JENKINS RACKS UP HONORS

• Baylor football freshman cornerback Caden Jenkins has been named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week and the Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week following a 36-35 win at UCF.

• In addition to making two solo tackles, the rookie from Lewisville, Texas, nabbed his first-career interception with UCF driving deep in Baylor territory looking to extend its 35-10 lead. His pick on the BU 14-yard line snuffed out the Knights' drive in the red zone and kickstarted what amounted to be Baylor's largest comeback win in school history.

• Then, with the Bears trailing by nine in the fourth quarter, Jenkins returned a UCF fumble 72 yards to the house for a scoop and score that swung the momentum heavily in BU's favor. After the extra point brought Baylor back within two points, the Bears were able to kick the game-winning field goal on their next offensive drive. Jenkins' defensive touchdown was the first by a Baylor true freshman since Chance Casey's 66-yard interception return against Northwestern State on Sept. 26, 2009.

• Jenkins becomes the 26th different Bear all-time to pick up Big 12 defensive honors for a total of 35 times. He is the first freshman in program history to earn the award. BU has had a Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honoree in 19 of the last 20 seasons, with seven honors earned in the Dave Aranda era.

HISTORIC COMEBACK IN ORLANDO

• Baylor made history in its road league debut at UCF, rallying from down 35-7 with just under four minutes left in the third quarter to score 29 unanswered points and clip the Knights in a 36-35 win on Sept. 30 in Orlando.

• It marked the largest comeback in Baylor football history, topping a 21-point comeback win in 2014 vs. TCU, in 2011 at Kansas and in 1080 vs. SMU.

• Baylor has three fourth-quarter comeback wins under Coach Dave Aranda, including 2020 vs. Kansas State, 2021 vs. Texas and the historic win over UCF.

• Baylor's 28-point comeback win marked the largest by an FBS school since 2019.

• The last 892 FBS teams, trailing by at least 25 points entering the fourth quarter, lost.

• Baylor's 26-0 fourth quarter at UCF marks the 21st time BU has scored 26 or more in a quarter in program history and it was the highest scoring fourth quarter in program history, eclipsing the previous mark of 24 points vs. Sam Houston in 2012 and TCU in 2014.

PERSON > PLAYER

• A hallmark of Coach Dave Aranda's philosophy in building a program is placing an importance on understanding that the person is more important than the player. This mantra is executed in everything the program touches on a daily basis. Throughout the football building, signage adorns the walls that emphasize, "better people make better players" and that Baylor will "win with character".

• Aranda preaches that players focus on today and be authentically themselves in an effort to be comfortable and confident in their roles.

BALDWIN, HALL ON 'FREAKS' LIST

• Baylor has a pair of players represented on The Athletic's list of "Freaks" in college football, put together annually by Bruce Feldman.

• Junior WR Monaray Baldwin earned the No. 42 spot on the list of 100, a year after leading the Bears with 33 catches, with 565 yards and four TDs. He hit 22.8 MPH on the GPS during a TD catch vs. Oklahoma State, which marked the fastest player in college football in 2022. A 5-foot-9, 170-pounder, Baldwin bench presses 405 pounds, squats 550 pounds and power cleans 300.

• Senior defensive lineman Gabe Hall checked in No. 45 on the Freaks list. A 6-6, 296-pounder, Hall bench presses 500 pounds, squats 565, cleans 365 and did a 750-pound trap bar deadlift. He has also hit 19.9 MPH on the GPS.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF EXTRA YEARS

• A total of six Baylor Bears are using 2023 as their additional year of eligibility through the NCAA's COVID-19 impacted rules.

• Two returnees, including TJ Franklin and Bryson Jackson, are using 2023 as their COVID years, while transfers Mike Smith Jr., Byron Vaughns, Justin Sambu and Clark Barrington are all transfers from previous institutions and enter the season already possessing their undergraduate degrees.

FOURTH-DOWN AGGRESSIVENESS

• Baylor under Coach Dave Aranda is one of the most aggressive teams in college football on fourth down. In 2022, the Bears ranked second nationally in fourth-down conversions (30), trailing only Texas Tech (33).

