a touchdown. He had four QB hurries, two break-ups and one blocked kick as a junior. He has played in 35 games in his three-year career entering 2023 and enters the season as a two-time member of Bruce Feldman's Freaks List via The Athletic.

FOOTBALL HISTORY

- The Bears are entering their 122nd season of football in 2023. The Bears have fielded a varsity team every year since 1899, save the 1906, 1943 and 1944 seasons.
- BU has won nine conference titles, including in 2021, with three Big 12 Championships and six Southwest Conference Championships.
- Baylor's first season came in 1899-1900, a 5-1 record under Coach R.H. Hamilton that included two wins over Toby's Business.

ONE STANDARD. ONE ACCORD.

- Baylor unveiled a mission statement under Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Mack Rhoades in the fall of 2018, "One Standard. One Accord", which is centered on the distinct purpose of Preparing Champions for Life through academic achievement, athletic success, spiritual growth and character formation.

10/10 BAYLOR 69, UALBANY 10

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 3, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 41,242

Eight Bears scored touchdowns as No. 10 Baylor routed UAlbany, 69-10, to open the 2022 season.

Blake Shapen threw for 214 yards on 17-of-20 passing and scored three total touchdowns, commanding the offense to 42 points in the first 34 minutes of play. The Bears rolled up 573 yards of total offense, held the Great Danes to less than 100 yards in the second half and used 89 total players in the victory.

Baylor wasted no time in taking control early, as Shapen found Monaray Baldwin on a 47-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring. After Bryson Jackson recovered his own forced fumble on the Danes' 29-yard line, Craig "Squirrel" Williams took a pitch around the left end for a four-yard score to extend the lead to 14-0.

BU's special teams got in on the act next, as Gavin Holmes returned a punt 72 yards to the house. Shapen and the offense answered UAlbany's only first-half points with a 38-yard strike to Hal Presley before the redshirt sophomore scored on a one-yard rollout as time expired in the first half.

In the second half, Baylor used a four-back rotation of Williams, Taye McWilliams, Qualan Jones and Richard Reese to pile up more than 250 yards rushing. Reese led the way with 62 yards on just nine carries and scored on a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns.

Baldwin, who finished with 130 yards on just six touches, capped off another scoring drive with a 50-yard end-around in the third quarter. Then, Kyron Drones entered and completed 5-of-7 passes for 100 yards, leading the Bears to their final four TDs of the night. He scored on a nine-yard keeper, then Jones felled up the two Reese scores with a 27-yarder of his own to put the exclamation point on the contest.

POSTGAME NOTES

- BU is now 81-36-4 all-time in season openers. The Bears have won 13 of their last 14 season openers.
- This was the Bears' most points in a season-opening game since beating Wofford, 69-3, on Aug. 31, 2013.
- Baylor rushed for seven TDs in the win, its most since playing Kansas in 2019, and one shy of the program record set in 1969 vs. LSU.
- Gavin Holmes' punt return for a TD was BU's first since Grayland Arnold had a 73-yd return vs. UTSA in 2019.
- Monaray Baldwin became the first Bear to score a rushing and receiving TD in the same game since Dillon Doyle did so vs. BYU in 2021.
- Kyron Drones, Hal Presley and Richard Reese each scored their first-career touchdowns.
- Devin Lemear, Lorando Johnson, Seth Jones, Hal Presley, Micah Mazzucca, Devin Neal and Taye McWilliams each made their first-career starts.

21/25 BYU 26, 9/8 BAYLOR 20 (20T)

LaVELL EDWARDS STADIUM • PROVO, UTAH

SEPT. 10, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 63,470

After kicker Jake Oldroyd missed two field goals that would have won it, No. 21 BYU pulled out a 26-20 double-overtime win over No. 9 Baylor in front of a sellout crowd at LaVell Edwards Stadium in Provo, Utah.

The Bears (1-1) missed a 43-yard field goal in the first overtime period and then failed to score in the second OT after Lopini Katooa gave BYU (2-0) the lead with a three-yard TD run.

