LAST MEETING

- The Bears posted a thrilling 27-24 win over Texas Tech last year at McLane Stadium, clinching a berth in the Big 12 Championship Game and a perfect 7-0 season at home on the year.
- Baylor saw Texas Tech miss a 53-yard field goal against the wind that would’ve pushed the game to overtime, the first missed field goal of the year for Tech’s Jonathan Garibay, who two weeks earlier had drilled a 62-yarder on the final play of the game to beat Iowa State.
- The win clinched a 7-0 record at McLane for the Bears, their first unbeaten season at home since 2013, at Floyd Casey Stadium, and pushed Baylor into its second Big 12 Championship game in the last three years, a title BU would claim over Oklahoma State the following weekend.
- Baylor raced out to a 17-3 lead and a 17-10 lead at halftime, getting a 61-yard TD from Blake Shapen to Trestan Ebner and a four-yard TD run from Abram Smith. Shapen found Ben Sims from nine-yards out for a 27-17 lead with seven minutes left in the game but Tech narrowed the margin and set up the late dramatics with a 75-yard TD strike with 6:40 left.
- Shapen threw for 254 yards on 20 of 34 passes, while Smith rushed 30 times for 117 yards and a score. Ebner caught four balls for 118 yards. ## CHASING RUSH DEFENSE HISTORY

- The Bears opened the 2022 season holding each of their first four opponents, and five of their first seven, to under 100 rushing yards. It marked the longest streak of consecutive games holding foes to under 100 yards on the ground since 1953, when the Bears held opponents in games 2-6 (Miami, Arkansas, Vanderbilt, Texas A&M, TCU) to under 100 yards rushing.
- The season program standard for holding an opponent to 100 yards or fewer on the ground came in 1986, when the Bears held Wyoming, LA Tech, USC, Houston, Texas A&M, Rice and Texas to under 100 yards rushing. BU held six opponents to 100 yards or fewer on the ground during the historic 2021 season.
- A total of 11 opponents in the last two years haven't reached 100 yards rushing, the best two-season total in program annals.

BEARS FALL IN MORGANTOWN

- Baylor suffered the loss at West Virginia, 43-40, on Thursday, Oct. 13, as the Mountaineers rallied past the Bears to erase an electric offensive outing.
- The Bears rolled to 590 yards of total offense, including 421 through the air, but a key targeting penalty on an attempted slide from QB Blake Shapen led to a head injury for the signal caller and ended what was a historic outing for the sophomore. Shapen threw for 326 yards - including 294 in the first half - to lead the Bears to a 17-7 lead early and a 24-17 halftime lead despite a fumble recovery returned for a touchdown by WVU in the second quarter. Freshman QB Kyron Drones stepped up, throwing for 95 yards on 7 of 14 passing with a TD.
- The loss dampened the historic outing from senior WR Gavin Holmes, who caught seven balls for 210 yards and a score. He was the first Baylor player with a 200+ yard receiving game since KD Cannon in the 2016 Cactus Bowl.
- Richard Reese rushed for 57 yards on 13 carries, with Qualan Jones adding 44 yards and one TD on 10 totes. TE Drake Dabney had five catches for 66 yards.
- The WVU offense went for 500 yards of total offense, including 223 on the ground and 163 and two TDs from Tony Mathis.

BAYLOR IN BIG 12 OPENERS

- This was the fifth time Baylor has opened Big 12 Conference play with Iowa State, facing the Cyclones in 2022, 2019, 2014, 2001 and 2000, going 3-2 in those meetings.

18 STRAIGHT GAMES HOLDING OPPONENT UNDER 30

- Over the course of the 2021 through the start of 2022, Baylor’s defense put up a historic run, the likes of which haven’t been seen in 36 years, holding 18 consecutive opponents to 30 or fewer points.
- It was the longest such Baylor streak in the modern-era of college football and the longest since 1984-86. Only three times since 1964 has Baylor had a streak of 18 or more games holding an opponent to 30 or fewer points, also doing it in 1979-81, a 25-game stretch.
- The Bears were one of only three teams to hold each opponent of 2021 under 30 points, joining Clemson and Cincinnati. Last year, Baylor on average held opponents to 10.6 points per game below their averages in other games.

PERSON > PLAYER

- A hallmark of Coach Dave Aranda’s philosophy in building a program is placing an importance on understanding that the person is more important than the player. This mantra is executed in everything the program touches on a daily basis. Throughout the football building, signage adorns the walls that emphasize, “better people make better players” and that Baylor will “win with character”.
- Aranda preaches that players focus on today and be authentically themselves in an effort to be comfortable and confident in their roles.

NON-CONFERENCE WRAP

- Baylor wrapped up non-conference play with a 2-1 record and improved to 7-1 in non-league games under Coach Dave Aranda.
- Since the Big 12 went to a nine-game conference model in the regular season, the Bears have gone a combined 38-9 - including bowl games and league title games - in non-conference games, an 81 percent winning clip.
- Baylor averaged 43.7 points, 234.7 rushing yards, 219.7 passing yards and 454.3 yards of total offense in non-league play, holding opponents to 14.3 points, 84 rushing yards and 206 passing yards per game.