• The Bears converted 63.8 percent of their fourth-down attempts, which ranked 12th among teams that have attempted 15+ fourth-down tries in 2022.

- A total of 22 of Baylor's starters in the first seven games have been first-time starters. Eight of those first-time starters started both of the first two games, which makes that 25 of Baylor's 44 starts (57%) in the first two games coming from players who had not started a game prior to 2023.
- The total of 19 first-time starters through the first three games of the year marks a stark contrast to the last two seasons, when Baylor had six combined first-time starters in 2021 and nine combined first-time starters in 2022.
- Baylor has also played 21 freshmen in 2023.
- Through the first five games, 36.3% of Baylor's offensive and defensive snaps in 2023 came from newcomers, either transfers or freshmen.

PRESEASON HONORS

- The Bears have had a bevy of honors in the preseason, including members of several watch lists, including safety Alfonzo Allen (Wuerffel Trophy), offensive lineman Clark Barrington (Rimington Trophy), defensive lineman Gabe Hall (Bronko Nagurski Trophy) and running back Richard Reese (Maxwell Award, Doak Walker Award).
- In addition, the College Football Network named Baylor the Preseason Big 12 Offensive Line of the Year.

ROBERTSON MAKES FIRST CAREER START

• With starting quarterback Blake Shapen going down with injury in the season opener vs. Texas State, the Bears turned to redshirt sophomore QB Sawyer Robertson to make his first career start, coming vs. No. 12/12 Utah.

• Robertson, who was 6-of-12 for 113 yards, with 14 rushing yards in relief of Shapen vs. TXST, faced off with one of the nation's best defensive units in the Utah matchup. He threw for 126 yards in the first half vs. the Utes, leading the Bears to a 13-3 lead. Utah's defense stiffened in the second half and forced Robertson into a pair of interceptions. He finished with a career-high 218 yards passing and rushed for 19 yards including his first career TD.

SPRING ENROLEES

• A total of 21 of Baylor's newcomers arrived on campus to participate in spring.

• Transfers Isaiah Dunson (Miami), Sawyer Robertson (Mississippi State), RJ Martinez (Northern Arizona), Domininc Richardson (Oklahoma St.), Mike Smith (Liberty), Clark Barrington (BYU), Campbell Barrington (BYU), David Marshall Jr. (Navarro CC), Jake Roberts (UNT) and Jack Stone (Michigan State) all enrolled in time for spring practice. Several freshmen including Carl Williams, Caden Jenkins, Bryson Washington, Hawkins Polley, Matthew Klopfenstein, Jonathan Nielsen, Wes Tucker, Micah Gifford, Tay'Shawn Wilson and Palmer Williams all got a jump on spring ball.

FOURTH-MOST WINS IN TEXAS IN LAST 10+ YEARS

• Through the opening of the 2023 season, Baylor has won 99 games since 2011, fourth-most among the state of Texas' 12 FBS teams during that time.

• BU's 99 wins in the last 10+ years are shy of Texas A&M (100), Houston (100), and TCU (100), and ahead of Texas (89), SMU (75), UTSA (73), Texas Tech (72), North Texas (68), Rice (58), UTEP (45) and Texas State (44).

SCHOOL-RECORD, NCAA-LEADING EIGHT HOME GAMES

• Baylor will host a school-record eight home games at McLane Stadium in 2023.

• Baylor is the only school in the nation with eight home games in 2023 and one of 20 schools with seven or more home games.

• The season lid-lifter will start a stretch of four consecutive home games and the Bears will play five of their first six at home to open the year. The eight home games is the most in program history, and the four straight to open the year at home marks the most consecutive home games to start a season since the 2013 Big 12 Championship season.

TIGHT END U

• Baylor's offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes is also the tight-end coach for the Bears, marking one of just 10 coaches in college football to serve in those two roles.

• Grimes is one of two offensive coordinators who also serves as the tight-ends coach in the Big 12, joining Andy Kotelnicki at Kansas.