With a chance to win it, Baylor picked up two first downs in the second overtime period and had a first-and-goal at the 5, but two false start penalties pushed the Bears back to the 12 and quarterback Blake Shapen threw high on a fourth-down pass to Seth Jones in the back of the end zone on the final play.

Shut down for most of the first half, the Bears got on the scoreboard with 1:37 left when Qualan Jones capped off a 13-play, 68-yard drive with a one-yard TD run. However, Isaiah Hankins' extra point try glanced off the right upright, leaving the score at 6-3. The Cougars answered with an eight-play, 75-yard drive and went back on top following a 20-yard TD pass with just two seconds remaining in the first half.

Scoring on its second-straight drive, Baylor went back on top early in the second half, 13-10, on Jones' second touchdown run of the night, this one from seven yards out. BYU tied it on a 39-yard field goal by Oldroyd and then used a little trickery to take a 20-13 lead late in the third quarter, as quarterback Jaren Hall caught a 22-yard pass from wide receiver Chase Roberts.

Baylor answered again, driving 79 yards on 12 plays and tying it up with a four-yard TD pass to tight end Ben Sims. The Bears had a chance to go up with another trip in to BYU territory, but Craig "Squirrel" Williams was stuffed on a third-and-five from the Cougars' 46 with 2:15 remaining.

BYU had a chance to win it in regulation after getting the ball back, but Oldroyd missed a 35-yarder which sent the contest to OT. Both sides missed FG's in the first overtime period before the Cougars held off Baylor's second OT drive.

POSTGAME NOTES

- This was Baylor's first overtime game since 2020 at West Virginia, also a two-overtime contest.

- Devin Neal finished with eight tackles, including his first-career sack, and two tackles for loss.
- Ben Sims had four receptions for 30 yards and a touchdown, his first of the year and 10th of his career.

17/19 BAYLOR 42, TEXAS STATE 7

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 17, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,597

Behind the explosive running of freshman Richard Reese, Baylor scored 28 unanswered points and blew out Texas State, 42-7, before a Family Day crowd of 45,597 Saturday at McLane Stadium.

Recording the Bears' first 100-yard rushing day of the season, Reese went for 156 yards on 19 carries (8.2-yard average) and scored on runs of 14, 52 and five yards to break the game open. BU wrapped up non-conference play with its ninth-straight win over the Bobcats and rolled up 501 total yards, including 293 on the ground.

To get the scoring started, Blake Shapen led a methodical 13-play, 75-yard opening drive and Reese sliced up the middle of the defense for the early 7-0 lead. After the Bears' defense turned the Bobcats away with a fourth-down stop from the BU 31, they strung together another good drive that was capped off by Craig "Squirl" Williams' 30-yard TD run which extended the lead to 14-0.

Overcoming the first interception of his collegiate career, Shapen completed 15-of-26 passes for 184 yards and a touchdown and also scored on a 35-yard run at the end of the first half to give Baylor a 21-7 lead. Texas State had gotten on the board with a 12-yard TD pass from Layne Hatcher to Ashtyn Hawkins, who caught 13 passes for 114 yards.

In the second half, Shapen hit Gavin Holmes for a 28-yard touchdown pass and the Bears never looked back. Reese caught a 17-yard pass, then scored from 52 yards in the next drive, and capped the game's tallies with a five-yard scamper with 12:19 remaining.