NO. 9/7 OKLAHOMA ST. RIDES HOT START TO 36-25 WIN

- No. 16/14 Baylor fell behind 23-3 early in the third quarter to No. 9/7 Oklahoma State and couldn't overcome the hole during a furious rally that saw BU cut the lead to a one-score game later in the quarter, falling 36-25 to the Cowboys in a rematch of the 2021 Big 12 Conference Championship Game.
- Baylor found itself down 23-3 after allowing a kickoff returned for a touchdown early in the third quarter but responded with 14 straight points to cut the lead to 23-17. OSU answered with a 50 yard kickoff return on the ensuing possession and took two plays to regain a 30-17 lead. The lead grew to 33-17 before Baylor got a 70-yard TD strike from Blake Shapen to Monaray Baldwin - their second TD connection of the game - with a two-point conversion cutting it to an eight-point game with 2:14 left in the third quarter.
- Baylor threw an interception on its own 33-yard line with 8:52 in the quarter and OSU finished an eight-play drive with a field goal for an 11-point lead it wouldn't relinquish.
- Shapen threw for a career-high 345 yards, with the two scores to Baldwin, who had a career-high seven catches for 174 yards. Richard Reese rushed 17 times for 85 yards and his NCAA-freshmen leading seventh TD of the year. Linebacker Dillon Doyle had a team-leading 10 tackles.
- Spencer Sanders threw for 181 yards for the Cowboys, also rushing 14 times for 75 yards. Dominic Richardson had 24 carries for 73 yards and a score. Jaden Nixon had the big blow of the game, a 98-yard kickoff return for a TD in the third quarter.

BAYLOR CLAIMS LEAGUE OPENER IN AMES

- Baylor rolled to a 31-24 win over Iowa State in Ames to open league play, owning a 31-14 lead in the fourth quarter and using an efficient offensive attack to secure the win.
- The Bears got 238 yards and three TDs passing from Blake Shapen, and 78 yards and a rushing TD from freshman Richard Reese to pull away from the Cyclones and earn the first Baylor win in Ames since 2016.
- The Baylor defense forced two interceptions and held ISU to just 66 yards rushing, totaling four sacks, including two from linebacker Bryson Jackson.
- Shapen found Ben Sims, Dillon Doyle and Gavin Holmes for TD strikes, with Holmes going for three catches and 92 yards. His 38-yard scoring grab pushed Baylor's lead to 31-14 with 9:37 left in the fourth quarter. The Cyclones cut the lead to 10 with a 75-play drive and added a field goal to set up an impactful on-side kick attempt in the closing seconds, which was grabbed by BU linebacker Matt Jones to clinch the win.

BEARS ROUT TEXAS STATE TO CONCLUDE NON-LEAGUE

- Baylor used a 42-7 rout of Texas State to conclude non-conference play, getting 501 yards of total offense, including 293 yards and five TDs on the ground, to post the convincing win.
- The Bears got an explosive game from freshman Richard Reese, who had career highs in carries (19), yards (156) and TDs (three) to help Baylor secure the win. BU owned a 14-0 lead before the Bobcats got on the board and then ripped off 28 unanswered points to extend the lead to 42-7 early in the fourth quarter, emptying the bench in a game that saw Baylor missing six listed starters due to injury.
- Blake Shapen threw for 184 yards and a TD and rushed for 42 yards, including a 35-yard TD scamper in the first half. Gavin Holmes grabbed his first TD catch since 2020 and Craig Williams added 56 yards and a score on the ground. Defensively, Al Walcott had nine tackles, two for a loss and a forced fumble, while AJ McCarty added seven tackles. Brooks Miller made five tackles, including a sack and 1.5 tackles for a loss.

NO. 21/25 BYU OUTLASTS BEARS IN 2OT THRILLER

- Baylor hit the road for its first test away from McLane Stadium and fell in a two-overtime thriller at No. 21/25 BYU 26-20, in front of 63,470 at a rocking LaVell Edwards Stadium.
- The Bears battled the Cougars in a matchup of two future Big 12 Conference foes in an electric atmosphere in Provo. BU took its first lead on a Qualan Jones' TD rush - his first of two on the night - but after a missed PAT, the Cougars used an eight-play, 75-yard drive to conclude the half with a 10-6 lead. BU answered with a second-half opening drive of 77 yards for a 13-10 lead, and the teams traded TDs in the third and fourth quarters to take a 20-20 game into the final seconds, where BYU kicker Jake Oldroyd missed a potential game-winning field goal.
- Both teams missed field goals - including the potential walk-off winner from Oldroyd - in the first OT period and BYU punched it in to open the second OT but missed the two-point conversion try. Baylor then used 11 plays in its game-tying or game-winning bid on its possession, with Blake Shapen's fourth-down throw sailing high to allow the Cougars to escape with the win.
- BYU threw for 283 yards and rushed for 83, while Baylor rushed for 152 yards and threw for 137 in the loss but was handcuffed by 14 penalties for 117 yards. Craig Williams totaled 68 yards rushing on 17 carries, Jones had 67 yards on 16 carries and Shapen threw for 137 yards and a score to Ben Sims.

BEARS ROLL OVER GREAT DANES IN LID-LIFTER

- Baylor opened the 2022 season in efficient fashion, routing UAlbany, 69-10, on Sept. 3 in front of a McLane Stadium crowd. The Bears got 214 yards and two TDs through the air, and one on the ground, from sophomore QB Blake Shapen - all in the first half - while rolling to the season-opening win.
- BU played 89 players in the win, with seven Bears making their first-career starts. Gavin Holmes returned from a missed 2021 season due to injury to return a punt 72 yards for a TD in the first half, Shapen found Monaray Baldwin and Hal Presley for TD passes, Baldwin scored on the ground from 50 yards away and Craig Williams scored from four yards out to help BU build an insurmountable lead.

GRIMES BRINGS RVO TO WACO

- Offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes - entering his second year at Baylor - has brought RVO to Waco - "Reliable Violent Offense" - an attacking, multiple-formation offense that runs a few plays a lot of ways with as much misdirection as any team in the country.
- Baylor's offense ended the year in 2021 ranked 10th in rushing offense (219.3 yards per game), 19th in fewest interceptions thrown (seven), 14th in fewest sacks allowed (1.29/game), 20th in time of possession (31:31) and 40th in scoring offense (31.6).
- The Bears increased their rushing output by 129 yards per game from 2020 (219.3 ypg, up from 90.3 ypg), without sacrificing the passing game (203.4 passing yards per game in 2021, 219.9 ypg in 2020).
- Grimes' 2020 BYU offense finished third nationally in scoring (43.5 ppg) and seventh in total offense (522.2 ypg).
- Joining Grimes in making the move from Provo to Waco in 2021 was offensive line coach Eric Mateos, who spent two seasons at BYU. Mateos' offensive line ranked eighth nationally in 2020 with 1.0 sacks allowed per game, and the Bears ranked 14th nationally with only 1.29 sacks allowed per game in 2021.

