- Offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes spent the 2018-20 seasons as the OC at BYU, and BU offensive line coach Eric Mateos as the o-line coach at BYU from 2019-20. STAFF ADDITIONS

- Baylor added several key members to its coaching and support staff in the offseason.
- The Bears have added new defensive coordinator Matt Powledge, who will also coach safeties, after Powledge spent the 2022 season as the co-defensive coordinator at Oregon. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Steward helped Oregon State to a 10-3 record last year.
- Baylor also added Christian Robinson as the coach of the inside linebackers, with Robinson joining the staff after coaching linebackers at Auburn in 2022, which followed four seasons in the same role at Florida. Robinson, a native of Norcross, Ga., has also had coaching stops at Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Georgia, where he played for a pair of SEC Eastern Division Championship teams.

HOLDING SERVE AT McLANE

- Baylor owns a 12-6 record at McLane Stadium under the direction of Coach Dave Aranda, including a 10-4 mark over the last three years.

PERSON > PLAYER

- A hallmark of Coach Dave Aranda’s philosophy in building a program is placing an importance on understanding that the person is more important than the player. This mantra is executed in everything the program touches on a daily basis. Throughout the football building, signage adorns the walls that emphasize, “better people make better players” and that Baylor will “win with character”.
- Aranda preaches that players focus on today and be authentically themselves in an effort to be comfortable and confident in their roles.

CHASING RUSH DEFENSE HISTORY

- The Bears opened the 2022 season holding each of their first four opponents, and five of their first seven, to under 100 rushing yards. It marked the longest streak of consecutive games holding foes to under 100 yards on the ground since 1953, when the Bears held opponents in games 2-6 (Miami, Arkansas, Vanderbilt, Texas A&M, TCU) to under 100 yards rushing.
- The season program standard for holding an opponent to 100 yards or fewer on the ground came in 1986, when the Bears held Wyoming, LA Tech, USC, Houston, Texas A&M, Rice and Texas to under 100 yards rushing. BU held six opponents to 100 yards or fewer on the ground during the historic 2021 season.
- A total of 11 opponents in the last two years haven’t reached 100 yards rushing, the best two-season total in program annals.

A BAYLOR WIN WOULD ...

- Give Baylor its first win in the first meeting in the series with Utah.
- Improve Coach Dave Aranda to 21-17 in his fourth year as the head coach of the Bears.
- Make Baylor 13-6 under Aranda at McLane Stadium and 11-4 in the last three years.
- Mark Baylor’s first win vs. a Pac 12 foe since its last meeting vs. a Pac 12 foe, a 45-17 win over Washington State in 2008.
- Give Baylor’s its 37th home win at McLane Stadium in 56 games, improving the mark to 37-19.
- Make the Bears 628-594-44 all-time.

BAYLOR LEADS NATION IN FOOTBALL, BASKETBALL WINS

- Baylor athletics is in the midst of a historic run of success, including recent national titles in men's and women's basketball, and football coming off a Big 12 Conference Championship in 2021 and the 2022 Sugar Bowl.
- Since 2011, and as of the end of the 2022-23 athletics season, no other school can compete with Baylor's run, as the Bears lead the nation in wins combined among football, and men's and women's basketball. Baylor has 58 more wins than the next closest school, Notre Dame. The next Big 12 Conference team on the list is BYU at No. 13, Texas at No. 22 and West Virginia at No. 25.

TIGHT END U

- Baylor's offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes is also the tight-end coach for the Bears, marking one of just 10 coaches in college football to serve in those two roles.
- Grimes is one of two offensive coordinators who also serves as the tight-ends coach in the Big 12, joining Andy Kotelnicki at Kansas.
- The Bears are consistently talent rich at the tight end position and Grimes places tremendous value in the TE role in his offensive attack. Baylor regularly runs sets with two or three tight ends on the field at the same time and in 2023, boast a plethora of talent in the position, including sophomore bruiser Kelsey Johnson, North Texas transfer Jake Roberts and senior Drake Dabney. In addition, the Bears can use tight end Gavin Yates in a variety of roles, and boast youthful talent in Cody Mladenka and true freshmen Matthew Klopfenstein and Hawkins Polley.

