STORY LINES

- Baylor heads into the regular-season finale looking to secure its 11th seven-win season in the last 13 years.
- The Bears are fresh off a 29-28 loss on the final play of the game vs. No. 4 TCU, which used a game-ending field goal as time expired to keep the Bears from the upset. The Bears totaled their fourth game with 500+ yards of total offense and went for 232 yards on the ground vs. the Frogs.
- BU is under the direction of third-year head coach Dave Aranda, the 2021 George Munger and Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year. Aranda took over prior to the 2020 season after a historic run for four years as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator at LSU, helping the Tigers to the 2019 National Championship and 2019 Southeastern Conference Championship.
- Baylor is looking for its second-consecutive win over Texas, besting the Longhorns in 2021, 31-24 in Waco.
- Running back Richard Reese is in the midst of a historic 2022 season and ranks second among NCAA freshman in rushing TDs (14) and rushing yards (908). He broke the program record for rushing yards by a freshman with a 56-yard game vs. TCU.
- The Bears could win their fourth road game of the year in Big 12 play and would equal the program record for road league wins, also done in 2019 (4-0), 1991 (4-0) and 1980 (4-0).
- Aranda is off to the best 34-game start to a Baylor coaching career since George Sauer won 22 games from 1950-52. Aranda has led the Bears to a 20-14 record to open his career.
- Senior TE Ben Sims is the all-time leader in TD grabs (11) among Baylor tight ends.
- Baylor returns the second-most games played among its four returning starting offensive linemen in the nation. The Bears are led on the front five by preseason All-America selections in Connor Galvin and Jacob Gall.
- Defensive lineman Siaki Ika is a preseason All-American by five outlets, including Athlon Sports, Phil Steele, Associated Press, Pro Football Network and Pick Six Preview. Ika was the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year in 2021.
- Baylor leads the nation in wins among its football, and men's and women's basketball programs since 2011.

LAST MEETING

- In the meeting last year in Waco, the No. 16 Bears posted a 31-24 win over Texas, bouncing back from a 24-14 loss at Oklahoma State. BU moved to 7-1 with the win over Texas, using 21 unanswered points after falling behind by double digits in the second half. It marked the third-straight double-digit lead blown by the Horns, who lost their third-consecutive game after falling vs. Oklahoma and Oklahoma State before an idle week that led to the Bears game.
- Trailing 21-10 midway through the third quarter, the Bears went on three-straight TD drives, including a six-yard rush from Gerry Bohanon, a one-yard run from Ben Sims for a score and an Abram Smith 32-yard scamper for a TD to take a 31-21 lead with 7:59 left. Texas kicker Cameron Dicker cut the lead to 31-24 with a field goal after a 66-yard drive and the Horns got the ball back at their own 32 with 2:07 left on the clock, trailing by seven. The BU defense forced four-consecutive incompletions from Casey Thompson to regain the ball and end the game with the win.
- Bohanon threw for 190 yards and rushed for 27, while Abram Smith outgained the Big 12 rushing leader, Bijan Robinson, who averaged 2.5 yards per carry with 43 yards over 17 totes. Smith had 145 yards on 21 carries, while Trestan Ebner had 12 carries for 66 yards. R.J. Sneed had eight catches for 94 yards and a score for BU, while Texas was led in the air by Xavier Worthy's four grabs for 115 yards. Thompson threw for 280 yards with two scores and a pick for the Horns.

- BU is 59-194-6 against ranked foes all-time and is 0-4 in 2022.
- Last year, Baylor went 5-1 against ranked teams, including wins in four-straight chances, and three straight against top-eight foes.

- The Wildcats scored the first 17 points of the game and held complete control of the contest following an interception on Baylor's first drive of the game. Baylor cut the lead to 17-3 with a field goal from John Mayers to end the first half but couldn't muster anything the remaining 30 minutes as the Wildcats scored TDs in each quarter for a 28-point win.
- Kansas State held the football for 37:37 in the game and had the ball for over 11 minutes in the first and fourth quarters. The Wildcats rolled to 184 yards on the ground and threw for 221 yards as backup QB Will Howard replaced Adrian Martinez in the first quarter and threw for 196 yards and three TDs. Deuce Vaughn had 25 carries for 106 yards and added eight grabs for 50 yards and a TD.
- Baylor freshman Richard Reese led the offense with nine carries for 54 yards, with Blake Shapen throwing for 203 yards. Monaray Baldwin set a new career high with eight grabs, while Josh Cameron had career highs in catches (six) and yards (83). Defensively, Al Walcott had 11 tackles, a career best.

MOST INTERCEPTIONS IN TWO-GAME SPAN IN 42 YEARS

- Baylor picked off five passes in a win over Texas Tech in Lubbock and then picked off three passes - in the first half - at Oklahoma. It marked the most interceptions in a two-game span since 1980, when the Bears had four interceptions each in consecutive games vs. TCU and San Jose State.