• The Bears are consistently talent rich at the tight end position and Grimes places tremendous value in the TE role in his offensive attack. Baylor regularly runs sets with two or three tight ends on the field at the same time and in 2023, boast a plethora of talent in the position, including sophomore bruiser Kelsey Johnson, North Texas transfer Jake Roberts and senior Drake Dabney. In addition, the Bears can use tight end Gavin Yates in a variety of roles, and boast youthful talent in Cody Mladenka and true freshmen Matthew Klopfenstein and Hawkins Polley.

STAFF ADDITIONS

• Baylor added several key members to its coaching and support staff in the offseason.

• The Bears have added new defensive coordinator Matt Powledge, who will also coach safeties, after Powledge spent the 2022 season as the co-defensive coordinator at Oregon. A native of Huntsville, Texas, Powledge spent two seasons as the safeties and special teams coordinator at Baylor in 2020-21 before joining the staff at Oregon.

• AJ Steward has been tabbed as the assistant head coach and running backs coach for the Bears after spending the last two seasons as the running backs coach at Oregon State. He previously had stops at Arizona (2020), BYU (2018-19) – where he coached with Jeff Grimes and Eric Mateos – and Rice (2012-17). A native of St. Louis, Mo., Steward helped Oregon State to a 10-3 record last year.

• Baylor also added Christian Robinson as the coach of the inside linebackers, with Robinson joining the staff after coaching linebackers at Auburn in 2022, which followed four seasons in the same role at Florida. Robinson, a native of Norcross, Ga., has also had coaching stops at Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Georgia, where he played for a pair of SEC Eastern Division Championship teams.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

• Baylor has forced considerably more turnovers than it has allowed in 43 games under head coach Dave Aranda.

- This has come after committing nine penalties for 45 yards in the season opener vs. Texas State.
- Baylor was whistled for 10 false starts in the first two games of the year while working in a new offensive line, including six in the season opener. Since, Baylor has just five false starts called in the last five games.
- Baylor ranks fourth in the Big 12 in terms of fewest penalty yards per game since 2020 and third among teams that have been in the Big 12 all of those seasons.
- Baylor has ranked first or second in penalty yards per game over the last two seasons.

FASTEST GUY IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

- Junior wide receiver Monaray Baldwin was clocked as the fastest player in college football in 2022, coming on a TD catch vs. Oklahoma State.
- Baldwin, a 5-foot-9, 170-pound dynamo was clocked at 22.8 MPH on the GPS on the TD vs. OSU.
- Baldwin has been ranked as one of the top-100 "freaks" in college football by The Athletic, with his speed and alarming strength (405 bench, 550 squad, 300 power clean) allowing him to stand out.
- The Bears use Baldwin in a variety of ways in addition to his role as a primary slot receiver. Baldwin has the ability to carry the rock on jet sweep and reverse plays and return punts and kickoffs.

ADDING VIA THE PORTAL

- Following the 2021 Big 12 Championship season, the Bears elected to approach the offseason with caution in relation to the embracing of the transfer portal. The Bears added just a handlful of players via the portal before the 2022 season and with a roster full of youth at skill positions during the season, Baylor has taken a different approach leading into 2023.
- Coach Dave Aranda spoke openly about his adaptation and growth via the portal during the preseason talking circuit: "One of the struggles for me," Aranda said, "has always been if you say yes to something, a player outside your team that's in the portal, you're saying no to a player on your team that maybe is struggling from an injury, that's maybe trying to get his class, his schoolwork in order, that's maybe trying to hone the techniques of his new position that he's playing or maybe he's trying to gain weight or any of those things. When you bring somebody in, you almost kind of stunt the growth of that person. For me to kind of come to grips with, 'Hey, this is what needs to happen for the betterment of the team' as opposed to just looking at what's best for that one particular player on your team."
- The Bears added 13 players via the transfer portal in 2023, including BYU offensive lineman Campbell Barrington and Clark Barrington, Liberty linebacker Mike Smith, wide receiver Ketron Jackson Jr., Utah State linebacker Bryon Vaughns, Oklahoma State running back Dominic Richardson, Maine defensive lineman Justin Sambu, Oregon defensive lineman Treven Ma'ae, Miami cornerback Isaiah Dunson, Mississippi State quarterback Sawyer Robertson, Michigan State kicker Jack Stone and North Texas tight end Jake Roberts.