- As of Oct. 23, Baylor has won 94 games since 2011, tied for the second-most among the state of Texas' 12 FBS teams.
- BU's 94 wins in the last 10+ years trail only Texas A&M (95), and are tied with Houston (94), TCU (92), Texas (83), SMU (67), Texas Tech (67), UTSA (66), North Texas (63), Rice (53), UTEP (42) and Texas State (38).

FIRST 12-WIN SEASON IN SCHOOL HISTORY

- The Bears set a school record with a 12-2 season in 2021, topping the previous standard of 11 wins (11-2 in 2013, 11-2 in 2014, 11-3 in 2019).
- Baylor recorded its seventh 10-win season in program history. BU had one 10-win season in the program's first 109 years (10-2 in 1980) before reaching the 10-win mark in 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2019 and 2021.
- The Bears won the 2021 Sugar Bowl and appeared in a bowl for the 10th time in 12 seasons since snapping a 15-year streak without a bowl bid between the 1994 Alamo Bowl and the 2010 Texas Bowl.
- Baylor's 10 bowls in 12 years is unprecedented in program history. Baylor's first 10 bowl games were over a 33-year span (1948-1980) and its 10 most recent bowls prior to 2010 were over a 32-year span (1963-1994).

SHAPEN IS QB1

- Baylor sophomore Blake Shapen won the quarterback competition after a strong spring practice. The 2021 Big 12 Championship Most Outstanding Player, Shapen set a Big 12 Championship and AT&T Stadium (college games) record with 17-straight completions in the first half vs. Oklahoma State.
- Shapen played in six games with two starts in 2021 after a redshirt season in 2020, throwing for 596 yards and five TDs without an interception, completing 72.1 percent of his attempts.
- A native of Shreveport, La., Shapen came to Baylor as a two-sport athlete, and was on the baseball 2021 roster after coming out of high school as the No. 1-ranked high school shortstop prospect and the fourth-best HS prospect overall in Louisiana.
- He prepped at Evangel Christian Academy, where he was a four-star prospect according to ESPN and was ranked as the No. 22 QB nationally.

ANTHONY A RARE SEVENTH-YEAR SENIOR

- Baylor quarterback Luke Anthony is a rare seventh-year senior who will be entering his final season of collegiate eligibility. Anthony transferred to BU for 2022 after opening his career at Abilene Christian and Louisiana Tech. He was named the 2020 C-USA Newcomer of the Year while in Ruston, La., where he spent two seasons after playing the 2016-19 seasons at ACU, where he was a two-year captain and the 2018 Southland Conference Student-Athlete of the Year. He threw for 2,525 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2019.
- Anthony is one of 23 student-athletes around the nation who are in at least their seventh year as a collegiate player. He is one of four Big 12 Conference student-athletes who are in their seventh year, including Will Honas (Kansas State), Monte' McGary (Kansas) and Colby Reeder (Iowa State).

SIMS A WEAPON AT TIGHT END

- Senior tight end Ben Sims is one of the most accomplished pass catchers in Baylor's storied history. A 6-foot-5, 258-pound product of San Antonio's Clark High School, Sims ranks as the all-time leader in receiving touchdowns by a tight end with 11.
- Sims is a preseason first-team All-Big 12 selection by Athlon and Phil Steele after an honorable mention season in 2021 as voted on by the league's coaches and media. He started 13 of 14 games in 2021 and ranked fourth in receiving yards as a junior.

REPLACING OFFENSIVE SKILL POSITIONS

- A storyline in the preseason entering 2022 centers on how the Bears can replace skill position weapons on the offensive side. Baylor must replace its top three rushers from 2021, including Abram Smith, who totaled a school-record 1,621 yards on the ground with 12 TDs, and Trestan Ebner, who had 799 yards and two scores on 148 carries. BU also lost its top two receivers, Tyquan Thornton and R.J. Sneed, who combined for 108 catches, 1,521 yards and 12 TDs through the air a year ago.
- A talented cast of characters sits poised to step up in 2022 to replace productive offensive weapons. At running back, Taye McWilliams, Qualan Jones and Craig "Sqwirl" Williams are returning weapons, with freshman Richard Reese, and 2021 redshirt Jordan Jenkins in a position to fill the void.
- At wide receiver, Baylor benefits from the return of sixth-year senior Gavin Holmes, a native of Justin, Texas, who missed the 2021 - and 2018 - seasons due to injuries. Holmes has 46 career catches - including 33 in 2020 - as the most productive returning wide out on the 2022 roster.
- Sophomores Monary Baldwin and Hal Presley have each earned a top spot on the depth chart heading into the 2022 season. Baldwin had a highlight of the 2021 season, scampering for a 48-yard TD rush in the Sugar Bowl. Other potential pass catchers out wide features freshman Jordan Nabors, redshirt freshmen Javon Gipson and Josh Cameron.

McWILLIAMS EARNS TOP SPOT ON DEPTH CHART

- Junior running back Taye McWilliams ranked fourth on the team in net rushing yards a year ago, while working daily in a running-back room that was stacked with talents.
- With the departure of Abram Smith - who set the program record with 1,621 rushing yards in 2021 - and Trestan Ebner, McWilliams is poised to lead a group that boasts several talented options.
- McWilliams, a native of Richmond, Texas, rushed 17 times for 181 yards a year ago, good for a 10.6 yard average, with two TDs and a long of 44.