Baylor Opponents in Bold

ADDING VIA THE PORTAL

- Following the 2021 Big 12 Championship season, the Bears elected to approach the offseason with caution in relation to the embracing of the transfer portal. The Bears added just a handful of players via the portal before the 2022 season and with a roster full of youth at skill positions during the season, Baylor has taken a different approach leading into 2023.
- Coach Dave Aranda spoke openly about his adaptation and growth via the portal during the preseason talking circuit: “One of the struggles for me,” Aranda said, “has always been if you say yes to something, a player outside your team that’s in the portal, you’re saying no to a player on your team that maybe is struggling from an injury, that’s maybe trying to get his class, his schoolwork in order, that’s maybe trying to hone the techniques of his new position that he’s playing or maybe he’s trying to gain weight or any of those things. When you bring somebody in, you almost kind of stunt the growth of that person. For me to kind of come to grips with, ‘Hey, this is what needs to happen for the betterment of the team’ as opposed to just looking at what’s best for that one particular player on your team.”
- The Bears added 13 players via the transfer portal in 2023, including BYU offensive lineman Campbell Barrington and Clark Barrington, Liberty linebacker Mike Smith, wide receiver Ketron Jackson Jr., Utah State linebacker Bryon Vaughns, Oklahoma State running back Dominic Richardson, Maine defensive lineman Justin Sambu, Oregon defensive lineman Treven Ma’ae, Miami cornerback Isaiah Dunson, Mississippi State quarterback Sawyer Robertson, Michigan State kicker Jack Stone and North Texas tight end Jake Roberts.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF EXTRA YEARS

- A total of six Baylor Bears are using 2023 as their additional year of eligibility through the NCAA’s COVID-19 impacted rules.
- Two returnees, including TJ Franklin and Bryson Jackson, are using 2023 as their COVID years, while transfers Mike Smith Jr., Byron Vaughns, Justin Sambu and Clark Barrington are all transfers from previous institutions and enter the season already possessing their undergraduate degrees.

SPRING ENROLEES

- A total of 21 of Baylor’s newcomers arrived on campus to participate in spring practice.
- Transfers Isaiah Dunson (Miami), Sawyer Robertson (Mississippi State), RJ Martinez (Northern Arizona), Dominic Richardson (Oklahoma St.), Mike Smith (Liberty), Clark Barrington (BYU), Campbell Barrington (BYU), David Marshall Jr. (Navarro CC), Jake Roberts (UNT) and Jack Stone (Michigan State) all enrolled in time for spring practice. Several freshmen including Carl Williams, Caden Jenkins, Bryson Washington, Hawkins Polley, Matthew Klopfenstein, Jonathan Nielsen, Wes Tucker, Micah Gifford, Tay’Shawn Wilson and Palmer Williams all got a jump on spring ball.

SHAPEN IS QB1

- Baylor junior Blake Shapen won the quarterback competition after a strong spring practice. The 2021 Big 12 Championship Most Outstanding Player, Shapen set a Big 12 Championship and AT&T Stadium (college games) record with 17-straight completions in the first half vs. Oklahoma State.
- He won the starting job in the 2021 spring as well and made all 13 starts as a sophomore in 2022. Shapen threw for 2,790 yards and 18 TDs during the year, adding a pair of rushing scores.
- Shapen played in six games with two starts in 2021 after a redshirt season in 2020, throwing for 596 yards and five TDs without an interception, completing 72.1 percent of his attempts.
- A native of Shreveport, La., Shapen came to Baylor as a two-sport athlete, and was on the baseball 2021 roster after coming out of high school as the No. 1-ranked high school shortstop prospect and the fourth-best HS prospect overall in Louisiana.
- He prepped at Evangel Christian Academy, where he was a four-star prospect according to ESPN and was ranked as the No. 22 QB nationally.