BARRINGTON BROS

- A big boost for the Baylor offensive attack came in the form of a BYU transfer offensive lineman, Clark and Campbell Barrington, brothers from Spokane, Wash.
- The dynamic duo arrived in time for spring practice in 2022 and immediately slotted into the rotation, with Clark manning center and Campbell seeing time primarily at left tackle and right tackle. In the win over Cincinnati, Clark and Campbell both shifted to the guard spots.
- The Barringtons are the only brother combination in the nation to start on the offensive line.
- Clark arrives having played 46 games with 40 starts at BYU, where he started the final 37 games of his career. He started all 13 games in 2022 for the Cougs at left guard, which followed an All-America season in 2021.
- Campbell played in nine games in 2022 as he battled injury. It followed a Freshman All-America season in 2021, where he helped the BYU offense score 33 points per game and average over 450 yards of total offense.
- The Barrington Bros unite with offensive line coach Eric Mateos, who coached Clark at BYU and recruited Campbell. BU OC Jeff Grimes was also the offensive coordinator while Clark was with the Cougs.

FORMER BEARS IN PRO BALL

- As of Oct. 16, there are 22 former Baylor Bears on NFL rosters.
- In addition to the 22 on NFL rosters, including the practice squad, there are four players on XFL rosters and three on USFL rosters. A total of 13 former Bears were cut on Tuesday, Aug. 29.
- Baylor has a league-high three players on the Houston Texans, including Grayland Arnold, Jalen Pitre and Jon Weeks.
- All-America defensive lineman Siaki Ika was a third-round pick in the 2023 NFL Draft and is in his rookie season with the Cleveland Browns.

RANKED IN 10 OF LAST 13 SEASONS

- The Bears entered the 2023 season receiving votes in the AP and USA TODAY Coaches Polls.
- Baylor was ranked or receiving votes in 10 of 16 polls in 2022.
- Baylor has been ranked in the AP Top 25 in 10 of 13 seasons since 2010, after going 17 years between national rankings (1993-2010). BU has been ranked in 23 of 25 spots since 2013 (exceptions No. 1 and No. 23).

KETRON A WELCOME ADDITION

- A major story for the Bears over the course of the spring and preseason has been the development of skill-player weapons in 2023. A lead in that process has been the addition of Arkansas WR transfer Ketron Jackson Jr.
- Jackson, a 6-foot-3, 208-pounder played in 25 games over the last two seasons in Fayetteville, totaling 21 catches for 374 yards and four TDs.
- Jackson has been the primary outside weapon for the Bears throughout the spring and into the opening stages of the season. He owns elite speed and ball skills and has the ability to win contested catches down the sideline.
- When Jackson arrived for spring practice as a priority transfer, he made it known to WR coach Dallas Baker, he didn't want anything given to him in terms of playing time and team status, that he was going to work for everything. "I told him that before I came in because I know how that is," said Jackson. "I respect those guys; I'm not going to do that. I'm going to work for whatever I get."

FUDGE FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT CENTER

- The Bears have a bevy of facility projects underway in Waco to keep Baylor among the nation's elite in terms of student-athlete support. One major project that is slated to be completed in time for the 2024 preseason is the Fudge Family Football Development Center.
- The Fudge Center will provide a new home for Baylor football, including locker rooms, meeting spaces, weight rooms, training rooms, coaching offices and recruiting areas. The state of the art building will connect to the existing Allison Indoor Facility, which will be expanded to feature a full 120-yard practice field.
- In addition to the Fudge Development Center, Baylor is preparing to open the Foster Pavilion across I-35, which will be the new home for men's and women's basketball. The building is slated to open in January for the conference basketball seasons.