REESE AMONG NATION'S BEST FRESHMEN

- Baylor freshman running back Richard Reese is off to a hot start to his collegiate career, leading the Bears in rushing through his first 11 NCAA games.
- Reese has 908 yards rushing over 175 carries with 14 TDs, averaging 5.2 yards per carry and 82.5 yards per game.
- A native of Bellville, Texas, Reese has three games with 100+ yards, including consecutive games vs. Kansas and at Texas Tech. Among NCAA freshmen, Reese ranks second in rushing TDs and second in rushing yards.

BAYLOR POWERS PAST OU IN NORMAN

- Baylor used a defense that forced three first-half interceptions and a rushing offense that rolled to 281 yards and five TDs to post a 38-35 win at Oklahoma, marking its second-consecutive win over the Sooners and its second all-time win in Norman.
- This marked just the third time since 2010 that a team has beaten OU in consecutive seasons, also done in 2019-20 by Kansas State and by the Bears in 2013-14.
- The Bears trailed after an opening TD drive from the Sooners and after answering to even the game, never trailed again, getting a heroic performance from junior Craig Williams, who set new career highs in carries (25), yards (192) and TDs (two), while filling in for freshman standout Richard Reese, who was one of many Bears hit with a stomach bug.
- Baylor also got rushing TDs from Qualan Jones, Jordan Nabors and Reese - who was limited to four carries - and got a career game from WR Josh Cameron, who had five grabs for 72 yards, both career highs.
- Defensively, Dillon Doyle had a career-high tying 15 tackles and picked off his second pass of the year. The Bears also got interceptions from freshman safety Devin Lemear and senior safety Christian Morgan.

BAYLOR ROUTS TECH BEHIND STINGY DEFENSE

- Baylor won its second consecutive with a 45-17 rout of Texas Tech, earning its first win in Lubbock since 1990 in a series that was played in Dallas-Fort Worth for 10 consecutive years.
- The Bears rolled over Texas Tech, opening up a 24-3 lead midway through the third quarter and then scoring 21 unanswered in the fourth quarter after the Red Raiders cut the lead to 24-17. Baylor forced three Tech QBs to combined to throw five interceptions, its most in a game since 1989, getting one returned for a touchdown by AJ McCarty to clinch the win.
- The Bears completely dominated in all phases, owning the ball for 40 minutes and 17 seconds - their second-consecutive game with over 40 minutes of possession time - while running for 231 yards and throwing for 211. The high-octane Tech offense was held to 159 yards passing on 12 of 38, rushing for 149 yards, including 31 yards on the final play of the first half.
- The Red Raiders saw freshman sensation Richard Reese run for 148 yards and three scores on 36 carries, while Blake Shapen added 211 yards and a score on 19 of 30 passing. Defensively, BU had six sacks, including three from defensive lineman Gabe Hall. McCarty, Al Walcott, Devin Lemear, Mark Milton and Tevin Williams III each had interceptions.

Baylor Opponents in Bold

BEARS RUN PAST KANSAS IN HOMECOMING SHOWDOWN

- Baylor used a powerful running game to post a homecoming win over upstart Kansas, stretching BU’s win streak to 13 straight against the Jayhawks. The Bears owned a 28-3 lead at halftime behind TDs from Monaray Baldwin, Richard Reese, Kyron Drones and Jordan Nabors.
- Making his first-career start, Reese rolled to career highs in rushes (31) and yards (186), while finding paydirt twice. He capped a seven-play, 69-yard drive with a two-yard tote to push Baylor’s lead to 12 points with 2:37 left in the fourth quarter, solidifying the win after Kansas had scored 20 unanswered to open the second half.
- Shapen threw for 164 yards and a score on a windy day that made passing a challenge. BU also got 71 yards rushing on nine carries from Qualan Jones.

CHASING RUSH DEFENSE HISTORY

- The Bears opened the 2022 season holding each of their first four opponents, and five of their first seven, to under 100 rushing yards. It marked the longest streak of consecutive games holding foes to under 100 yards on the ground since 1953, when the Bears held opponents in games 2-6 (Miami, Arkansas, Vanderbilt, Texas A&M, TCU) to under 100 yards rushing.
- The season program standard for holding an opponent to 100 yards or fewer on the ground came in 1986, when the Bears held Wyoming, LA Tech, USC, Houston, Texas A&M, Rice and Texas to under 100 yards rushing. BU held six opponents to 100 yards or fewer on the ground during the historic 2021 season.
- A total of 11 opponents in the last two years haven’t reached 100 yards rushing, the best two-season total in program annals.