FOURTH-DOWN AGGRESSIVENESS

- Baylor under Coach Dave Aranda is one of the most aggressive teams in college football on fourth down. In 2022, the Bears ranked second nationally in fourth-down conversions (30), trailing only Texas Tech (33).
- The Bears converted 63.8 percent of their fourth-down attempts, which ranked 12th among teams that have attempted 15+ fourth-down tries in 2022.

18 STRAIGHT GAMES HOLDING OPPONENT UNDER 30

- Over the course of the 2021 season during the start of 2022, Baylor’s defense put up a historic run, the likes of which haven’t been seen in 36 years, holding 18 consecutive opponents to 30 or fewer points.
- It was the longest such Baylor streak in the modern-era of college football and the longest since 1984-86. Only three times since 1964 has Baylor had a streak of 18 or more games holding an opponent to 30 or fewer points, also doing it in 1979-81, a 25-game stretch.
- The Bears were one of only three teams to hold each opponent of 2021 under 30 points, joining Clemson and Cincinnati. Last year, Baylor on average held opponents to 10.6 points per game below their averages in other games.

SCHOOL-RECORD, NCAA-LEADING EIGHT HOME GAMES

- Baylor will host a school-record eight home games at McLane Stadium in 2023.
- Baylor is the only school in the nation with eight home games in 2023 and one of 20 schools with seven or more home games.
- The season lid-lifter will start a stretch of four consecutive home games and the Bears will play five of their first six at home to open the year. The eight home games is the most in program history, and the four straight to open the year at home marks the most consecutive home games to start a season since the 2013 Big 12 Championship season.

SECOND-MOST WINS IN TEXAS IN LAST 10+ YEARS

- Through the 2022 season, Baylor has won 96 games since 2011, second-most among the state of Texas’ 12 FBS teams.
- BU’s 96 wins in the last 10+ years are shy of Houston (98) and Texas A&M (97) and tied with TCU (96), and ahead of Texas (85), SMU (71), Texas Tech (69), UTSA (69), North Texas (66), Rice (54), UTEP (44) and Texas State (40).

BARRINGTON BROS

- A big boost for the Baylor offensive attack came in the form of a BYU transfer offensive lineman, Clark and Campbell Barrington, brothers from Spokane, Wash.
- The dynamic duo arrived in time for spring practice in 2022 and immediately slotted into the rotation, with Clark manning center and Campbell seeing time primarily at left tackle.
- The Barringtons are the only brother combination in the nation to start on the offensive line.
- Clark arrives having played 46 games with 40 starts at BYU, where he started the final 37 games of his career. He started all 13 games in 2022 for the Cougs at left guard, which followed an All-America season in 2021.
- Campbell played in nine games in 2022 as he battled injury. It followed a Freshman All-America season in 2021, where he helped the BYU offense score 33 points per game and average over 450 yards of total offense.
- The Barrington Bros unite with offensive line coach Eric Mateos, who coached Clark at BYU and recruited Campbell. BU OC Jeff Grimes was also the offensive coordinator while Clark was with the Cougs.

- Baylor was ranked or receiving votes in 10 of 16 polls in 2022.
- Baylor has been ranked in the AP Top 25 in 10 of 13 seasons since 2010, after going 17 years between national rankings (1993-2010). BU has been ranked in 23 of 25 spots since 2013 (exceptions No. 1 and No. 23).

FASTEST GUY IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

- Junior wide receiver Monaray Baldwin was clocked as the fastest player in college football in 2022, coming on a TD catch vs. Oklahoma State.
- Baldwin, a 5-foot-9, 170-pound dynamo was clocked at 22.8 MPH on the GPS on the TD vs. OSU.
- Baldwin has been ranked as one of the top-100 “freaks” in college football by The Athletic, with his speed and alarming strength (405 bench, 550 squad, 300 power clean) allowing him to stand out.
- The Bears use Baldwin in a variety of ways in addition to his role as a primary slot receiver. Baldwin has the ability to carry the rock on jet sweep and reverse plays and return punts and kickoffs.