ARANDA ONE OF TOP DEFENSIVE MINDS IN COUNTRY

- Aranda led the LSU defense in 2019 as the Tigers posted a perfect 15-0 record and won the National Title with a 42-25 victory over Clemson in CFP National Championship Game.
- In six seasons as defensive coordinator at Power 5 schools from 2014-19, his defenses were ranked top-12 nationally in total yards five times. The units also ranked top-10 in scoring four times in seven years from 2013-19.

MATEOS MAKES 40 UNDER 40 LIST

- Baylor offensive line coach Eric Mateos has been honored as one of the '40 Under 40' Coaches in Texas by Dave Campbell's Texas Football, featuring high school and collegiate coaches.
- Mateos is in his third year as the offensive line coach for Baylor, after a decorated two-year run at BYU. He joined the Cougars staff following two years as the offensive line coach at Texas State. He prepped his coaching career as an offensive line coach at Hutchinson College, three years as a graduate assistant at Arkansas (2013-15) and a season as the graduate assistant at LSU, where he also served as the full-time tight ends coach midway through the year.
- Mateos has led dynamic offensive line units in Waco during his previous two seasons. In his first season, the Bears boasted the Big 12's best rushing attack, averaging 219.3 yards per game, the 10th-best mark in the nation. Baylor allowed the second-fewest sacks in the circuit and finished as semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, given to the nation's best offensive line. Connor Galvin earned Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year and All-America honors from The Athletic and Associated Press. He was one of two All-Americans on the offensive line during Baylor's 2021 Big 12 Championship season, as Jacob Gall was named second-team All-America by the Football Writers Association of America.
- Last year, Mateos formed an elite group that totaled 182.4 rushing yards per game, totaling 2,371 total rushing yards. The Bears had 34 rushing TDs, the seventh-most in school history. Gall and Galvin each earned honorable mention All-America honors from Phil Steele and Gall was tabbed as the Best Offensive Lineman in Texas by DCTF.
- A native of Overland Park, Kan., Mateos came to Waco following two seasons at BYU, where the Cougs ranked among the nation's top-15 in 10 different offensive statistical categories, including ranking third in scoring and seventh in total offense. He mentored consensus All-America offensive tackle Brady Christensen and heled direct BYU to just 12 sacks allowed in 12 games and 34 rushing TDs, the fourth-most in the nation. BYU went 11-1 in 2022, following a Hawaii Bowl berth in his first season in 2019, that saw BYU own the nation's eighth-best offense.

GRIMES BRINGS RVO TO WACO

- Offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes - entering his third year at Baylor - has brought RVO to Waco - "Reliable Violent Offense" - an attacking, multiple-formation offense that runs a few plays a lot of ways with as much misdirection as any team in the country.
- In 2022, Baylor ranked among the tops in single-season offensive output in program history, totaling the seventh-most TDs (34), the 10th most total yards (5,380) and first downs (296), while ranking fourth-best in completion percentage (63.0).

• The Bears posted wins at Iowa State and Oklahoma and routed Texas Tech in Lubbock, 45-17, in a game that was billed a "black out" and featured the jersey retirement of TTU legend Patrick Mahomes. Baylor picked off five passes from the Texas Tech offense in the win.

• Baylor had only won three or more road games in league play six times in the last 30 years and only five times in the history in the Big 12, dating back to 1996.

• The Bears had gone through a 37-game stretch from 1995-2005 without a road conference win, going 0-4 in every year from 1996-2004. BU was 2-50 in road conference games from 1996-2008.

• The game was the coldest bowl game in collegiate football history, kicking off at 12 degrees with significant wind throughout the game.

JACKSON SHIFTS TO STAR

• After gaining a seventh year of eligibility, Baylor's Bryson Jackson made a late-career position change heading into 2023. Jackson, a 6-foot-2, 209-pounder had played linebacker throughout his career, excelling as a pass-rush specialist.

• In the spring of 2022, Jackson shifted to the STAR position, a hybrid safety-linebacker role – popularized by Jalen Pitre during the Big 12 Championship season in 2021. He will provide great veteran experience at the position and will rotate with a more traditional safety in certain defensive sets to properly match up with the offensive attack.