VETERAN PRESENCE

- A stalwart for the Baylor defense is senior linebacker Dylan Doyle. A 6-foot-3, 240-pound product of Iowa City, Iowa, Doyle has been a leader in the middle of the Bears-defense since transferring from Iowa for the 2020 season. Doyle ranked 20th in the Big 12 in tackles per game as a sophomore before starring in 2021 for a stout defensive unit that ranked among the tops in the nation.
- Doyle started all 14 games in 2021 and had 91 tackles, including 8.5 tackles for a loss. He was a second-team All-Texas Linebacker by Dave Campbell's Texas Football and led the team in tackles in five outings.
- Doyle has done more than just lead the defense over his first two seasons, also starring against BYU with a rushing and receiving TD, adding a sack and four tackles, as the Bears bested the Cougars.
- He will be charged with taking on an enhanced leadership role in 2022 after the Bears lost standout defenders in safety Jalen Pitre and linebacker Terrel Bernard to NFL Draft selections in the first three rounds.

MATT JONES SHIFTS INSIDE

- With the departure of standout linebacker Terrel Bernard to the NFL, the Bears have shifted versatile junior Matt Jones to the inside linebacker role. Regarded as one of Baylor's best 11 defensive players a year ago, coordinator Ron Roberts found a role for Jones, primarily at outside linebacker - known in the BU system as the "JACK" - in an effort to get Jones on the field.
- As a fourth-year player who has played in 27 career games, Jones' shift to the inside backer comes after he had 52 tackles, including 7.5 tackles for a loss, starting nine games. He starred in a game at Oklahoma State in 2021, going for 14 tackles with a forced fumble.
- Jones, a 6-foot-3, 224-pound native of Odessa, Texas, enters the season as a first-team preseason All-Big 12 honoree by Phil Steele.
- The inside linebacker role is vitally important in Coach Dave Aranda and defensive coordinator Ron Roberts' system, and the return of Jones and Dillon Doyle give the Bears the opportunity to lean on experienced players at the middle level of the defense and frees up the staff to run its impactful multiple-scheme format.

JACKSON HELPS LEAD A STACKED LINEBACKER ROOM

- In addition to standouts Dillon Doyle and Matt Jones, the linebacker room is also led by sixth-year senior Bryson Jackson. A 6-foot-2, 204 pounder out of Mansfield, Texas, Jackson has played in 42 career games with the Bears, owning 8.5 TFLs. He played in all 14 games in 2021, after serving as a special-teams weapon in 2019 and 2020.
- Jackson came to Baylor after earning all-district honors at Lake Ridge HS in Mansfield. He redshirted the 2017 season and did not see action until playing in 13 of 14 games as a sophomore in 2019.

WALCOTT TO STAR

- One defensive backfield position shift in fall camp has been the transition of senior Al Walcott to the "STAR" position. In Coach Dave Aranda and defensive coordinator Ron Roberts' scheme, Walcott will have the opportunity to play the hybrid position that saw Jalen Pitre excel and earn Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2021.
- A preseason All-Big 12 fourth-team selection by Athlon, Walcott - a 6-foot-2, 219-pounder - played corner for his first three years on the Brazos, including making eight starts in 2021. He had 30 tackles as a junior, and his 96-yard interception return for a TD in the 2021 Sugar Bowl was the second-longest in program history.
- Walcott, a native of Wilmington, N.C., joined the Bears after playing in 2019 at Butler [Kan.] Community College, where he helped the squad to a 10-3 record with a 70-tackle and three-interception season.

MILTON, MORGAN TO ANCHOR DB GROUP

- Baylor returns several key contributors from its 2021 defensive unit, including fifth-year seniors in cornerback Mark Milton and safety Christian Morgan.
- The two defensive stalwarts will be expected to help lead a defensive unit that must replace Jalen Pitre and Terrel Bernard, who have graduated on to the NFL.
- Milton, nicknamed “MJ,” has played in 42 games, including all 14 in 2021 with a pair of starts. He ranked 12th on the team in tackles while adding a pair of pass break-ups and a fumble recovery.
- Morgan has played in 46 games in his career with 21 starts and enters the season as a preseason All-Big 12 Third-Team selection by Phil Steele and a fourth-team honoree by Athlon.
- A native of Houston, Morgan played in 12 games with 10 starts as a senior in 2021, pacing the team with six pass break-ups. He had three interceptions in 2020, starting all eight games he saw action.

SPECIAL SPECIALISTS

- Baylor boasts a strong special teams contingent, including returning starters at placekicker (Isaiah Hankins), kickoff specialist (Noah Rauschenberg) and punter (Issac Power). The Bears are deep at kicker, as Hankins returns after going 14 of 20 in field-goal attempts in 2021, while also drilling 57 of 57 PATs.
- Rauschenberg excelled in the kickoff-specialist role a year ago, booting 72 of his 81 kickoffs for a touchback. A total of 18 of his 33 kickoffs in 2020 went for a touchback and 34 of his 56 kickoffs in 2019 were a touchback.
- Power established himself as one of the top punters in college football in 2021. He had a 44.98 per punt average with 20 downed inside the 20-yard line and 20 going for 50 or more yards. Power averaged 40.35 yards per punt in 2020 with 11 inside the 20 and seven going for 50+. In 2019, Power had a 40.33 average with 23 inside the 20 and 10 going for 50+.
- Power, a member of the preseason Ray Guy Award Watch List, ranks seventh in Baylor history in punts and punting yards, ninth in punting average and sixth in punts of at least 50 yards.
- BU also returns John Mayers, who has made 30 of 38 field goals over his four-year career, owning the top field-goal percentage (78.9) in Baylor history. Mayers has also made 97 of his 99 career PATs. Mayers was 10 of 15 in 2020, hitting all seven of his attempts inside 40 yards, and was 16 of 19 in 2019, connecting on a long of 51 and 14 of 17 from inside 40 yards.