- Baylor running back Richard Reese set a program record for rushing yards by a freshman with 56 yards rushing in the matchup with No. 4 TCU and now owns 908 yards rushing on the year.
- Reese passed Shock Linwood for the program record, with Linwood rushing for 881 yards in 2013.

FOURTH-DOWN AGGRESSIVENESS

- Baylor under Coach Dave Aranda is one of the most aggressive teams in college football on fourth down. The Bears rank second nationally in fourth-down conversions (23), trailing only Texas Tech (27).
- The Bears have converted 63.9 percent of their fourth-down attempts, which ranks seventh among teams that have attempted 15+ fourth-down tries.

18 STRAIGHT GAMES HOLDING OPPONENT UNDER 30

- Over the course of the 2021 season through the start of 2022, Baylor’s defense put up a historic run, the likes of which haven’t been seen in 36 years, holding 18 consecutive opponents to 30 or fewer points.
- It was the longest such Baylor streak in the modern-era of college football and the longest since 1984-86. Only three times since 1964 has Baylor had a streak of 18 or more games holding an opponent to 30 or fewer points, also doing it in 1979-81, a 25-game stretch.
- The Bears were one of only three teams to hold each opponent of 2021 under 30 points, joining Clemson and Cincinnati. Last year, Baylor on average held opponents to 10.6 points per game below their averages in other games.

HISTORIC TIME OF POSSESSION IN KANSAS, TECH WINS

- The Bears held the football for 40 minutes and 10 seconds in the win over Kansas, including for 12 minutes in the second quarter.
- In the following game, BU held the football for 40 minutes and 17 seconds in a win at Texas Tech, including over 22 minutes in the first 30 ticks.
- It marked the longest time of possessions for Baylor in a game since a 14-0 win over NC State in 1995, when the Bears held it for 41:31. Baylor also held the football for 40:01 in a tilt with SMU in 1993.

SECOND-MOST WINS IN TEXAS IN LAST 10+ YEARS

- As of Nov. 19, Baylor has won 96 games since 2011, second most among the state of Texas' 12 FBS teams.
- BU's 96 wins in the last 10+ years are shy of Houston (97) and tied with Texas A&M (96) and TCU (96), and ahead of Texas (84), SMU (70), Texas Tech (69), UTSA (69), North Texas (66), Rice (54), UTEP (43) and Texas State (39).

KHALIL KEITH IMPACTS OFFENSIVE ATTACK

- Baylor entered the season with the expectation that its offensive line would be one of the top units in college football. After working to find its footing early in the year, the offensive line unit - led by assistant coach Eric Mateos - has blossomed into a physical weapon, paving the way for emerging running back forces in Richard Reese, Craig Williams and Qualan Jones.
- One key ingredient to the play of the offensive line over a five-week span has been the return from injury for sixth-year senior right tackle Khalil Keith. A 6-foot-5, 314-pound force, Keith missed the first six games of the year while recovering from injury, with Gavin Byers starting the first seven games at right tackle. Now that Keith has returned - playing off the bench vs. Kansas and starting vs. Texas Tech, Oklahoma and K-State - the offensive attack has improved.

Category	With Keith	Without Keith
Rushing Yards Per Game	224.0	184.7
Sacks Allowed Per Game	1.00	2.0
Time of Possession Per Game	34:06	30:57
3rd Down Conv. Percentage	47%	43%

HOLDING SERVE AT McLANE

- Baylor owns a 12-5 record at McLane Stadium under the direction of Coach Dave Aranda, including a 10-3 mark over the last two years. The Bears had a nine-game winning streak at home snapped in a loss to Oklahoma State.

SECOND-MOST INTS IN NATION IN LAST TWO YEARS

- Baylor has picked off 32 passes over the last two years and currently ranks 15th in the nation and first in the Big 12 with 13 in interceptions in 2022.
- Only Iowa (36) has more interceptions in the last two years, with Baylor just ahead of third-place Kansas State (31).

BEARS FALL IN MORGANTOWN

- Baylor suffered the loss at West Virginia, 43-40, on Thursday, Oct. 13, as the Mountaineers rallied past the Bears to erase an electric offensive outing.
- The Bears rolled to 590 yards of total offense, including 421 through the air, but a key targeting penalty on an attempted slide from QB Blake Shapen led to a head injury for the signal caller and ended what was a historic outing for the sophomore. Shapen threw for 326 yards - including 294 in the first half - to lead the Bears to a 17-7 lead early and a 24-17 halftime lead despite a fumble recovery returned for a touchdown by WVU in the second quarter. Freshman QB Kyron Drones stepped up, throwing for 95 yards on 7 of 14 passing with a TD.
- The loss dampened the historic outing from senior WR Gavin Holmes, who caught seven balls for 210 yards and a score. He was the first Baylor player with a 200+ yard receiving game since KD Cannon in the 2016 Cactus Bowl.
- Richard Reese rushed for 57 yards on 13 carries, with Qualan Jones adding 44 yards and one TD on 10 totes. TE Drake Dabney had five catches for 66 yards.
- The WVU offense went for 500 yards of total offense, including 223 on the ground and 163 and two TDs from Tony Mathis.