Baylor's defense held Texas State to three turnovers on downs, and also blocked a third-quarter field goal attempt. Chidi Ogbonnaya's swat was BU's first since TJ Franklin did so last season at TCU.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor extended its all-time series lead to 9-0 over Texas State.
- A 6:25 scoring drive to open the game was BU's longest of the 2022 season thus far.
- A 96-yard scoring drive was the longest since a 17-play, 96-yard drive at Oklahoma in 2020.
- A total of 11 different players caught passes, the most in the Aranda era and most since 2015 at Kansas.
- Chidi Ogbonnaya blocked a third-quarter field goal, marking Baylor's first blocked FG since TJ Franklin swatted one at TCU in 2021.
- Richard Reese set career highs in carries (19), yards (156) and TDs (three). It was Baylor's first three-TD rushing performance since Abram Smith vs. BYU in 2021.
- Al Walcott had a team-leading nine tackles, two for a loss, and a forced fumble, the first of his career.
- Blake Shapen's 35-yard TD run was the longest by a Baylor QB since a 50-yarder from Seth Russell at Texas in 2016.
- Brooks Miller recorded a career-high five tackles, including 1.5 for a loss and his first sack.

17/17 BAYLOR 31, IOWA STATE 24

JACK TRICE STADIUM • AMES, IOWA

SEPT. 24, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 58,069

Blake Shapen completed 19-of-26 passes for 238 yards and three touchdowns to lead 17th-ranked Baylor to a 31-24 win over Iowa State in its Big 12 opener at a packed Jack Trice Stadium in Ames, Iowa.

Already up by double digits, the Bears (3-1, 1-0) threw what looked to be the knockout punch with 9:37 left in the fourth quarter when Shapen connected with a wide-open Gavin Holmes for a 38-yard touchdown pass on a flea flicker. But, the Cyclones (3-1, 0-1) made things interesting after scoring 10 unanswered points on two late scoring drives before Baylor's Matt Jones recovered an onside kick with 55 seconds left to snuff out the comeback bid.

Converting twice on fourth down, the Bears marched 77 yards on 12 plays in their opening drive and scored on Shapen's 12-yard TD pass to Ben Sims to take an early 7-0 lead. ISU answered with a 12-play drive of its own to knot the tally at 7-7, but Baylor showed no signs of slowing down as Shapen connected with Hal Presley on a 40-yard strike to set up an eventual 24-yard FG from John Mayers to go ahead, 10-7.

Shapen found Holmes over the middle for a 36-yard gain on the first of a nine-play, 70-yard scoring drive. On third-and-goal from the 1, Shapen lofted a pass to linebacker Dillon Doyle for the Iowa City native's third-career offensive touchdown and first of the 2022 season, making it 17-7.

After exchanging three-and-outs, Iowa State responded with an eight-play, 63-yard drive to close within three, 17-14, in the final minutes of the first half. But, on the second play of the third quarter, Devin Neal snagged a tip-drill interception, Baylor's first of the year, to set the tone for the second half. It was Baylor's first of two second-half interceptions, in addition to a forced fumble at the goal line that was eventually overturned as ISU recovered in the end zone for a TD.

Richard Reese sprinted for a 19-yard touchdown to push BU's lead back to double digits at 24-14 with 6:05 left in the third, then the apparent knockout blow came as Holmes hauled in the flea flicker with no defenders within 20 yards of him in the end zone.

Iowa State's scoring drives of 75 and 71 yards pulled the Cyclones within a touchdown, but the clock ran out on the Cyclones as Baylor grabbed its first conference victory of the year. Reese led the Bears with 78 yards on 21 carries, while BU shut down the Iowa State run game with just 66 yards.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor collected its first win at Iowa State since the 2016 season.
- Baylor is now 8-0 under head coach Dave Aranda when scoring a touchdown on its first possession.
- The Bears are now 12-3 when scoring first under Aranda.

9/7 OKLAHOMA STATE 36, 16/14 BAYLOR 25

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

OCT. 1, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 47,979

Baylor quarterback Blake Shapen threw for a career-high 345 yards and a pair of touchdowns, but ninth-ranked Oklahoma State picked off a pair of fourth-down passes and held on for a 36-25 win over the No. 16 Bears.

Spencer Sanders threw for one touchdown, ran for another and came up with a big fumble recovery late in the game to help the Cowboys (4-0, 1-0) avenge last year's 21-16 loss to Baylor (3-2, 1-1) in the Big 12 Championship game.