KETRON A WELCOME ADDITION

- A major story for the Bears over the course of the spring and preseason has been the development of skill-player weapons in 2023. A lead in that process has been the addition of Arkansas WR transfer Ketrone Jackson Jr.
- Jackson, a 6-foot-3, 208-pounder played in 25 games over the last two seasons in Fayetteville, totaling 21 catches for 374 yards and four TDs.
- Jackson has been the primary outside weapon for the Bears throughout the spring and into the opening stages of the season. He owns elite speed and ball skills and has the ability to win contested catches down the sideline.
- When Jackson arrived for spring practice as a priority transfer, he made it known to WR coach Dallas Baker, he didn’t want anything given to him in terms of playing time and team status, that he was going to work for everything. “I told him that before I came in because I know how that is,” said Jackson. “I respect those guys; I’m not going to do that. I’m going to work for whatever I get.”

ARANDA THROUGH 37 GAMES IN BAYLOR HISTORY

- Dave Aranda is 20-17 in his first 37 games as the Baylor head coach, which is the most since Chuck Reedy went 22-15 from 1993-95. Only George Sauer (1950-52), Morley Jenkins (1926-28), Frank Bridges (1920-22) and Charles P. Mosely (1914-16) has more wins through the first 37 games of their BU head coaching career.

MATEOS MAKES 40 UNDER 40 LIST

- Baylor offensive line coach Eric Mateos has been honored as one of the '40 Under 40' Coaches in Texas by Dave Campbell's Texas Football, featuring high school and collegiate coaches.
- Mateos is in his third year as the offensive line coach for Baylor, after a decorated two-year run at BYU. He joined the Cougars staff following two years as the offensive line coach at Texas State. He prepped his coaching career as an offensive line coach at Hutchinson College, three years as a graduate assistant at Arkansas (2013-15) and a season as the graduate assistant at LSU, where he also served as the full-time tight ends coach midway through the year.
- Mateos has led dynamic offensive line units in Waco during his previous two seasons. In his first season, the Bears boasted the Big 12's best rushing attack, averaging 219.3 yards per game, the 10th-best mark in the nation. Baylor allowed the second-fewest sacks in the circuit and finished as semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, given to the nation's best offensive line. Connor Galvin earned Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year and All-America honors from The Athletic and Associated Press. He was one of two All-Americans on the offensive line during Baylor's 2021 Big 12 Championship season, as Jacob Gall was named second-team All-America by the Football Writers Association of America.

- Last year, Mateos formed an elite group that totaled 182.4 rushing yards per game, totaling 2,371 total rushing yards. The Bears had 34 rushing TDs, the seventh-most in school history. Gall and Galvin each earned honorable mention All-America honors from Phil Steele and Gall was tabbed as the Best Offensive Lineman in Texas by DCTF.
- A native of Overland Park, Kan., Mateos came to Waco following two seasons at BYU, where the Cougs ranked among the nation's top-15 in 10 different offensive statistical categories, including ranking third in scoring and seventh in total offense. He mentored consensus All-America offensive tackle Brady Christensen and heled direct BYU to just 12 sacks allowed in 12 games and 34 rushing TDs, the fourth-most in the nation. BYU went 11-1 in 2022, following a Hawaii Bowl berth in his first season in 2019, that saw BYU own the nation's eighth-best offense.