• In 2023, he made two starts at linebacker and played in all 13 games, with 21 tackles, 5.5 for a loss and three sacks, forcing and recovering a fumble and totaling three QB Hurries. He was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 26, after a two-sack, QB hurry game in a win at Iowa State.

LEMEAR PACES SECONDARY

• The Bears return one primary starter in the secondary in 2023, sophomore safety Devin Lemear. A native of Manor, Texas, Lemear started all 13 games at safety as a redshirt freshman.

• Lemear finished with 57 tackles with two for a loss, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries in 2022.

• He will pace a youthful but talented secondary that will feature new cornerbacks on both ends and a new safety starter, in addition to a new starter at STAR.

NEW LOOK O-LINE

• The Baylor offensive line will break in four new starters on the offensive line, as departing starters Connor Galvin, Jacob Gall, Grant Miller and Khalil Keith have graduated to professional football.

• The Bears return a starter in Gavin Byers, who is working on the interior of the offensive line after starting at right tackle in 2022. BU will be able to immediately plug in BYU transfers Clark and Campbell Barrington on the offensive line, with Clark set to start at center and Campbell running at left tackle. Sophomore Tate Williams and George Maile are candidates to start at guard, while Elijah Ellis, Alvin Ebosele and Kaden Sieracki are in the mix at tackle opposite Campbell Barrington.

• Nationally, the Bears rank 36th in college football in games played on the offensive line entering the year, which includes transfer portal additions.

FRANKLIN, HALL LEAD D-LINE

• The Baylor defensive line is paced in 2023 by the return of senior standouts TJ Franklin and Gabe Hall. Franklin enters his fifth season of competition, while Hall is a veteran fourth-year senior.

• A native of Temple, Texas, Franklin made 10 starts at defensive end last year and has played in 45 games over his first four seasons. He totaled 36 tackles, three for a loss, and 1.5 sacks last year.

• Hall, a native of Waller, Texas, made 12 starts a defensive end in 2022 and finished with 36 tackles, 5.5 stops for a loss and 4.5 sacks, returning a fumble for a touchdown. He enters the season as a two-time member of Bruce Feldman's Freaks List via The Athletic.

FOOTBALL HISTORY

• The Bears are entering their 122nd season of football in 2023. The Bears have fielded a varsity team every year since 1899, save the 1906, 1943 and 1944 seasons.

• BU has won nine conference titles, including in 2021, with three Big 12 Championships and six Southwest Conference Championships.

• Baylor's first season came in 1899-1900, a 5-1 record under Coach R.H. Hamilton that included two wins over Toby's Business.

ONE STANDARD. ONE ACCORD.

• Baylor unveiled a mission statement under Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Mack Rhoades in the fall of 2018, "One Standard. One Accord", which is centered on the distinct purpose of Preparing Champions for Life through academic achievement, athletic success, spiritual growth and character formation.

ABOUT BAYLOR

• Baylor is situated on a 1,000-acre campus located on the Brazos River in Waco, Texas, and was chartered in 1845 by the Republic of Texas through the efforts of Baptist pioneers. It is the oldest continually operating university in Texas. Baylor is a R1 Institution according to the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education

• BU sponsors 19 varsity sports as members of the Big 12 Conference and boasts the 2021 Men's Basketball National Champions, the 2005, 2012 and 2019 Women's Basketball National Champions and the 2004 Men's Tennis National Champions, in addition to 88 Big 12 Conference Championships in the league's 25-year history.

2023 GAME RECAPS

OVERALL: 3-4 (HOME 1-4, ROAD 2-0, NEUTRAL 0-0) | BIG 12 CONFERENCE: 2-2 (HOME 0-2, ROAD 2-0, NEUTRAL 0-0)

TEXAS STATE 42, RV/RV BAYLOR 31
McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
SEPT. 2, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 44,945

    Blake Shapen threw for 303 yards and two touchdowns and also scored on a nine-yard keeper before missing the last six minutes of the game in Baylor's season-opening loss to Texas State, 42-31.