After a John Mayers field goal on the opening drive, OSU scored 16 unanswered points on Sanders' eight-yard TD pass to Bryson Green and a one-yard keeper by Sanders, sandwiched around a safety when the Cowboys tackled Richard Reese in the end zone.

OSU then opened the second half with a 98-yard kickoff return by Jaden Nixon that pushed the lead to 23-3.

That's when Baylor snapped into gear, as Shapen found Monaray Baldwin on a 49-yard TD pass. Then, after a pick by Christian Morgan, the Bears capitalized with a one-yard TD run by Reese to make it a one-score game, 23-17.

Another big OSU kick return set up a one-yard TD run by Dominic Richardson. The Cowboys added a chip-shot field goal after a fourth-down stop in BU territory to extend the lead to 33-17.

Going for it again on fourth down, Shapen hooked up with Baldwin once more for a 70-yarder, then hit Gavin Holmes on a two-point conversion to make it 33-25 with 2:14 left in the third quarter.

After Shapen's first interception of the game and just the second of his career, the Cowboys added another short field goal. The OSU defense came up with the clincher on the next series when Jason Taylor picked off a Shapen pass.

POSTGAME NOTES

• For the first time in a 19-game span, an opponent scored more than 30 points against Baylor, dating back to the 2020 season finale.

• Monaray Baldwin caught a career-high seven balls for 174 yards and two TDs.

• Richard Reese rushed for his team-high seventh TD of the year, which entered the game leading all NCAA freshmen.

• Dillon Doyle had a season-high and team-leading 10 tackles.

• Christian Morgan picked off the sixth pass of his career and second of the season.

WEST VIRGINIA 43, RV/23 BAYLOR 40

MILAN PUSKAR STADIUM • MORGANTOWN, W.VA.

OCT. 13, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,293

Using a 65-yard fumble return and a blocked extra point return, West Virginia rallied from a 10-point, first-half deficit to defeat the 23rd ranked Baylor Bears, 43-40, Thursday night in a wild game at Milan Puskar Stadium.

After quarterback Blake Shapen left the game with 6:30 remaining in the third quarter following a targeting hit by Andrew Wilson-Lamp, redshirt freshman Kyron Drones led a pair of scoring drives that gave the Bears (3-3, 1-2) a 37-31 lead. But, John Mayers' extra point attempt was blocked by Dante Stills and returned for a two-point play that proved critical.

Baylor lost its third turnover of the game on a Drones interception with the Bears in position to go back on top. Then, Dillon Doyle took it right back with an interception at the WVU 25. Mayers booted a 44-yard field goal to tie it at 40-40, but the Mountaineers drove 61 yards in six plays and won it on Casey Legg's 22-yard chip shot with 33 seconds left in regulation.

In a wild first half, Shapen threw for 294 yards and led the Bears to 24 points and 358 yards of total offense. But, Baylor only had a 24-17 lead to show for it, thanks in part to Jasir Cox's 65-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the second quarter.

It took BU just five plays to answer, as Shapen connected with Craig "Squirrel" Williams for a short screen pass that turned into a 39-yard touchdown and a 24-17 halftime lead.

WVU struck first with a seven-yard TD run by Tony Mathis, but Shapen threw for 52 yards on a time-consuming 14-play, 71-yard drive that led to a 40-yard field goal by Mayers to trim the deficit to 7-3. After the defense came up with back-to-back stops, Shapen hooked up with Gavin Holmes on a 56-yard pass that preceded a one-yard TD run by tight end Ben Sims. Holmes later hauled in a quick slant and took it 35 yards to the house for a 17-7 Baylor lead.

POSTGAME NOTES

• West Virginia has won all six meetings over Baylor in Morgantown.

• Baylor totaled a season-high 590 yards of total offense, including a season-best 421 passing yards.

• Blake Shapen threw for 326 yards, the second-most of his career and second-consecutive 300+ yard passing game.

• Gavin Holmes had a career game, with new personal-bests in catches (seven), yards (210) and a touchdown.