PERSON > PLAYER

- A hallmark of Coach Dave Aranda's philosophy in building a program is placing an importance on understanding that the person is more important than the player. This mantra is executed in everything the program touches on a daily basis. Throughout the football building, signage adorns the walls that emphasize, "better people make better players" and that Baylor will "win with character".
- Aranda preaches that players focus on today and be authentically themselves in an effort to be comfortable and confident in their roles.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

- Baylor has forced considerably more turnovers than it has allowed in 34 games under head coach Dave Aranda.
- BU has 62 takeaways (45 INTs, 17 FR) and 40 giveaways (25 INTs, 15 FL) in 33 games under Aranda.

NO. 9/7 OKLAHOMA ST. RIDES HOT START TO 36-25 WIN

- No. 16/14 Baylor fell behind 23-3 early in the third quarter to No. 9/7 Oklahoma State and couldn't overcome the hole during a furious rally that saw BU cut the lead to a one-score game later in the quarter, falling 36-25 to the Cowboys in a rematch of the 2021 Big 12 Conference Championship Game.
- Baylor found itself down 23-3 after allowing a kickoff return for a touchdown early in the third quarter but responded with 14-straight points to cut the lead to 23-17. OSU answered with a 50 yard kickoff return on the ensuing possession and took two plays to regain a 30-17 lead. The lead grew to 33-17 before Baylor got a 70-yard TD strike from Blake Shapen to Monaray Baldwin - their second TD connection of the game - with a two-point conversion cutting it to an eight-point game with 2:14 left in the third quarter.
- Baylor threw an interception on its own 33-yard line with 8:52 left in the game, and OSU finished an eight-play drive with a field goal for an 11-point lead it wouldn't relinquish.
- Shapen threw for a career-high 345 yards, with the two scores to Baldwin, who had a career-high seven catches for 174 yards. Richard Reese rushed 17 times for 85 yards and his NCAA-freshmen leading seventh TD of the year. Linebacker Dillon Doyle had a team-leading 10 tackles.
- Spencer Sanders threw for 181 yards for the Cowboys, also rushing 14 times for 75 yards. Dominic Richardson had 24 carries for 73 yards and a score. Jaden Nixon had the big blow of the game, a 98-yard kickoff return for a TD in the third quarter.

BAYLOR CLAIMS LEAGUE OPENER IN AMES

- Baylor rolled to a 31-24 win over Iowa State in Ames to open league play, owning a 31-14 lead in the fourth quarter and using an efficient offensive attack to secure the win.
- The Bears got 238 yards and three TDs passing from Blake Shapen, and 78 yards and a rushing TD from freshman Richard Reese to pull away from the Cyclones and earn the first Baylor win in Ames since 2016.
- The Baylor defense forced two interceptions and held ISU to just 66 yards rushing, totaling four sacks, including two from linebacker Bryson Jackson.
- Shapen found Ben Sims, Dillon Doyle and Gavin Holmes for TD strikes, with Holmes going for three catches and 92 yards. His 38-yard scoring grab pushed Baylor's lead to 31-14 with 9:37 left in the fourth quarter. The Cyclones cut the lead to 10 with a 75-play drive and added a field goal to set up an impactful on-side kick attempt in the closing seconds, which was grabbed by BU linebacker Matt Jones to clinch the win.

BEARS ROUT TEXAS STATE TO CONCLUDE NON-LEAGUE

- Baylor used a 42-7 rout of Texas State to conclude non-conference play, getting 501 yards of total offense, including 293 yards and five TDs on the ground, to post the convincing win.
- The Bears got an explosive game from freshman Richard Reese, who had career highs in carries (19), yards (156) and TDs (three) to help Baylor secure the win. BU owned a 14-0 lead before the Bobcats got on the board and then ripped off 28 unanswered points to extend the lead to 42-7 early in the fourth quarter, emptying the bench in a game that saw Baylor missing six listed starters due to injury.
- Blake Shapen threw for 184 yards and a TD and rushed for 42 yards, including a 35-yard TD scamper in the first half. Gavin Holmes grabbed his first TD catch since 2020 and Craig Williams added 56 yards and a score on the ground. Defensively, Al Walcott had nine tackles, two for a loss and a forced fumble, while AJ McCarty added seven tackles. Brooks Miller made five tackles, including a sack and 1.5 tackles for a loss.

