TIP OFF

• South Dakota captured the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament win Friday with a 75-61 win over Ole Miss. The Coyotes (ki-oats) are making their fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in 10 seasons of Division I eligibility and fourth-straight tourney appearance.

• South Dakota and rival South Dakota State shared the Summit's regular season title, marking the league's first co-champions since 1999. It is USD's third regular season title in the last five years.

• The Coyotes are led by Summit League Player of the Year Chloe Lamb and Summit League Defensive Player of the Year Hannah Sjerven. The pair were both named to the all-Summit first team while Liv Korgable earned second team honors for the second time. Grace Larkins was named the Summit League Sixth Woman of the Year.

• Dawn Plitzuweit is 10-5 as a head coach in the NCAA Tournament, winning the Division II championship with Grand Valley State in 2006.

• Friday was the fourth time a Summit League team has won a game in the NCAA Tournament. Only one team has reached the Sweet 16 in league history (SDSU, 2019).

• South Dakota is 0-4 against teams ranked in the top-5 of a national poll. Three of those losses have been to South Carolina the last three years.

 South Dakota is led by three-time Summit League Coach of the Year Dawn Plitzuweit in her sixth season. She tops the league record book for overall win percentage (.817), and has led USD to five 20-win seasons, six postseasons, including four-straight NCAA Tournaments. Plitzuweit (PLITTS-zoo-white) was a semifinalist for the 2020 Naismith Coach of the Year.

 The Coyotes are both the Summit League tournament and regular season champions in 2022. It's the third-straight tournament crown (fourth overall) and fifth regular season title in 11 years as Summit League members. USD's 'Big Three' super seniors in Chloe Lamb, Hannah Sjerven and Liv Korngable have belonged to three tournament and three regular season championship squads. That trio have accounted for roughly two-thirds of USD's scoring over the last two seasons.

 Lamb is the Summit League Player of the Year, becoming the just third South Dakota player, men or women, to claim that honor. She's the calm, cool and collected coach on the floor that knows when to take over the game. She's led the team in scoring 14 times and reached double-figures in 30 of 33 games. She's 28th among active NCAA players for career scoring with more than 1,800 points. She scored a career high 33 in the Summit semis, her second 30 piece of the season (30, Pitt). Other accolades this season include Summit Tournament MVP, all-Summit first team, all-defensive team, all-tournament team, CoSIDA Academic All-District and the midseason watch list for the Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year.

 Sjerven, the centerpiece of South Dakota's league-leading defense, garnered the Summit League Defensive Player of the Year accolade for the third-straight year. Her 6-foot-5 wingspan and ability to alter shots make her a force in the post. She's the South Dakota all-time blocks leader and leads the league in combined blocks and steals this season. She's a four-time all-tournament honoree and three-time all-Summit first team pick. She was a 2021 finalist for the Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year and was on the Naismith Trophy preseason watch list.

 Korngable, the queen of the pull-up, earned all-Summit second team honors for the second consecutive season. She became the 30th member of USD's 1,000-point club this season, with more than 70 percent of her career scoring in the last two of her five seasons. South Dakota's leading assistant the past two years, her 220 assists are the most by a Summit player in the span. She has a streak of 30-straight games with at least one assist.

 Basic. Simple. Fundamental. That's the style of basketball for Plitzuweit's squad. She runs a positionless motion offense with a major focus on player development.

 Second-year freshmen Maddie Krull and Kyah Watson complement the super seniors in the starting five. Krull sits third on the team in assists, dishing out a season-best five against Denver. She scored a season-high 16 points (6-9 FGs) at Creighton and a career-best 20 last February. Watson scored her career high 18 points in the home finale versus Oral Roberts with three back-to-back 3s in the game. She's second on the squad in rebounding, winning boards with the help of her 31" vertical jump. She pulled in 10 against Western Illinois for her second double-digit rebound game this year. She had a standout defensive performance in the Summit championship, holding 2021 Summit POY Myah Selland to 0-for-10 from the field.

 Grace Larkins was voted the Summit League Sixth Woman of the Year in her first collegiate season. She jumped to fourth on the team in scoring following a career-best 23 points in the Summit quarterfinals, going 9-for-18 in her first tournament appearance. She's averaging double-figures in the last 10 games, while shooting at a 48.7 percent clip. She's provided a spark off the bench on both ends of the floor. She likes to swipe away the ball and has two games with five steals this season.

 South Dakota's defense has been its calling card this season. USD is holding teams to 53.3 points per game, which ranks eighth nationally. It's the lowest since USD held teams to 52.7 in 2011-12. The Summit record of 52.0 was set in 2005-06 by Western Illinois.

 Plitzuweit's Coyotes are the first program in history to lead the Summit in scoring defense for five consecutive seasons. More than half of Coyote opponents haven't reached 60 points in Plitzuweit's tenure. USD boasts a 105-2 record when teams do not score 60 points and a 54-0 record when keeping them under 50.

 The Coyotes' competition has been scoring 14 points beneath their averages when facing USD. The Yotes held a pair of Missouri Valley teams to under 40 points in back-to-back contests. It marked the first time USD's held Division I opponents under 40 in back-to-back games. Against any opponent, it was just the second time since the 1976 season. USD's held five teams under 40 points in total after a 61-35 win over Omaha. USD's held seven of its last nine opponents under 50.