• Holmes became the first BU player with 200+ receiving yards since KD Cannon went for 226 in the 2016 Cactus Bowl.

• Kyron Drones threw his first-career TD pass on 7-of-14 passing for 95 yards.

• Drake Dabney caught a career-high five balls for a career-best 66 yards.

BAYLOR 35, KANSAS 23

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

OCT. 22, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,882

Freshman running back Richard Reese ran for a career-high 186 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries to help Baylor defeat Kansas, 35-23, on a Homecoming Saturday afternoon at McLane Stadium.

After KU (5-3, 2-3) scored 20 unanswered points in the second half, Reese gained all but one yard on a seven-play, 69-yard scoring drive and punched one in from two yards out to stem the tide and help Baylor (4-3, 2-2) win its 13th-straight against the Jayhawks.

In a dominant first half that saw the Bears outgain the Jayhawks, 250-85, BU took a 28-3 lead into the locker room. Blake Shapen connected with Monaray Baldwin for a 17-yard TD pass to open the scoring. Reese scored his first touchdown of the day on a 14-yard scamper before the Jayhawks got on the board with a 30-yard field goal. Then, Kyron Drones came in for two plays in a specialty goalline package to cap a 16-play, 73-yard drive with a four-yard keeper that stretched the lead to 21-3.

Pinned back to their one-yard line on a punt, Baylor responded with a 15-play, 99-yard drive and made it 28-3 following a 10-yard end-around TD by freshman Jordan Nabors. The Bears almost cashed in for more after they got the ball back on a forced fumble by Devin Neal and return by Devin Lemear, but Ben Sims dropped a would-be touchdown in the end zone and Shapen was picked off on the very next play.

A strip-sack snuffed out Baylor's impressive start to the second half, as KU returned a Shapen fumble to the 9 which led to a two-yard touchdown run. Kansas continued to make things interesting in the fourth quarter as Jason Bean connected with Quentin Skinner on a 24-yard TD pass and finished off a 93-yard drive with a four-yard run after the Jayhawks' defense stopped Baylor on a fourth-and-one play.

With the lead cut to five, Baylor answered with Reese's ground attack and iced the game on the freshman's ninth rushing TD of the season with 2:37 left to play.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor leads the all-time series with Kansas, 18-4, including an 11-0 mark in games played in Waco.
- BU set a program record for time of possession at 40:10.
- Freshman Richard Reese set career highs in carries (31) and rushing yards (186).
- Reese's 31 carries are the most by a Bear since Terrance Ganaway ran it 42 times vs. Texas Tech in 2011.
- Freshman Jordan Nabors found the end zone for the first time in his career on a 10-yard run.
- AI Walcott recorded his first sack of the season and third of his career.
- Chidi Ogbonnaya played in his 53rd career game, tying Raleigh Texada for fourth in program history.

BAYLOR 45, TEXAS TECH 17

JONES AT&T STADIUM • LUBBOCK, TEXAS

OCT. 29, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 60,705

Baylor's defense completely shut down Texas Tech's high-powered offense in the first half, then picked off four more passes in the second half as the Bears won a 45-17 contest in Lubbock.

AJ McCarty put the bow on it when he intercepted Tyler Shough's first pass of the night and returned it 18 yards for a pick-six with 4:04 left in the game. That was BU's fifth INT off three different Red Raider QBs. Qualan Jones later provided the exclamation point with a 17-yard rushing touchdown after the Bears' defense sacked Shough on three of four plays.

Freshman Richard Reese posted his second-straight and third 100-yard rushing game of the year with 148 on the ground and three touchdowns on a career-high 36 carries as Baylor (5-3, 3-2) rolled up more than 200 yards both rushing and passing in a balanced attack that had the Red Raiders (4-4, 2-3) on their heels all night.

Blake Shapen completed 19-of-30 passes for 211 yards and a touchdown, hitting Hal Presley for a nine-yard TD in the third quarter that gave BU a seemingly comfortable 24-3 lead. Tech did make it a one-score game late in the third, though, after scoring on a one-yard TD pass and an eight-yard QB keeper by Behren Morton on a fourth-down play.