NO. 21/25 BYU OUTLASTS BEARS IN 2OT THRILLER

- Baylor hit the road for its first test away from McLane Stadium and fell in a two-overtime thriller at No. 21/25 BYU 26-20, in front of 63,470 at a rocking LaVell Edwards Stadium.
- The Bears battled the Cougars in a matchup of two future Big 12 Conference foes in an electric atmosphere in Provo. BU took its first lead on a Qualan Jones' TD rush - his first of two on the night - but after a missed PAT, the Cougars used an eight-play, 75-yard drive to conclude the half with a 10-6 lead. BU answered with a second-half opening drive of 77 yards for a 13-10 lead, and the teams traded TDs in the third and fourth quarters to take a 20-20 game into the final seconds, where BYU kicker Jake Oldroyd missed a potential game-winning field goal.
- Both teams missed field goals - including the potential walk-off winner from Oldroyd - in the first OT period and BYU punched it in to open the second OT but missed the two-point conversion try. Baylor then used 11 plays in its game-tying or game-winning bid on its possession, with Blake Shapen's fourth-down throw sailing high to allow the Cougars to escape with the win.
- BYU threw for 283 yards and rushed for 83, while Baylor rushed for 152 yards and threw for 137 in the loss but was handcuffed by 14 penalties for 117 yards. Craig Williams totaled 68 yards rushing on 17 carries, Jones had 67 yards on 16 carries and Shapen threw for 137 yards and a score to Ben Sims.

BEARS ROLL OVER GREAT DANES IN LID-LIFTER

- Baylor opened the 2022 season in efficient fashion, routing UAlbany, 69-10, on Sept. 3 in front of a McLane Stadium crowd. The Bears got 214 yards and two TDs through the air, and one on the ground, from sophomore QB Blake Shapen - all in the first half - while rolling to the season-opening win.
- BU played 89 players in the win, with seven Bears making their first-career starts. Gavin Holmes returned from a missed 2021 season due to injury to return a punt 72 yards for a TD in the first half, Shapen found Monaray Baldwin and Hal Presley for TD passes, Baldwin scored on the ground from 50 yards away and Craig Williams scored from four yards out to help BU build an insurmountable lead.

GRIMES BRINGS RVO TO WACO

- Offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes - entering his second year at Baylor - has brought RVO to Waco - "Reliable Violent Offense" - an attacking, multiple-formation offense that runs a few plays a lot of ways with as much misdirection as any team in the country.
- Baylor's offense ended the year in 2021 ranked 10th in rushing offense (219.3 yards per game), 19th in fewest interceptions thrown (seven), 14th in fewest sacks allowed (1.29/game), 20th in time of possession (31:31) and 40th in scoring offense (31.6).
- The Bears increased their rushing output by 129 yards per game from 2020 (219.3 ypg, up from 90.3 ypg), without sacrificing the passing game (203.4 passing yards per game in 2021, 219.9 ypg in 2020).
- Grimes' 2020 BYU offense finished third nationally in scoring (43.5 ppg) and seventh in total offense (522.2 ypg).
- Joining Grimes in making the move from Provo to Waco in 2021 was offensive line coach Eric Mateos, who spent two seasons at BYU. Mateos' offensive line ranked eighth nationally in 2020 with 1.0 sacks allowed per game, and the Bears ranked 14th nationally with only 1.29 sacks allowed per game in 2021.

FIRST 12-WIN SEASON IN SCHOOL HISTORY

- The Bears set a school record with a 12-2 season in 2021, topping the previous standard of 11 wins (11-2 in 2013, 11-2 in 2014, 11-3 in 2019).
- Baylor recorded its seventh 10-win season in program history. BU had one 10-win season in the program's first 109 years (10-2 in 1980) before reaching the 10-win mark in 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2019 and 2021.
- The Bears won the 2021 Sugar Bowl and appeared in a bowl for the 10th time in 12 seasons since snapping a 15-year streak without a bowl bid between the 1994 Alamo Bowl and the 2010 Texas Bowl.
- Baylor's 10 bowls in 12 years is unprecedented in program history. Baylor's first 10 bowl games were over a 33-year span (1948-1980) and its 10 most recent bowls prior to 2010 were over a 32-year span (1963-1994).

ARANDA ONE OF TOP DEFENSIVE MINDS IN COUNTRY

- Third-year head coach Dave Aranda has earned a reputation as one of the nation’s top defensive minds over his 20-plus-year career, including stops as defensive coordinator at LSU, Wisconsin, Utah State and Hawaii.
- Aranda led the LSU defense in 2019 as the Tigers posted a perfect 15-0 record and won the National Title with a 42-25 victory over Clemson in CFP National Championship Game.
- In six seasons as defensive coordinator at Power 5 schools from 2014-19, his defenses were ranked top-12 nationally in total yards five times. The units also ranked top-10 in scoring four times in seven years from 2013-19.