BAYLOR TIED FOR FOURTH IN NATION IN GRADUATES

- Baylor ranks tied for fourth in the nation with 22 players having already earned their undergraduate degrees. Only Nebraska (26), Liberty (23) and Rice (23) had more graduates in 2022 than the Bears, who ranked tied with six other schools for fourth.
- The list of BU graduates includes Luke Anthony, Jacoby Clarke, Dillon Doyle, Jacob Gall, Connor Galvin, BJ Hanspard, Gavin Holmes, Bryson Jackson, Mose Jeffery, Khalil Keith, Cole Maxwell, John Mayers, Grant Miller, Mark Milton, Christian Morgan, Chidi Ogbonnaya, Jaxon Player, Issac Power, Corbin Robertson, Ben Sims, Brayden Utley and Craig Williams.

HONORING MR. DAVE

- Dave Campbell, a pioneer in sports journalism whose passion for coverage of football at all levels reverberates throughout Texas, passed away last December at the age of 96 at his home in Waco. He founded his iconic magazine in 1960 and served as the editor-in-chief for the remainder of his life. After retiring from the Tribune-Herald in 1993, Campbell took a position with the Baylor Bear Foundation and was editor of Dave Campbell’s Baylor Bear Insider for the next 15 years. He was inducted into the Baylor Athletics Hall of Fame in 2004.
- Baylor is proud to honor Campbell throughout the 2022 season, along with his legendary impact on our community, by reserving his seat in the McLane Stadium Press Box.

- BU has won nine conference titles, including in 2021, with three Big 12 Championships and six Southwest Conference Championships.

LAST MEETING: 9/10/8 BAYLOR 27, TEXAS TECH 24

MCLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

NOV. 27, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 43,901

Baylor finished unbeaten at home for the third time in the last eight seasons after holding off Texas Tech in a 27-24 thriller Saturday at McLane Stadium.

BU took the opening kickoff and marched 75 yards in three plays, highlighted by Blake Shapen's 61-yard touchdown pass to Trestan Ebner, making it 7-0 in favor of the Bears.

On Tech's ensuing drive, the Baylor defense added to its streak of 20-consecutive games with a turnover after Jairon McVea jarred the ball loose from Red Raider running back SaRodoric Thompson. Six plays and 32-yards later, freshman kicker Isaiah Hankins pushed the lead to 10-0 on a 28 yard field goal.

After Texas Tech scored its first points of the game to make it 10-3 Bears, the two defenses traded blows until Abram Smith stretched the Bears' lead to 17-3 on a four-yard touchdown run with 5:01 to play in the half.

The Red Raiders found the end zone with just over a minute to play in the half when Tahj Brooks plunged his way in from one yard out. Baylor led 17-10 at the half.

The BU defense forced a three-and-out to begin the third quarter but the offense could not capitalize when Hankins' 41-yard field goal missed wide left. Both teams were held scoreless in the third quarter, keeping the Red Raiders within a score.

Baylor's lead bounced back to 10 on the foot of Hankins, who connected from 27-yards out to make it 20-10 on the heels of a 16-play drive that took 6:27 off the clock.

Tech responded with a quick five-play drive that ended with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Donovan Wilson to McLane Mannix to pull Tech back within three at 20-17.

Shapen and the Bears mounted a response with a 10-play drive that ended with Ben Sims catching his eighth-career touchdown, the most by a tight end in school history, and Baylor was back in front by 10, 27-17.

After Texas Tech threw a touchdown to tight end Travis Koontz to make it 27-24, the Bears took 5:17 off the clock on a 13-play drive. Facing fourth and three at the Texas Tech 12-yard line, Baylor went for it only to have Shapen's pass broken up and give Texas Tech a chance, trailing 27-24 with 1:18 to play in the game.

Tech took nine plays to get the ball to the Baylor 35 yard line. From there, Jonathan Garibay had a 53-yard field goal that missed wide left to seal the win for the Bears and clinch their sixth 10-win season in the last 11 years, 27-24.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor finished the regular season with a 7-0 home record for the first time since 2013.
- BU has notched 10 wins for the sixth time in the last 11 seasons. It's also the seventh 10-win season in program history.

McLANE STADIUM

- McLane Stadium has served as the home of Baylor football since the 2014 season, when the Bears moved over from historic Floyd Casey Stadium, their home for the previous 64 seasons.
- The Bears own a 36-16 record at McLane Stadium and a 379-237-27 record overall at home over a span of 116 seasons.
- The season attendance record was set in 2014, the debut of McLane Stadium, when an average of 46,710 attended each game, with a total of 280,257. A total of 318,621 attended seven games during the 2019 season.
- The single-game record for attendance came in 2015, a matchup with Oklahoma that saw 49,875 attend at McLane Stadium.
- Under Coach Dave Aranda, the Bears own a 12-3 record at McLane Stadium.
- The stadium was built on a 93-acre site that includes 2,150 on-site parking spaces, 334 tailgating spots with 256 set for power and cable, 18 boat slips for Sailgating on the Brazos River and the Umphrey Pedestrian Bridge, connecting the stadium to Baylor’s picturesque campus.

- The stadium seats 45,140 and includes six founder’s suites, 36 suites, 79 loge boxes, club seating for 1,200, 200 concession points of sale and five retail stores.
- The Baylor locker room is 50 yards long and 17 yards wide.

STADIUM HISTORIES

- The 2013 season was Baylor’s 64th and final year of football at the 50,000-seat Floyd Casey Stadium. BU closed its run at the facility by winning its first Big 12 championship with a 30-10 victory over No. 23 Texas in the final game of the regular season.
- Originally named Baylor Stadium, the structure was built in 1950 after a bond sales program raised $1.5 million for construction costs. The first game played in the new stadium was Sept. 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over Houston.
- In 1989, the stadium was renamed Floyd Casey Stadium after longtime University supporter and trustee Carl B. Casey and his wife Thelma contributed $5 million of an $8 million renovation project in honor of his father, Floyd (the name change was officially announced at halftime of the 1988 Homecoming game).

- Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were used by the Bears. Baylor’s first football squad took the field in 1899, but no records are available to prove where it played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.
- From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility (an unknown number of games were also played at the old Cotton Palace during this period).
- The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35. The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home.
- Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where Baylor played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.

10/10 BAYLOR 69, UALBANY 10

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 3, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 41,242

Eight Bears scored touchdowns as No. 10 Baylor routed UAlbany, 69-10, to open the 2022 season.

Blake Shapen threw for 214 yards on 17-of-20 passing and scored three total touchdowns, commanding the offense to 42 points in the first 34 minutes of play. The Bears rolled up 573 yards of total offense, held the Great Danes to less than 100 yards in the second half and used 89 total players in the victory.

Baylor wasted no time in taking control early, as Shapen found Monaray Baldwin on a 47-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring. After Bryson Jackson recovered his own forced fumble on the Danes' 29-yard line, Craig "Squirrel" Williams took a pitch around the left end for a four-yard score to extend the lead to 14-0.

BU's special teams got in on the act next, as Gavin Holmes returned a punt 72 yards to the house. Shapen and the offense answered UAlbany's only first-half points with a 38-yard strike to Hal Presley before the redshirt sophomore scored on a one-yard rollout as time expired in the first half.

In the second half, Baylor used a four-back rotation of Williams, Taye McWilliams, Qualan Jones and Richard Reese to pile up more than 250 yards rushing. Reese led the way with 62 yards on just nine carries and scored on a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns.

Baldwin, who finished with 130 yards on just six touches, capped off another scoring drive with a 50-yard end-around in the third quarter. Then, Kyron Drones entered and completed 5-of-7 passes for 100 yards, leading the Bears to their final four TDs of the night. He scored on a nine-yard keeper, then Jones felled up the two Reese scores with a 27-yarder of his own to put the exclamation point on the contest.

POSTGAME NOTES

- BU is now 81-36-4 all-time in season openers. The Bears have won 13 of their last 14 season openers.
- This was the Bears' most points in a season-opening game since beating Wofford, 69-3, on Aug. 31, 2013.
- Baylor rushed for seven TDs in the win, its most since playing Kansas in 2019, and one shy of the program record set in 1969 vs. LSU.
- Gavin Holmes' punt return for a TD was BU's first since Grayland Arnold had a 73-yd return vs. UTSA in 2019.
- Monaray Baldwin became the first Bear to score a rushing and receiving TD in the same game since Dillon Doyle did so vs. BYU in 2021.
- Kyron Drones, Hal Presley and Richard Reese each scored their first-career touchdowns.

21/25 BYU 26, 9/8 BAYLOR 20 (20T)

LaVELL EDWARDS STADIUM • PROVO, UTAH

SEPT. 10, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 63,470

After kicker Jake Oldroyd missed two field goals that would have won it, No. 21 BYU pulled out a 26-20 double-overtime win over No. 9 Baylor in front of a sellout crowd at LaVell Edwards Stadium in Provo, Utah.

The Bears (1-1) missed a 43-yard field goal in the first overtime period and then failed to score in the second OT after Lopini Katooa gave BYU (2-0) the lead with a three-yard TD run.

With a chance to win it, Baylor picked up two first downs in the second overtime period and had a first-and-goal at the 5, but two false start penalties pushed the Bears back to the 12 and quarterback Blake Shapen threw high on a fourth-down pass to Seth Jones in the back of the end zone on the final play.

Shut down for most of the first half, the Bears got on the scoreboard with 1:37 left when Qualan Jones capped off a 13-play, 68-yard drive with a one-yard TD run. However, Isaiah Hankins' extra point try glanced off the right upright, leaving the score at 6-3. The Cougars answered with an eight-play, 75-yard drive and went back on top following a 20-yard TD pass with just two seconds remaining in the first half.

Scoring on its second-straight drive, Baylor went back on top early in the second half, 13-10, on Jones' second touchdown run of the night, this one from seven yards out. BYU tied it on a 39-yard field goal by Oldroyd and then used a little trickery to take a 20-13 lead late in the third quarter, as quarterback Jaren Hall caught a 22-yard pass from wide receiver Chase Roberts.

Baylor answered again, driving 79 yards on 12 plays and tying it up with a four-yard TD pass to tight end Ben Sims. The Bears had a chance to go up with another trip in at BYU territory, but Craig "Squirrel" Williams was stuffed on a third-and-five from the Cougars' 46 with 2:15 remaining.

BYU had a chance to win it in regulation after getting the ball back, but Oldroyd missed a 35-yarder which sent the contest to OT. Both sides missed FG's in the first overtime period before the Cougars held off Baylor's second OT drive.

POSTGAME NOTES

- This was Baylor's first overtime game since 2020 at West Virginia, also a two-overtime contest.
- Qualan Jones rushed 16 times for 67 yards and two TDs. He now has a career-high three rushing TDs in 2022, and five in his career.
- Matt Jones led the team with eight tackles, including a sack, TFL and a pass break-up.
- Devin Neal finished with eight tackles, including his first-career sack, and two tackles for loss.
- Ben Sims had four receptions for 30 yards and a touchdown, his first of the year and 10th of his career.
- Issac Power punted six times for a 42.7 yard average. Four of his six kicks were downed inside the 20-yard line.

17/19 BAYLOR 42, TEXAS STATE 7

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
SEPT. 17, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,597

Behind the explosive running of freshman Richard Reese, Baylor scored 28 unanswered points and blew out Texas State, 42-7, before a Family Day crowd of 45,597 Saturday at McLane Stadium.

Recording the Bears' first 100-yard rushing day of the season, Reese went for 156 yards on 19 carries (8.2-yard average) and scored on runs of 14, 52 and five yards to break the game open. BU wrapped up non-conference play with its ninth-straight win over the Bobcats and rolled up 501 total yards, including 293 on the ground.