Baylor answered with an 11-play, 75-yard drive and capped it with a one-yard punch-in by Reese to extend the lead to 31-17 early in the fourth. Earlier, Reese found pay dirt twice in the last four minutes of the first half to help the Bears take a 17-3 lead into the locker room.

Baylor had gotten on the board first with a season-long 48-yard field goal by John Mayers with 4:39 left in the first quarter. Safety Devin Lemear came up with an interception at the goal line to halt Tech's attempt at an answer. Lemear, McCarty, Mark Milton, AI Walcott and Tevin Williams III each came up with INTs in the Baylor victory. BU also recorded a season-high six sacks in the win, including three by Gabe Hall.

After missing the previous two games, Craig "Squirrel" Williams came back in a big way, rushing for a career-high 192 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries as Baylor became bowl-eligible with a 38-35 victory over the Oklahoma Sooners Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

The Bears (6-3, 4-2) won for just the second time ever in Norman, the other one coming eight years ago during a run to a second-straight Big 12 Championship in 2014.

Oklahoma (5-4, 2-4) pulled to within three with 4:05 left, but Baylor was able to run out the clock on its ensuing drive, converting a key third-down play with a 14-yard pass from Blake Shapen to Hal Presley and icing it with a 43-yard run by Williams, who went down at the Oklahoma 7-yard line with no defenders in front of him.

With the defense picking off three passes in the first half, the Bears took a 24-21 lead into the break despite being outgained, 334-187.

Williams, who sat out the last two games against Kansas and Texas Tech, rushed for 113 yards on 12 carries in the first half alone and scored on touchdown runs of 11 and one yard.

Set up by Dillon Doyle's interception and return to the 26, Baylor took just three plays to score and went up 14-7 on Jordan Nabors' end-around run with 3:50 left in the half.

Oklahoma's Dillon Gabriel, who had only thrown one interception in 201 passes all year, was picked off by Devin Lemear, setting up a 49-yard field goal by John Mayers that gave the Bears a 17-14 lead early in the second quarter. Christian Morgan collected the final INT of the day for BU.

Opening the second half with an impressive nine-play, 75-yard drive, the Bears pushed the lead to double digits at 31-21 on a two-yard TD run by Richard Reese, who was limited with the flu. Qualan Jones also pitched in with 47 yards on nine carries, including a game-sealing 10-yard TD with 9:15 to go in the fourth quarter.

23/22/19 KANSAS STATE 31, BAYLOR 3

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

NOV. 12, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 47,686

Monaray Baldwin and Josh Cameron both set career highs in catches, but it wasn't enough for the Baylor Bears to keep pace with No. 19 Kansas State, which used 17 unanswered points in the second quarter to roll to a 31-3 win Saturday night in Waco.

The Wildcats (7-3, 5-2) snapped the Bears' (6-4, 4-3) three-game winning streak and handed BU its second home loss of the year after previously winning nine in a row and 10 of its last 11 at McLane.

Blake Shapen threw for 203 yards on 22-of-38 passing, but was picked off twice. Baldwin finished with a personal-best eight catches for 75 yards, while Cameron had career highs in catches (6) and yards (83).

K-State's Will Howard, who came in when starter Adrian Martinez went down with an injury late in the first quarter, completed 18-of-26 passes for 186 yards and three TDs. Deuce Vaughn had 104 rushing yards on 24 carries and added eight grabs for 50 yards and one touchdown.

After the Bears' defense held K-State on downs, they had a chance to strike first with a 44-yard drive to the Wildcats' 17. But, Kobe Savage intercepted a Shapen pass that ricocheted off the hands of Cameron.

Baylor's only score came at the end of the first half when John Mayers booted a 37-yard field goal that trimmed the deficit to 17-3. He stayed perfect at 7-for-7 so far this season and increased his career field goal percentage to 80.5%, BU's all-time leader.