NATION'S SECOND-MOST EXPERIENCED O-LINE

- Baylor returns four starters on the offensive line and has had five players return who have started at least eight games on the offensive line. This makes the Bears one of the nation’s most experienced offensive lines returning in 2022 to enter the year.
- Only eight schools return five offensive line starters and 31 schools have at least four returning.
- Entering the year, the Bears rank second in the nation with 171 games played returning from their four returning starters with five BU offensive linemen combining to play in 201 career games.
- Only Wake Forest (172 career games played) has more returning games played among its returning starters entering 2022. Baylor also ranks fifth nationally in career starts returning among its starters, behind only George State (141), Pitt (130), Georgia Southern (127) and UTSA (118).

SIX BEARS NABBED IN NFL DRAFT

- Baylor tied a program record with six players picked in the 2022 NFL Draft, led by four top-three round selections, including safety Jalen Pitre, wide receiver Tyquan Thornton, safety JT Woods and linebacker Terrel Bernard.

Baylor 2022 NFL Draft Picks

- Jalen Pitre, S – Houston Texans (2nd Round, 37th overall)
- Tyquan Thornton, WR – New England Patriots (2nd Round, 50th overall)
- JT Woods, S – Los Angeles Chargers (3rd Round, 79th overall)
- Terrel Bernard, LB – Buffalo Bills (3rd Round, 89th overall)
- Trestan Ebner, RB – Chicago Bears (6th Round, 203rd overall)
- Kalon Barnes, CB – Carolina Panthers (7th Round, 242nd overall)

SHAPEN IS QB1

- Baylor sophomore Blake Shapen won the quarterback competition after a strong spring practice. The 2021 Big 12 Championship Most Outstanding Player, Shapen set a Big 12 Championship and AT&T Stadium (college games) record with 17-straight completions in the first half vs. Oklahoma State.
- Shapen played in six games with two starts in 2021 after a redshirt season in 2020, throwing for 596 yards and five TDs without an interception, completing 72.1 percent of his attempts.
- A native of Shreveport, La., Shapen came to Baylor as a two-sport athlete, and was on the baseball 2021 roster after coming out of high school as the No. 1-ranked high school shortstop prospect and the fourth-best HS prospect overall in Louisiana.
- He prepped at Evangel Christian Academy, where he was a four-star prospect according to ESPN and was ranked as the No. 22 QB nationally.

ANTHONY A RARE SEVENTH-YEAR SENIOR

- Baylor quarterback Luke Anthony is a rare seventh-year senior who will be entering his final season of collegiate eligibility. Anthony transferred to BU for 2022 after opening his career at Abilene Christian and Louisiana Tech. He was named the 2020 C-USA Newcomer of the Year while in Ruston, La., where he spent two seasons after playing the 2016-19 seasons at ACU, where he was a two-year captain and the 2018 Southland Conference Student-Athlete of the Year. He threw for 2,525 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2019.
- Anthony is one of 23 student-athletes around the nation who are in at least their seventh year as a collegiate player. He is one of four Big 12 Conference student-athletes who are in their seventh year, including Will Honas (Kansas State), Monte' McGary (Kansas) and Colby Reeder (Iowa State).

SIMS A WEAPON AT TIGHT END

- Senior tight end Ben Sims is one of the most accomplished pass catchers in Baylor's storied history. A 6-foot-5, 258-pound product of San Antonio's Clark High School, Sims ranks as the all-time leader in receiving touchdowns by a tight end with 11.
- Sims is a preseason first-team All-Big 12 selection by Athlon and Phil Steele after an honorable mention season in 2021 as voted on by the league's coaches and media. He started 13 of 14 games in 2021 and ranked fourth in receiving yards as a junior.

JACKSON HELPS LEAD A STACKED LINEBACKER ROOM

- In addition to standouts Dillon Doyle and Matt Jones, the linebacker room is also led by sixth-year senior Bryson Jackson. A 6-foot-2, 204 pounder out of Mansfield, Texas, Jackson has played in 45 career games with the Bears, owning 9.5 TFLs. He played in all 14 games in 2021, after serving as a special-teams weapon in 2019 and 2020.
- Jackson came to Baylor after earning all-district honors at Lake Ridge HS in Mansfield. He redshirted the 2017 season and did not see action until playing in 13 of 14 games as a sophomore in 2019.