    Baylor started the game with a bang, with Shapen hooking up with Hal Presley for a 40-yard pass down the far sideline, but the Bears were flagged for the first of five first-half false-start penalties and had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by Isaiah Hankins.

    After the Bobcats got on the board with a 10-yard pass from Finley to Mahdi out of the backfield, the defense came up with a big play when redshirt freshman Devonte Tezino sacked Finley and forced a fumble that freshman end Trey Wilson recovered at the Texas State 36. Isaiah Hankins booted a career-long 53-yarder to make it a one-point game.

    The Bobcats took a two-score lead, 21-6, on the back-to-back big-play touchdowns before Shapen scored from nine yards out for Baylor's first touchdown of the 2023 season.

    Converting on fourth down for the third time, Texas State drove it 75 yards in 12 plays and scored on a Jahmyl Jeter one-yard run in the final minute of the first half.

    Bears opened the second half quickly, nailing a 53-yard TD pass to Drake Dabney.

    Hankins hit his third FG of the night to bring the Bears within 11 before a Texas State 26 yd TD pass to Joey Hobert.

    Trying to rally from an 18-point fourth-quarter deficit, the Bears closed the gap with Shapen's two-yard TD pass to Dabney with 8:52 left in the game.

12/12 UTAH 20, BAYLOR 13
McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
SEPT. 9, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 43,732

    Nearly pulling off a miracle finish, the Baylor Bears fell to 12th-ranked Utah, 20-13, at McLane Stadium.

    Overcoming a double-digit second-half deficit, the Utes scored twice in the last two minutes to hand the Bears their second-straight home loss to open the season.

    Making his first-career start, Sawyer Robertson, while filling in for an injured Blake Shapen, threw for 218 yards and also scored on a four-yard touchdown run in the first half. But a pair of second-half interceptions led to the 10 points that proved to be the difference.

    Baylor, took a 10-3 halftime lead on Robertson's four-yard TD run and the first of two Isaiah Hankins field goals. Hankins missed a 45-yarder late in the half.

    The Bears tacked on a Hankins' 24-yarder to go up 13-3 on the first series of the third quarter, but those would be the last points they scored.

    Utah had a 15-play, 88-yard drive that took more than eight minutes off the clock, tying it up on a seven-yard TD run by redshirt freshman quarterback Nate Johnson.

    After Utah tied it up, Robertson was picked off by safety Cole Bishop on a third-and-16 from his own 20-yard line. Jaylon Glover scored from 11 yards out to give the Utes their first lead of the game with 17 seconds left.

    Down to 14 seconds and no timeouts after the kickoff, Robertson hit Hal Presley for a short gain, then found him down the near sideline for a 47-yard pickup to Utah's 22-yard line with one second left.

    On the last play, on an attempt to find Ketron Jackson Jr., the ball sailed over the Arkansas transfer's head as time expired.

POSTGAME NOTES
• This was the first all-time meeting in the series with the Utes.
• The Bears allowed only six points in the first three quarters, their fewest allowed since a shutout win over Texas Southern in 2021.
• The Bears are 37-20 all-time at McLane Stadium.
• Baylor is 14-8 under Aranda when scoring first.
• Sawyer Robertson threw for a career-high 218 yards and rushed five times for 19 yards and his first career TD.
• Matt Jones had a game-high nine tackles, with two pass break-ups.
• Devyn Bobby had a carer-best six tackles.

BAYLOR 30, LONG ISLAND 7
McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
SEPT. 16, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 43,732

Baylor leaned on its rushing attack to defeat the visiting Long Island Sharks, 30-7, in a game that included a two-hour-plus weather delay.

Freshman Dawson Pendergrass topped the 100-yard mark with 111 yards and one touchdown on 21 carries, while Richard Reese scored twice from 13 yards out and had 82 yards on 12 totes to help the Bears pick up their first win of the season and snap a six-game losing streak overall.