POSTGAME NOTES

4/4/4 TCU 29, BAYLOR 28

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

NOV. 19, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 44,393

After missing an extra point earlier in the game, TCU kicker Griffin Kell hit a 40-yard field goal as time expired to lift No. 4 TCU over Baylor, 29-28, Saturday afternoon at McLane Stadium.

Out of timeouts, quarterback Max Duggan led a nine-play, 46-yard scoring drive that put Kell in position for the winning kick in a game the Bears (6-5, 4-4) led most of the way. TCU improved to 11-0 overall, 8-0 in league play, and kept its CFP hopes alive, already assured a bid to the Big 12 title game.

Baylor scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns after falling behind 20-14 on Duggan's 26-yard TD strike to Gunnar Henderson. Kell missed the extra point that kept it a six-point game.

Following Blake Shapen's 12-yard touchdown pass to freshman tight end Kelsey Johnson, who scored the first two TDs of his career, the Bears went back on top, 21-20. Then, Richard Reese pounded one in from a yard out for his 14th touchdown of the season, extending the lead to 28-20 with 9:47 left.

Baylor twice had a chance to ice the game, but couldn't pick up a first down and left the door open for the Horned Frogs.

Emeri Demercado scored on a three-yard TD run but dropped the two-point conversion pass attempt that preserved the BU lead. But, TCU had just enough time to get in range for Kell's game-winner as time expired.

Shapen threw for 269 yards and one touchdown, but threw a costly pick in the end zone at the end of the first half. Craig "Squirrel" Williams led the rushing attack with 112 yards on 19 carries, while Monaray Baldwin had a huge day with six catches for 123 yards.

POSTGAME NOTES

• A kickoff at 39 degrees marked the coldest kickoff temperature in McLane Stadium history and coldest since 2013 vs Texas, which was 24 degrees. This was the fourth sub-50 degree kickoff in McLane history, and second-consecutive.

24/24/23 TEXAS 38, BAYLOR 27

DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS

NOV. 25, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 94,076

Baylor's defense gave the Bears a fourth-quarter lead on Gabe Hall's 16-yard fumble return for a touchdown, but No. 24 Texas rode the back of Bijan Robinson for a 38-27 win Friday afternoon at DKR-Memorial Stadium.

After being held in check in the first half, Robinson rushed for 179 yards and two touchdowns on 29 carries to help the Longhorns (8-4, 6-3) score 14 unanswered points in the last nine minutes of the game.

The Bears' defense also opened the game with a score when UT quarterback Quinn Ewers was called for intentional grounding in the end zone. Safety Christian Morgan was credited with the sack as BU went up 2-0.

Baylor (6-6, 4-5) extended its early lead to 9-0 as Blake Shapen connected with Jaylen Ellis on a 47-yard TD to cap a five-play, 62-yard drive. Midway through the first quarter, the Longhorns had negative seven yards of total offense.

However, UT would get it going with a seven-play, 75-yard drive capped off by a three-yard keeper by Ewers. Then, after a three-and-out and a shanked BU punt, the Longhorns took their first lead on a two-yard run by Robinson that made it 14-9 late in the first.

The Bears responded with an 18-play, 63-yard drive, having twice converted on fourth down to close the gap to 14-12 on John Mayers' 30-yard field goal. Later in the half, BU sacked Ewers twice and got the ball back with 1:12 remaining trailing by five. A few plays later, Shapen found Ben Sims for a 14-yard TD pass-and-catch to take a 19-17 lead at the break.

After Mayers missed a 40-yard field goal attempt, Texas regained the lead with a 10-play, 78-yard drive to go up 24-19 on Roschon Johnson's one-yard touchdown.

As the Baylor offense struggled to get anything going in the second half, it was the Bears' defense that kept them in the game as Al Walcott forced a Ewers fumble that Hall scooped and scored from 16 yards out to put BU back on top, 27-24, after a successful two-point conversion.