To get the scoring started, Blake Shapen led a methodical 13-play, 75-yard opening drive and Reese sliced up the middle of the defense for the early 7-0 lead. After the Bears' defense turned the Bobcats away with a fourth-down stop from the BU 31, they strung together another good drive that was capped off by Craig "Sqwirl" Williams' 30-yard TD run which extended the lead to 14-0.

Overcoming the first interception of his collegiate career, Shapen completed 15-of-26 passes for 184 yards and a touchdown and also scored on a 35-yard run at the end of the first half to give Baylor a 21-7 lead. Texas State had gotten on the board with a 12-yard TD pass from Layne Hatcher to Ashtyn Hawkins, who caught 13 passes for 114 yards.

In the second half, Shapen hit Gavin Holmes for a 28-yard touchdown pass and the Bears never looked back. Reese caught a 17-yard pass, then scored from 52 yards in the next drive, and capped the game's tallies with a five-yard scamper with 12:19 remaining.

Baylor's defense held Texas State to three turnovers on downs, and also blocked a third-quarter field goal attempt. Chidi Ogbonnaya's swat was BU's first since TJ Franklin did so last season at TCU.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor extended its all-time series lead to 9-0 over Texas State.
- A 6:25 scoring drive to open the game was BU's longest of the 2022 season thus far.
- A 96-yard scoring drive was the longest since a 17-play, 96-yard drive at Oklahoma in 2020.
- A total of 11 different players caught passes, the most in the Aranda era and most since 2015 at Kansas.
- Chidi Ogbonnaya blocked a third-quarter field goal, marking Baylor's first blocked FG since TJ Franklin swatted one at TCU in 2021.
- Richard Reese set career highs in carries (19), yards (156) and TDs (three). It was Baylor's first three-TD rushing performance since Abram Smith vs. BYU in 2021.
- Al Walcott had a team-leading nine tackles, two for a loss, and a forced fumble, the first of his career.
- Blake Shapen's 35-yard TD run was the longest by a Baylor QB since a 50-yarder from Seth Russell at Texas in 2016.
- Brooks Miller recorded a career-high five tackles, including 1.5 for a loss and his first sack.

17/17 BAYLOR 31, IOWA STATE 24

JACK TRICE STADIUM • AMES, IOWA
SEPT. 24, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 58,069

Blake Shapen completed 19-of-26 passes for 238 yards and three touchdowns to lead 17th-ranked Baylor to a 31-24 win over Iowa State in its Big 12 opener at a packed Jack Trice Stadium in Ames, Iowa.

Already up by double digits, the Bears (3-1, 1-0) threw what looked to be the knockout punch with 9:37 left in the fourth quarter when Shapen connected with a wide-open Gavin Holmes for a 38-yard touchdown pass on a flea flicker. But, the Cyclones (3-1, 0-1) made things interesting after scoring 10 unanswered points on two late scoring drives before Baylor's Matt Jones recovered an onside kick with 55 seconds left to snuff out the comeback bid.

Converting twice on fourth down, the Bears marched 77 yards on 12 plays in their opening drive and scored on Shapen's 12-yard TD pass to Ben Sims to take an early 7-0 lead. ISU answered with a 12-play drive of its own to knot the tally at 7-7, but Baylor showed no signs of slowing down as Shapen connected with Hal Presley on a 40-yard strike to set up an eventual 24-yard FG from John Mayers to go ahead, 10-7.

Shapen found Holmes over the middle for a 36-yard gain on the first of a nine-play, 70-yard scoring drive. On third-and-goal from the 1, Shapen lofted a pass to linebacker Dillon Doyle for the Iowa City native's third-career offensive touchdown and first of the 2022 season, making it 17-7.

After exchanging three-and-outs, Iowa State responded with an eight-play, 63-yard drive to close within three, 17-14, in the final minutes of the first half. But, on the second play of the third quarter, Devin Neal snagged a tip-drill interception, Baylor's first of the year, to set the tone for the second half. It was Baylor's first of two second-half interceptions, in addition to a forced fumble at the goal line that was eventually overturned as ISU recovered in the end zone for a TD.

Richard Reese sprinted for a 19-yard touchdown to push BU's lead back to double digits at 24-14 with 6:05 left in the third, then the apparent knockout blow came as Holmes hauled in the flea flicker with no defenders within 20 yards of him in the end zone.

Iowa State's scoring drives of 75 and 71 yards pulled the Cyclones within a touchdown, but the clock ran out on the Cyclones as Baylor grabbed its first conference victory of the year. Reese led the Bears with 78 yards on 11 carries, while BU shut down the Iowa State run game with just 66 yards.

9/7 OKLAHOMA STATE 36, 16/14 BAYLOR 25

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
OCT. 1, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 47,979

Baylor quarterback Blake Shapen threw for a career-high 345 yards and a pair of touchdowns, but ninth-ranked Oklahoma State picked off a pair of fourth-down passes and held on for a 36-25 win over the No. 16 Bears.

Spencer Sanders threw for one touchdown, ran for another and came up with a big fumble recovery late in the game to help the Cowboys (4-0, 1-0) avenge last year's 21-16 loss to Baylor (3-2, 1-1) in the Big 12 Championship game.

After a John Mayers field goal on the opening drive, OSU scored 16 unanswered points on Sanders' eight-yard TD pass to Bryson Green and a one-yard keeper by Sanders, sandwiched around a safety when the Cowboys tackled Richard Reese in the end zone.

OSU then opened the second half with a 98-yard kickoff return by Jaden Nixon that pushed the lead to 23-3.

That's when Baylor snapped into gear, as Shapen found Monaray Baldwin on a 49-yard TD pass. Then, after a pick by Christian Morgan, the Bears capitalized with a one-yard TD run by Reese to make it a one-score game, 23-17.

Another big OSU kick return set up a one-yard TD run by Dominic Richardson. The Cowboys added a chip-shot field goal after a fourth-down stop in BU territory to extend the lead to 33-17.