 Handle the rock. The Coyotes are second nationally for fewest turnovers and own the fourth-best turnover margin. USD leads the Summit in turnover margin, turnovers forced and fewest turnovers. The Coyotes are forcing 18.4 turnovers per game while committing just 10.9. Points off turnovers are nearly a 10-point advantage for USD. USD stole the ball a season-high 18 times against Western in the Summit quarterfinals, a number that is also a program record in Summit League Tournament games.

South Dakota is one of 37 teams with three 1,000-point scorers on the roster. This is the first season since 2016 that the Coyotes have had three active 1,000-point scorers on the floor.

From "coach on the floor" to future Coach Lamb. Chloe was selected to the WBCA's "So You Want To Be A Coach" program, where she will participate in a workshop at the NCAA Women's Final Four. She owns school records for total and consecutive games played (160).

Sjerven garnered the Summit's February Athlete of the Month after averaging a double-double. She's tallied five 20-point games in the last eight outings. She's one of five in program history to tally three or more 30-point games. Her career high 35 was against Wichita State. She had a 31-point, 21-rebound effort last year at Bradley.

With two 30-piece games each from Lamb and Sjerven this season, the Coyotes' four 30-point performances this season are the most in a single season at USD since 2004.

Korngable shot at a 53.8 percent clip in Summit action, which tied for fifth in the league. She has scored in double-digits in 15 of the last 16 games. She tied her season high of seven assists Friday, her 22nd game of 5+ assists.

Fourth-year senior Regan Sankey joins the 'super seniors' in this year's graduating class. She's joined by fellow fourth-year Allison Peplowski in taking on leadership roles this year, on and off the court. Peplowski's worked her way into the rotation with solid rebounding and defensive efforts. She had 14 solid minutes Friday with four points and four boards.

Jeniah Ugofsky and Macy Guebert both averaged 10 minutes per game in the Summit Tournament. Ugofsky rounded out the starting five last year and was third on the team in rebounds. She's a hustle player not afraid to take a charge or scrap for boards. Guebert is a 3-point shooter with a quick release.

USD has moved to 11th nationally for the team's assist-to-turnover ratio (1.29). USD had 19 assists on 29 field goals Friday.

Lamb has been a scoring threat since arriving in Vermillion in 2017. She knocked down 5-of-6 behind the arc in the against Kansas City in the Summit tourney for her sixth career game of five or more 3-pointers. She led the Summit in 3-point percentage for two years and ranks 28th in the nation for career 3-point percentage (.392).

8.	Chloe Lamb (2017-pres.).....	192

Sjerven became USD's all-time blocks leader earlier this season and she's now chasing the top-five in league history. The league-leader in blocked shots for two-straight years, she's second this season and ranks 10th among the NCAA's active career leaders (251). Her 28 career double-doubles are the second-most at USD since 2000, behind two-time NCAA Player of the Year Mandy Koupal (57).

COACHES / HEAD COACH DAWN PLITZUWEIT

Dawn Plitzuweit was named the 10th head coach in women's basketball program history on April 22, 2016. Plitzuweit (PLITTS-zoo-white) enters her sixth season at South Dakota in 2021-22.

The three-time Summit League Coach of the Year, Plitzuweit was named a semifinalist for the Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year in 2020. She led USD to its fourth-straight NCAA Tournament berth in 2022, marking the sixth postseason appearance in her six years on campus. Plitzuweit tops the Summit charts for overall winning percentage (.817) and in league games (.894). On Jan. 29, 2020, she became the fastest Summit League coach to reach 100 wins by eclipsing the milestone in just 124 games at USD. She boasts a 156-35 overall record at South Dakota for the best winning percentage in school history and ranks second in total wins.

On the national stage, Plitzuweit's Coyotes have made a name for themselves as a premier mid-major program. The 2019-20 Coyotes finished No. 17/11 in the final Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls. USD's No. 11 ranking is the highest ranking bestowed upon a Summit team. Throughout the last three seasons, USD has received votes in the AP Top 25 for 43 of 58 weeks and ranked in the top-10 of the mid-major poll each week.

South Dakota stamped its name all across the Summit's record book in Plitzuweit's tutelage. In Summit League history, only four teams have ever run the table during the regular season. Two of those were Plitzuweit's Coyotes - in 2018 and 2020. Her 2020 squad routed the league opponents by an average of 32 points per game, becoming the first and only program to go undefeated in the Summit regular season and win the Summit League Tournament. Other league records include the most consecutive overall wins (20, 2017-18), most consecutive league wins (24, 2019-21), most consecutive home league wins (31, 2017-present), highest overall winning percentage (.938, 2019-20) and fewest losses (2, 2019-20).

A 1995 graduate of Michigan Tech, Plitzuweit earned back-to-back GLIAC Player of the Year awards, four all-conference and three all-defensive team nods. She led the Huskies to a 99-22 record and four trips to the NCAA Tournament. Her coaching career began in 1995 at her alma mater under her collegiate coach Kevin Borseth. The pair teamed up for 11 seasons with stops at Michigan Tech, Green Bay and Michigan.

A native of West Bend, Wis., Plitzuweit and her husband, Jay, have a son, A.J., and a daughter, Lexi.