Baylor piled up 270 yards rushing for the game, with freshman Bryson Washington adding 45 yards on 10 carries. Making his second start, sophomore quarterback Sawyer Robertson completed 10-of-22 passes for 113 yards and one touchdown and added a 14-yard run.

Long Island, a sixth-year FCS program playing just its second Power 5 team, managed just 17 yards total until late in the first half and trailed 16-0 after a safety. But the Sharks got a fourth-down stop near midfield and got on the board with a 10-yard keeper by Chris Howell with 40 seconds left in the half.

After the teams went back to the locker rooms for an extended halftime that stretched into more than a two-hour delay, the Bears went 76 yards in 13 plays and went up 23-7 on Reese's second TD of the day.

The Sharks stuck to the ground and marched from their own 20 down to Baylor's 27, but sacks from Mike Smith and Byron Vaughns gave the Bears back the ball.

Baylor answered with a 10-play, 57-yard scoring drive and pushed the lead to 30-7 with Robertson's four-yard TD pass to tight end Drake Dabney on a perfectly executed play-action.

Long Island threatened again late, but Joey Spano's 43-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Trey Wilson and returned by Alfonzo Allen into LIU territory.

POSTGAME NOTES
• Baylor allowed only 183 yards of total offense, its fewest total yards allowed since surrendering 166 vs. Kansas in 2021
• Trey Wilson blocked a field goal in the fourth quarter, marking Baylor's first blocked kick since a win over Texas State in 2022.
• The Bears recorded their first safety since Christian Morgan's in 2022 at Texas.
• Richard Reese rushed for the fifth multi-TD game of his career.
• Dawson Pendergrass had a career-high 111 yards rushing on 21 carries, both career highs, and scored his first career TD.
• Bryson Washington had a career-high 10 carries and 45 yards rushing
• Byron Vaughns finished with two sacks.
• Sawyer Robertson threw for 113 yards and had his first career passing TD.
• Carl Williams IV picked off his first career pass and recorded his first career tackle for a loss

BAYLOR 32, CINCINNATI 29
NIPPERT STADIUM • CINCINNATI, OHIO
OCT. 21, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 38,193

Isaiah Hankins made four field goals, including a career-long 54-yarder, as Baylor defeated the Cincinnati Bearcats, 32-29, Saturday afternoon before a crowd of 38,193 at Nippert Stadium.

Blake Shapen threw for 316 yards and one touchdown and rushed for another to help the Bears remain unbeaten on the road.

Answering a UC score, Baylor took the lead for good early in the second quarter on a three-yard run by Shapen, capping off a seven-play, 75-yard drive.

On the ensuing kickoff, Braden Smith bobbled it on the catch, then fumbled it away into the arms of Byron Vaughns for an easy return from inside the 10-yard line to make it a double-digit lead, 17-7.

Hankins nailed another one from 43 yards to give the Bears a 20-14 halftime lead.

Shapen found Ketron Jackson for a 55-yard pass on the opening drive of the third quarter and then got with Jake Roberts from six yards out for his first touchdown in a Baylor uniform to make it 26-14.

In a big red-zone stop, Jones missed Payten Singletary on a fourth-down pass from the 15-yard line that was broken up by Devin Lemear. Back-to-back 20-yard plays on a Shapen pass to Monaray Baldwin and a run by Dominic Richardson led to a 46-yard field goal by Hankins that pushed the lead to 29-14 late in the third quarter.

Hankins made it a 4-for-4 day when he split the uprights with another 43-yarder that made it 32-21.

The Bearcats made things interesting at the end, coming back from a double-digit deficit to make it a three-point game with 5:03 left when quarterback Emory Jones completed a 28-yard TD pass to Xzavier Henderson and then went to Evan Prater for the two-point conversion.

But the Baylor defense came up with a big stop near midfield when Corey Gordon Jr. broke up a fourth-down pass as Cincinnati turned it over on downs for the third time. The Bearcats rolled up 450 yards total offense, including 288 on the ground, but was just 2-for-4 in the red zone.