GRIMES BRINGS RVO TO WACO

- Offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes - entering his third year at Baylor - has brought RVO to Waco - "Reliable Violent Offense" - an attacking, multiple-formation offense that runs a few plays a lot of ways with as much misdirection as any team in the country.
- In 2022, Baylor ranked among the tops in single-season offensive output in program history, totaling the seventh-most TDs (34), the 10th most total yards (5,380) and first downs (296), while ranking fourth-best in completion percentage (63.0).
- Baylor's offense ended the year in 2021 ranked 10th in rushing offense (219.3 yards per game), 19th in fewest interceptions thrown (seven), 14th in fewest sacks allowed (1.29/game), 20th in time of possession (31:31) and 40th in scoring offense (31.6).
- The Bears increased their rushing output by 129 yards per game from 2020 (219.3 ypg, up from 90.3 ypg), without sacrificing the passing game (203.4 passing yards per game in 2021, 219.9 ypg in 2020).
- Grimes' 2020 BYU offense finished third nationally in scoring (43.5 ppg) and seventh in total offense (522.2 ypg).
- Joining Grimes in making the move from Provo to Waco in 2021 was offensive line coach Eric Mateos, who spent two seasons at BYU. Mateos' offensive line ranked eighth nationally in 2020 with 1.0 sacks allowed per game, and the Bears ranked 14th nationally with only 1.29 sacks allowed per game in 2021.

FUDGE FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT CENTER

- The Bears have a bevy of facility projects underway in Waco to keep Baylor among the nation’s elite in terms of student-athlete support. One major project that is slated to be completed in time for the 2024 preseason is the Fudge Family Football Development Center.
- The Fudge Center will provide a new home for Baylor football, including locker rooms, meeting spaces, weight rooms, training rooms, coaching offices and recruiting areas. The state of the art building will connect to the existing Allison Indoor Facility, which will be expanded to feature a full 120-yard practice field.
- In addition to the Fudge Development Center, Baylor is preparing to open the Foster Pavilion across I-35, which will be the new home for men’s and women’s basketball. The building is slated to open in January for the conference basketball seasons.

BEARS LAUNCH BAYLOR+

- Baylor Athletics has launched Baylor+, the official content platform for the Bears. It will offer fans an insider’s look into the experiences of student-athletes and coaches as well as the compelling stories that shape Baylor Athletics. Baylor+ will feature exciting coverage of the current teams in Waco, while celebrating beloved Bears’ Legends and pivotal moments from the past.

ARANDA ONE OF TOP DEFENSIVE MINDS IN COUNTRY

- Fourth-year head coach Dave Aranda has earned a reputation as one of the nation’s top defensive minds over his 20-plus-year career, including stops as defensive coordinator at LSU, Wisconsin, Utah State and Hawaii.
- Aranda led the LSU defense in 2019 as the Tigers posted a perfect 15-0 record and won the National Title with a 42-25 victory over Clemson in CFP National Championship Game.
- In six seasons as defensive coordinator at Power 5 schools from 2014-19, his defenses were ranked top-12 nationally in total yards five times. The units also ranked top-10 in scoring four times in seven years from 2013-19.

MARSHALL FOURTH OLDEST NON-KICKER IN NATION

- Defensive lineman David Marshall Jr., a sophomore, ranks as the fourth-oldest non-kicker in college football, checking in at 25 years old with a birthday in late November.
- Marshall came to the Bears following a brief junior college stint at Navarro CC, which followed military service. A 6-foot, 279-pounder, Marshall provides great maturity and work ethic to the defensive line room.

Oldest Non-Kickers in College Football (overall oldest)

- 1 (11). Tyrone Taleni, DL, USC (27, 6/10/96)
- 2 (15). DeAngelo Gibbs, DB, South Carolina (25, 9/23/97)
- 3 (16). Baily Smith, TE, Central Michigan (25, 10/15/97)
- 4 (17). David Marshall, DL, Baylor (25, 11/30/97)
- 5 (18). Devaughn Vele, WR, Utah (25, 12/12/97)

IKA NABBED IN NFL DRAFT

- Baylor had defensive lineman Siaki Ika picked in the 2023 NFL Draft, giving Baylor seven selections over the last two years.
- Baylor tied a program record with six players picked in the 2022 NFL Draft, led by four top-three round selections, including safety Jalen Pitre, wide receiver Tyquan Thornton, safety JT Woods and linebacker Terrel Bernard.