REPLACING OFFENSIVE SKILL POSITIONS

- A storyline in the preseason entering 2022 centered on how the Bears can replace skill position weapons on the offensive side. Baylor must replace its top three rushers from 2021, including Abram Smith, who totaled a school-record 1,621 yards on the ground with 12 TDs, and Treستان Ebner, who had 799 yards and two scores on 148 carries. BU also lost its top two receivers, Tyquan Thornton and R.J. Sneed, who combined for 108 catches, 1,521 yards and 12 TDs through the air a year ago.
- A talented cast of characters sits poised to step up in 2022 to replace productive offensive weapons. At running back, Taye McWilliams, Qualan Jones and Craig "Sqwirly" Williams are returning weapons, with freshman Richard Reese, and 2021 redshirt Jordan Jenkins in a position to fill the void.
- At wide receiver, Baylor benefits from the return of sixth-year senior Gavin Holmes, a native of Justin, Texas, who missed the 2021 - and 2018 - seasons due to injuries. Holmes has 46 career catches - including 33 in 2020 - as the most productive returning wide out on the 2022 roster.
- Sophomores Monary Baldwin and Hal Presley have each earned a top spot on the depth chart heading into the 2022 season. Baldwin had a highlight of the 2021 season, scampering for a 48-yard TD rush in the Sugar Bowl. Other potential pass catchers out wide features freshman Jordan Nabors, redshirt freshmen Javon Gipson and Josh Cameron.

VETERAN PRESENCE

- A stalwart for the Baylor defense is senior linebacker Dylan Doyle. A 6-foot-3, 240-pound product of Iowa City, Iowa, Doyle has been a leader in the middle of the Bears-defense since transferring from Iowa for the 2020 season. Doyle ranked 20th in the Big 12 in tackles per game as a sophomore before starring in 2021 for a stout defensive unit that ranked among the tops in the nation.
- Doyle started all 14 games in 2021 and had 91 tackles, including 8.5 tackles for a loss. He was a second-team All-Texas Linebacker by Dave Campbell's Texas Football and led the team in tackles in five outings.
- Doyle has done more than just lead the defense over his first two seasons, also starring against BYU with a rushing and receiving TD, adding a sack and four tackles, as the Bears bested the Cougars.
- He will be charged with taking on an enhanced leadership role in 2022 after the Bears lost standout defenders in safety Jalen Pitre and linebacker Terrel Bernard to NFL Draft selections in the first three rounds.

MATT JONES SHIFTS INSIDE

- With the departure of standout linebacker Terrel Bernard to the NFL, the Bears have shifted versatile junior Matt Jones to the inside linebacker role. Regarded as one of Baylor's best 11 defensive players a year ago, coordinator Ron Roberts found a role for Jones, primarily at outside linebacker - known in the BU system as the "JACK" - in an effort to get Jones on the field.
- As a fourth-year player who has played in 27 career games, Jones' shift to the inside backer comes after he had 52 tackles, including 7.5 tackles for a loss, starting nine games. He starred in a game at Oklahoma State in 2021, going for 14 tackles with a forced fumble.
- Jones, a 6-foot-3, 224-pound native of Odessa, Texas, enters the season as a first-team preseason All-Big 12 honoree by Phil Steele.
- The inside linebacker role is vitally important in Coach Dave Aranda and defensive coordinator Ron Roberts' system, and the return of Jones and Dillon Doyle give the Bears the opportunity to lean on experienced players at the middle level of the defense and frees up the staff to run its impactful multiple-scheme format.

WALCOTT TO STAR

- One defensive backfield position shift in fall camp has been the transition of senior Al Walcott to the "STAR" position. In Coach Dave Aranda and defensive coordinator Ron Roberts' scheme, Walcott will have the opportunity to play the hybrid position that saw Jalen Pitre excel and earn Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2021.
- A preseason All-Big 12 fourth-team selection by Athlon, Walcott - a 6-foot-2, 219-pounder - played corner for his first three years on the Brazos, including making eight starts in 2021. He had 30 tackles as a junior, and his 96-yard interception return for a TD in the 2021 Sugar Bowl was the second-longest in program history.
- Walcott, a native of Wilmington, N.C., joined the Bears after playing in 2019 at Butler [Kan.] Community College, where he helped the squad to a 10-3 record with a 70-tackle and three-interception season.

MILTON, MORGAN ANCHOR DB GROUP

- Baylor returns several key contributors from its 2021 defensive unit, including fifth-year seniors in cornerback Mark Milton and safety Christian Morgan.
- The two defensive stalwarts will be expected to help lead a defensive unit that must replace Jalen Pitre and Terrel Bernard, who have graduated on to the NFL.
- Milton, nicknamed “MJ,” has played in 42 games, including all 14 in 2021 with a pair of starts. He ranked 12th on the team in tackles while adding a pair of pass break-ups and a fumble recovery.
- Morgan has played in 46 games in his career with 21 starts and enters the season as a preseason All-Big 12 Third-Team selection by Phil Steele and a fourth-team honoree by Athlon.
- A native of Houston, Morgan played in 12 games with 10 starts as a senior in 2021, pacing the team with six pass break-ups. He had three interceptions in 2020, starting all eight games he saw action.