Going for it again on fourth down, Shapen hooked up with Baldwin once more for a 70-yarder, then hit Gavin Holmes on a two-point conversion to make it 33-25 with 2:14 left in the third quarter.

After Shapen's first interception of the game and just the second of his career, the Cowboys added another short field goal. The OSU defense came up with the clincher on the next series when Jason Taylor picked off a Shapen pass.

POSTGAME NOTES

- For the first time in a 19-game span, an opponent scored more than 30 points against Baylor, dating back to the 2020 season finale.

- Monaray Baldwin caught a career-high seven balls for 174 yards and two TDs.

WEST VIRGINIA 43, RV/23 BAYLOR 40

MILAN PUSKAR STADIUM • MORGANTOWN, W.VA.
OCT. 13, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,293

Using a 65-yard fumble return and a blocked extra point return, West Virginia rallied from a 10-point, first-half deficit to defeat the 23rd ranked Baylor Bears, 43-40, Thursday night in a wild game at Milan Puskar Stadium.

After quarterback Blake Shapen left the game with 6:30 remaining in the third quarter following a targeting hit by Andrew Wilson-Lamp, redshirt freshman Kyron Drones led a pair of scoring drives that gave the Bears (3-3, 1-2) a 37-31 lead. But, John Mayers' extra point attempt was blocked by Dante Stills and returned for a two-point play that proved critical.

Baylor lost its third turnover of the game on a Drones interception with the Bears in position to go back on top. Then, Dillon Doyle took it right back with an interception at the WVU 25. Mayers booted a 44-yard field goal to tie it at 40-40, but the Mountaineers drove 61 yards in six plays and won it on Casey Legg's 22-yard chip shot with 33 seconds left in regulation.

In a wild first half, Shapen threw for 294 yards and led the Bears to 24 points and 358 yards of total offense. But, Baylor only had a 24-17 lead to show for it, thanks in part to Jasir Cox's 65-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the second quarter.

It took BU just five plays to answer, as Shapen connected with Craig "Squirrel" Williams for a short screen pass that turned into a 39-yard touchdown and a 24-17 halftime lead.

WVU struck first with a seven-yard TD run by Tony Mathis, but Shapen threw for 52 yards on a time-consuming 14-play, 71-yard drive that led to a 40-yard field goal by Mayers to trim the deficit to 7-3. After the defense came up with back-to-back stops, Shapen hooked up with Gavin Holmes on a 56-yard pass that preceded a one-yard TD run by tight end Ben Sims. Holmes later hauled in a quick slant and took it 35 yards to the house for a 17-7 Baylor lead.

POSTGAME NOTES

- West Virginia has won all six meetings over Baylor in Morgantown.
- Baylor totaled a season-high 590 yards of total offense, including a season-best 421 passing yards.
- Blake Shapen threw for 326 yards, the second-most of his career and second-consecutive 300+ yard passing game.
- Gavin Holmes had a career game, with new personal-bests in catches (seven), yards (210) and a touchdown.
- Holmes became the first BU player with 200+ receiving yards since KD Cannon went for 226 in the 2016 Cactus Bowl.
- Kyron Drones threw his first-career TD pass on 7-of-14 passing for 95 yards.
- Drake Dabney caught a career-high five balls for a career-best 66 yards.
- Dillon Doyle had his second-straight 10-tackle game, leading the team with 10 stops and hauling in his second-career interception.
- Devin Lemear had a career-high seven tackles.

BAYLOR 35, KANSAS 23

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

OCT. 22, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,882

Freshman running back Richard Reese ran for a career-high 186 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries to help Baylor defeat Kansas, 35-23, on a Homecoming Saturday afternoon at McLane Stadium.

After KU (5-3, 2-3) scored 20 unanswered points in the second half, Reese gained all but one yard on a seven-play, 69-yard scoring drive and punched one in from two yards out to stem the tide and help Baylor (4-3, 2-2) win its 13th-straight against the Jayhawks.

In a dominant first half that saw the Bears outgain the Jayhawks, 250-85, BU took a 28-3 lead into the locker room. Blake Shapen connected with Monaray Baldwin for a 17-yard TD pass to open the scoring. Reese scored his first touchdown of the day on a 14-yard scamper before the Jayhawks got on the board with a 30-yard field goal. Then, Kyron Drones came in for two plays in a specialty goalline package to cap a 16-play, 73-yard drive with a four-yard keeper that stretched the lead to 21-3.

Pinned back to their one-yard line on a punt, Baylor responded with a 15-play, 99-yard drive and made it 28-3 following a 10-yard end-around TD by freshman Jordan Nabors. The Bears almost cashed in for more after they got the ball back on a forced fumble by Devin Neal and return by Devin Lemear, but Ben Sims dropped a would-be touchdown in the end zone and Shapen was picked off on the very next play.

A strip-sack snuffed out Baylor's impressive start to the second half, as KU returned a Shapen fumble to the 9 which led to a two-yard touchdown run. Kansas continued to make things interesting in the fourth quarter as Jason Bean connected with Quentin Skinner on a 24-yard TD pass and finished off a 93-yard drive with a four-yard run after the Jayhawks' defense stopped Baylor on a fourth-and-one play.

With the lead cut to five, Baylor answered with Reese's ground attack and iced the game on the freshman's ninth rushing TD of the season with 2:37 left to play.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor leads the all-time series with Kansas, 18-4, including an 11-0 mark in games played in Waco.
- BU set a program record for time of possession at 40:10.
- Freshman Richard Reese set career highs in carries (31) and rushing yards (186).
- Reese's 31 carries are the most by a Bear since Terrance Ganaway ran it 42 times vs. Texas Tech in 2011.
- Freshman Jordan Nabors found the end zone for the first time in his career on a 10-yard run.
- Al Walcott recorded his first sack of the season and third of his career.
- Chidi Ogbonnaya played in his 53rd career game, tying Raleigh Texada for fourth in program history.