ROAD WARRIORS IN 2022

- Baylor won three road games in Big 12 play in 2022, which was just a win shy of equaling the program record for league wins, which had only been done in 2019, and then in 1991 and 1980 in the Southwest Conference.
- The Bears posted wins at Iowa State and Oklahoma and routed Texas Tech in Lubbock, 45-17, in a game that was billed a “black out” and featured the jersey retirement of TCU legend Patrick Mahomes. Baylor picked off five passes from the Texas Tech offense in the win.
- Baylor had only won three or more road games in league play six times in the last 30 years and only five times in the history in the Big 12, dating back to 1996.
- The Bears had gone through a 37-game stretch from 1995-2005 without a road conference win, going 0-4 in every year from 1996-2004. BU was 2-50 in road conference games from 1996-2008.

SPECIALISTS BATTLE

- A fascinating story line in the preseason camp is the battle to replace starters at placekicker, punter and kickoff specialist.
- The Bears have qualified candidate competing for the roles, including sophomore kicker Isaiah Hankins, who is up for all three jobs. Michigan State transfer kicker Jack Stone is competing with Hankins for the field-goal and kickoff specialist role, while Palmer Williams – rated as the top punter recruit in the nation in 2023 – is in the mix with Hankins for the punter role.
- With the departure of four-year starting punter Isaac Power and the all-time leader in field-goal percentage, John Mayers, both roles will feature a new BU player. In addition, kickoff specialist Noah Rauschenberg is trying his hand at field goals with his extra year at North Texas, opening that vacancy for 2023. Power also handled all holding duties in his career, so the Bears will also feature a new player in that key role.

COLDEST BOWL GAME IN FOOTBALL HISTORY

- The Bears advanced to their 11th bowl game in the last 13 years with a berth in the Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth in 2022, playing Air Force.
- The game was the coldest bowl game in collegiate football history, kicking off at 12 degrees with significant wind throughout the game.

JACKSON SHIFTS TO STAR

- After gaining a seventh year of eligibility, Baylor’s Bryson Jackson made a late-career position change heading into 2023. Jackson, a 6-foot-2, 209-pounder had played linebacker throughout his career, excelling as a pass-rush specialist.
- In the spring of 2022, Jackson shifted to the STAR position, a hybrid safety-linebacker role – popularized by Jalen Pitre during the Big 12 Championship season in 2021. He will provide great veteran experience at the position and will rotate with a more traditional safety in certain defensive sets to properly match up with the offensive attack.
- Jackson has played in 48 games entering 2023 and owns 47 tackles, 10.5 tackles for a loss and 6.5 sacks. In 2023, he made two starts at linebacker and played in all 13 games, with 21 tackles, 5.5 for a loss and three sacks, forcing and recovering a fumble and totaling three QB Hurries. He was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 26, after a two-sack, QB hurry game in a win at Iowa State.

LEMEAR PACES SECONDARY

- The Bears return one primary starter in the secondary in 2023, sophomore safety Devin Lemear. A native of Manor, Texas, Lemear started all 13 games at safety as a redshirt freshman.
- Lemear finished with 57 tackles with two for a loss, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries in 2022.
- He will pace a youthful but talented secondary that will feature new cornerbacks on both ends and a new safety starter, in addition to a new starter at STAR.

NEW LOOK O-LINE READY TO MAUL

- The Baylor offensive line will break in four new starters on the offensive line, as departing starters Connor Galvin, Jacob Gall, Grant Miller and Khalil Keith have graduated to professional football.
- The Bears return a starter in Gavin Byers, who is working on the interior of the offensive line after starting at right tackle in 2022. BU will be able to immediately plug in BYU transfers Clark and Campbell Barrington on the offensive line, with Clark set to start at center and Campbell running at left tackle. Sophomore Tate Williams and George Maile are candidates to start at guard, while Elijah Ellis, Alvin Ebosele and Kaden Sieracki are in the mix at tackle opposite Campbell Barrington.
- Nationally, the Bears rank 36th in college football in games played on the offensive line entering the year, which includes transfer portal additions.

