- The honor was Pressley's 18th-career weekly conference award, a record-breaking achievement as she now sits alone atop the Big 12 record book for most all-time weekly awards.
- The reigning national player of the year put down 61 kills on a .299 efficiency, averaging 6.10 kills per set and accounting for 65 total points. She also added four solo blocks and 14 digs.
- Her 32 kills in Nov. 5's match were the most by a BU player since her own career-high 39 at Iowa State on Sept. 22, 2018, also a program record.
- In the series opener, Pressley opened the match without an error through two sets, tallying 18 kills on her first 30 swings.

Quick HitsHIT THE FLOOR

- Baylor has seen its back row defense improve throughout the back half of the season, receiving strong production from redshirt junior S Callie Williams and junior L/DS Shanel Bramschreiber.
- Bramschreiber leads the Bears with 3.58 digs per set (8th in the Big 12) and has matched her previous career-high for digs in a single match 10 times this season.
- Williams has recorded double-digit digs five times this season.
- Campbell Bowden has also contributed, starting in 11 of her 12 matches played in 2020. She recorded a career-high 10 digs in the first match at Texas.
- Emily Van Slate has chipped in with five double-digit dig performances, and Hannah Sedwick tallied her first double-double of the season with 11 digs at Texas on Nov. 6.

BY THE NUMBERS

- Baylor is currently seventh in the nation in team hitting percentage at .278 and opponent hitting percentage at .154.
- Senior Yossiana Pressley is fifth nationally and leads the Big 12 with 250 kills.
- The Bears place in the top-15 of five statistical categories (by percentage) as a team: hitting percentage (.278, 7th), opponent's hitting percentage (.154, 7th), blocks per set (2.52, 10th), kills per set (13.34, 15th) and assists per set (12.40, 15th).

DOMINATION UP FRONT

- Baylor has held its opponents to below a .165 hitting percentage nine times in 2020.
- The Bears have totaled at least 10 blocks as a team six times this year, including in five of the last seven matches.
- Sophomore MB Kara McGhee (58, 4th) graduate transfer MB Laché Harper (46, 9th), and redshirt junior OPP Marieke van der Mark (41, 12th) power the Bears block, each ranking in the top-12 in the conference in total blocks.

HITTING .400

- Baylor hit above .400 as a team in three of its first four victories of the year and have done so four times in 2020.
- Prior to the 2020 season, Baylor had hit above .400 as a team in just four matches from 2017-2019.
- BU has had at least one player hit .400 or better individually (min. 12 kills) in five of its 12 matches this season.

NEW IN 2020

- Due to precautions taken in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Ferrell Center will be restricted to 25 percent capacity (just under 700 seats) in order to provide the safest environment for student-athletes, fans, coaches and staffs.
- The revised 2020 schedule includes a new, 16-match format in which teams will play on back-to-back days against league opponents.
- The season will resume in the spring with more matches before postseason play in April.
- The Big 12 has set the minimum number of players required to play a match this season at nine, which must include one setter. Teams falling below the benchmark, based on game week test results, could still elect to play as scheduled if so desired. Otherwise, upon approval by Big 12 Commissioner Bob Bowlsby, the match would be declared a no-contest if it cannot be moved to a later date.

IT'S HER CROWN

- After undergoing offseason surgery, reigning national player of the year Yossiana Pressley is finding her form in 2020 with 4.72 kills per set on a .283 attack percentage. She has recorded 13 double-digit kill performances, including a season-high outing with 32 against Texas on Nov. 6.

- In her career, Pressley has recorded 86 double-digit kill performances, including 30 matches with at least 20 kills, and six outings with at least 30 putaways.
- Pressley owns the school record for kills in a single match with 39, coming in a five-set victory

Head Coach

RYAN MCGUYRE

6th season at Baylor
19th season overall (w)
28th season overall (w/m)

In five seasons at the helm of Baylor volleyball, head coach Ryan McGuyre has put the program amongst the sport's biggest names and into the national spotlight. After narrowly missing the postseason in his first year, McGuyre and the Bears marched their way to the program's first Big 12 title and the NCAA National Semifinals in 2019 while earning the school's first No. 1 AVCA national ranking and No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Entering his sixth season, McGuyre has compiled five consecutive winning seasons, four-straight 20-win seasons and a program-best four consecutive NCAA appearances since his arrival in 2015.

Named the 2019 AVCA and VolleyballMag.com National Coach of the Year, 2019 AVCA Southwest Region Coach of the Year, 2017 and 2019 Big 12 Coach of the Year, McGuyre has coached nine AVCA All-America selections, 11 All-Region honorees, 18 All-Big 12 awardees and 39 Academic All-Big 12 selections at Baylor.

McGuyre's teams continue to lock down home court advantage behind record-breaking crowds at the Ferrell Center. Baylor has broken its own attendance record in three straight seasons. Last season's win against No. 1 Texas on Nov. 20 drew 7,357 fans, almost double the old attendance record set earlier against Tennessee in September.

Baylor went an unblemished 17-0 at home in 2019, securing wins over five ranked opponents and hosting through the NCAA Regional final to book a spot in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Along with matching the most home wins in program history with 13 in 2017, BU's season opener against LSU in 2018 drew a record crowd of 3,858. The team has had 10 top-10 crowds at the Ferrell Center under McGuyre.

McGuyre has coached at the collegiate level for both men and women since 1999 including head-coaching stints at California Baptist (CBU) and Biola University, both of which are faith-based institutions.

As associate head coach for two seasons, McGuyre and the Florida State Seminoles finished a 2014 NCAA Tournament run reaching the Sweet 16 before a loss to national runner-up, BYU. Prior to his arrival at Florida State, McGuyre was an assistant at Maryland for one season following a 10-year head coaching stint at CBU. There, he was the head coach for both the men's and women's programs, and he crafted a men's program that won six NAIA national championships and three women's national titles.

Among many accolades at CBU, McGuyre was named the 2005 NAIA Men's National Coach of the Year and in 2011 the NCCAA Division I National Coach of the Year. In 2010, he made history by being named both the AVCA Men's and Women's NAIA National Coach of the Year in the same calendar year.

A 1998 graduate of Biola, McGuyre is married to former University of Hawaii volleyball standout and USA National Team member Jennifer (Roberts) McGuyre. The couple has three children: sons, Tryston and Ryder, and a daughter, Kitana.