That's when UT put the ball in the hands of Robinson and Johnson, running it every time on back-to-back scoring drives to take an ultimate 11-point lead.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor recorded its first safety since 2017, when Bravvion Roy secured a sack vs. TCU.
- The Bears notched five sacks, their most in a single-game since going for a season-best six at Texas Tech.
- BU returned a fumble for a TD in the fourth quarter, its first since JT Woods' 97-yard return vs. Texas Southern in 2021.
- Connor Galvin set a program record with his 49th-career start, passing Spencer Drango for most in school history.
- Al Walcott had a team-leading 10 tackles with two forced fumbles and a sack.
- Jaylen Ellis caught his first-career touchdown, a 47-yard strike.

BAYLOR FOOTBALL 2022

OVERALL: 6-7 (HOME 3-3, ROAD 3-3, NEUTRAL 0-1) | BIG 12 CONFERENCE: 4-5 (HOME 1-3, ROAD 3-2, NEUTRAL 0-0)

nr/rv/nr AIR FORCE 30, BAYLOR 15,
AMON G. CARTER STADIUM • FORT WORTH, TEXAS
DEC. 22, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 43,670

Coming into Thursday's chilly Armed Forces Bowl, the Baylor Bears had to feel like they had a good chance if they could hold one of the nation's top running backs to a meager 3.1 yards per carry.

Air Force fullback Brad Roberts had to work for every yard he got, finishing with 116 yards on 36 carries and getting stopped twice on fourth-and-short.

But, quarterback Haaziq Daniels took up the slack for his more-heralded teammate, throwing for 103 yards and one touchdown and adding 81 yards and another TD on the ground in leading the Falcons (10-3) to a 30-15 win over the Bears (6-7) before a sparse crowd that braved the freezing conditions at Amon Carter Stadium.

This was a historically cold night. The kickoff temperature of 13 degrees with a wind-chill factor of negative-1 is believed to be the coldest in Baylor football history and one degree higher than the all-time record for any college football bowl game.

That did nothing to cool off an Air Force running game that came in ranked No. 1 in the country, averaging 330.9 yards per game and 5.4 per attempt. The Falcons just spread the wealth more this time, with tailback John Eldridge III tallying 65 yards on 10 carries and breaking off a game-best 34-yarder.

More surprising was that Air Force also had the game's longest pass play. And it was arguably the most pivotal play of the game.

Leading by just two at the break, 9-7, and facing a third-and-12 from his own 15-yard line, Daniels picked up a first down with a 15-yard keeper and then hooked up with Amari Terry for a 68-yard catch and run down to Baylor's 2-yard line.

Daniels finished off the opening drive of the third quarter with a two-yard touchdown run and then connected with tight end Caleb Rillos for a 15-yard touchdown pass and 23-7 lead through three quarters.

On their first three drives of the second half, the Bears went for it and failed on fourth down, giving it back to Air Force at the 42-yard line on the second one when Shapen was sacked.

Held in check for most of the night by a Baylor defense that committed as many as eight players inside the box, Roberts ran it five-straight times for 37 yards and scored his second touchdown of the night to make it 30-7 early in the fourth quarter.

Equally frustrating for the Bears was an offense that was held to 151 yards total until the final five minutes of the game. The usually potent rushing attack was limited to just 42 net yards on 26 attempts for a 1.6-yard average.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Bears had won the first three meetings in the series with Air Force.
- The Bears advanced to their 11th bowl game in the last 13 years.
- Baylor is 14-13 all-time in bowl games.
- Thursday's game was the coldest game in recorded Baylor history (data available back to 2011), kicking off at 13 degrees, far eclipsing the previous mark of 24 degrees of a game vs. Texas on Dec. 7, 2013 in Waco.
- Baylor's Gabe Hall blocked a PAT, the first block of a PAT for the Bears since Josh Landry blocked a PAT vs. Texas Tech in 2020.
- Senior LB Dillon Doyle was named Lockheed Martin Armed Forces MVP for Baylor after going for 10 tackles.