FRANKLIN, HALL LEAD D-LINE

- The Baylor defensive line is paced in 2023 by the return of senior standouts TJ Franklin and Gabe Hall. Franklin enters his fifth season of competition, while Hall is a veteran fourth-year senior.
- A native of Temple, Texas, Franklin made 10 starts at defensive end last year and has played in 45 games over his first four seasons. He totaled 36 tackles, three for a loss, and 1.5 sacks last year.
- Hall, a native of Waller, Texas, made 12 starts a defensive end in 2022 and finished with 36 tackles, 5.5 stops for a loss and 4.5 sacks, returning a fumble for a touchdown. He had four QB hurries, two break-ups and one blocked kick as a junior. He has played in 35 games in his three-year career entering 2023 and enters the season as a two-time member of Bruce Feldman's Freaks List via The Athletic.

FOOTBALL HISTORY

- The Bears are entering their 122nd season of football in 2023. The Bears have fielded a varsity team every year since 1899, save the 1906, 1943 and 1944 seasons.
- BU has won nine conference titles, including in 2021, with three Big 12 Championships and six Southwest Conference Championships.
- Baylor's first season came in 1899-1900, a 5-1 record under Coach R.H. Hamilton that included two wins over Toby's Business.

ONE STANDARD. ONE ACCORD.

- Baylor unveiled a mission statement under Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Mack Rhoades in the fall of 2018, "One Standard. One Accord", which is centered on the distinct purpose of Preparing Champions for Life through academic achievement, athletic success, spiritual growth and character formation.

RV/RV BAYLOR 31, TEXAS STATE 42

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 2, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 44,945

Blake Shapen threw for 303 yards and two touchdowns and also scored on a nine-yard keeper before missing the last six minutes of the game in Baylor's season-opening loss to Texas State, 42-31.

Baylor started the game with a bang, with Shapen hooking up with Hal Presley for a 40-yard pass down the far sideline, but the Bears were flagged for the first of five first-half false-start penalties and had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by Isaiah Hankins.

After the Bobcats got on the board with a 10-yard pass from Finley to Mahdi out of the backfield, the defense came up with a big play when redshirt freshman Devonte Tezino sacked Finley and forced a fumble that freshman end Trey Wilson recovered at the Texas State 36. Isaiah Hankins booted a career-long 53-yarder to make it a one-point game.

The Bobcats took a two-score lead, 21-6, on the back-to-back big-play touchdowns before Shapen scored from nine yards out for Baylor's first touchdown of the 2023 season.

Converting on fourth down for the third time, Texas State drove it 75 yards in 12 plays and scored on a Jahmyl Jeter one-yard run in the final minute of the first half.

Bears opened the second half quickly, nailing a 53-yard TD pass to Drake Dabney.

Hankins hit his third FG of the night to bring the Bears within 11 before a Texas State 26 yd TD pass to Joey Hobert.

Trying to rally from an 18-point fourth-quarter deficit, the Bears closed the gap with Shapen's two-yard TD pass to Dabney with 8:52 left in the game.

POSTGAME NOTES

- BU is now 81-37-4 all-time in season openers and 91-27-4 in home openers.
- With a temperature of 99 degrees, it marked the hottest kickoff temperature in McLane Stadium history.
- It was Baylor's first 500+ yard total offensive performance since going for 501 vs. TCU in 2023.
- Drake Dabney's 100-yard receiving game was the first for a Baylor tight end since Ken Hodge went for 121 yards on six catches in 1964 vs. Oregon State.
- Isaiah Hankins made a career-long 53 field goal in the first quarter. It was Baylor's longest field goal since John Mayers made a 51-yarder vs. TCU in 2019.
- Devyn Bobby, Kyler Jordan, Cooper Lanz, Tate Williams and Kaden Sieracki each made their first-career starts.