SPECIAL SPECIALISTS

- Baylor boasts a strong special teams contingent, including returning starters at placekicker (Isaiah Hankins), kickoff specialist (Noah Rauschenberg) and punter (Issac Power). The Bears are deep at kicker, as Hankins returns after going 14 of 20 in field-goal attempts in 2021, while also drilling 57 of 57 PATs.
- Rauschenberg excelled in the kickoff-specialist role a year ago, booting 72 of his 81 kickoffs for a touchback. A total of 18 of his 33 kickoffs in 2020 went for a touchback and 34 of his 56 kickoffs in 2019 were a touchback.
- Power established himself as one of the top punters in college football in 2021. He had a 44.98 per punt average with 20 downed inside the 20-yard line and 20 going for 50 or more yards. HONORING MR. DAVE

- Dave Campbell, a pioneer in sports journalism whose passion for coverage of football at all levels reverberates throughout Texas, passed away last December at the age of 96 at his home in Waco. Mr. Dave was an icon in the journalism industry and throughout the state and was a fixture in the community of Waco. Campbell founded and served as editor-in-chief of Dave Campbell’s Texas Football magazine, was a former president of the Football Writers Association of America, was an inductee into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and served as the longtime sports editor of the Waco Tribune-Herald. A native of Waco and a product of La Vega High School, Campbell enrolled at Baylor before being drafted into service in World War II.
- After he returned to Texas, Campbell earned his degree from Baylor, married his college sweetheart Reba, and served as sports editor at the Tribune-Herald for 40 years. He founded his iconic magazine in 1960 and served as the editor-in-chief for the remainder of his life. After retiring from the Tribune-Herald in 1993, Campbell took a position with the Baylor Bear Foundation and was editor of Dave Campbell’s Baylor Bear Insider for the next 15 years. He was inducted into the Baylor Athletics Hall of Fame in 2004.
- Baylor is proud to honor Campbell throughout the 2022 season, along with his legendary impact on our community, by reserving his seat in the McLane Stadium Press Box.

LAST MEETING: 16/18 BAYLOR 31, RV/RV TEXAS 24

MCLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

OCT. 30, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 45,834

Baylor won its second-straight game over Texas, in Waco, with a 31-24 victory over the Longhorns on Saturday.

After Texas drew first blood with a touchdown pass, Baylor went to its bag of tricks. Wide receiver Tyquan Thornton caught the ball on a reverse and threw it to a wide-open RJ Sneed for a six-yard score to knot the game at seven.

Isaiah Hankins added a 38-yard field goal to give Baylor its first lead of the game with 56 seconds to play in the first quarter.

Texas would score 32 seconds later on a 68-yard touchdown pass from Casey Thompson to Xavier Worthy to put the Horns back in front 14-10; a four-point lead they would take into the half.

Texas came out of the locker room with a 14-play 75-yard drive to push its lead out to 21-10. Baylor responded with a nine-play, 75-yard drive of its own, capped by Gerry Bohanon's six-yard touchdown run, his seventh rushing score of the season, to cut the Longhorn lead to 21-17.

The Bears began the 4th quarter with a little more razzle-dazzle when tight end, Ben Sims took a handoff on a jet-sweep from one yard out for his career-first rushing touchdown on the first carry of his career, to give Baylor the lead, 24-21.

Abram Smith helped put the game out of reach, capping a three-play, 53-yard drive with a highlight-reel spin move, freeing him up for a 32-yard run to the end zone. Smith's 11th rushing touchdown of the season put Baylor up 31-21 with 7:59 to play in the fourth quarter.

After Texas kicker Cameron Dicker cut the Bears' lead to 31-24, Texas got the ball back with 2:07 to play in the fourth quarter. From there, the Baylor defense buckled down, forcing four-straight incomplete passes from the Texas offense and put the game away for good, sealing the 31-24 win.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Baylor defense has now forced a turnover in 16-straight games.
- Tyquan Thornton's first-quarter touchdown pass was the first by a non-quarterback since Jay Lee's 53-yard touchdown pass to Corey Coleman against Michigan State on January 1, 2015.
- Baylor was assessed its first penalty since the 4th quarter of the West Virginia game, going 113 minutes and 55 seconds of game time (seven quarters) between penalties.
- Ben Sims became the third Baylor player this year to score a touchdown on their career-first rushing attempt (Gavin Yates & Dillon Doyle).
- Abram Smith notched his fifth-career 100-yard rushing game, tying him with Devin Chafin, Brandell Jackson and Cleveland Franklin.
- Smith is the first Baylor running back with 5+ 100-yard games in a season since Shock Linwood had six in 2015.

McLANE STADIUM

- McLane Stadium has served as the home of Baylor football since the 2014 season, when the Bears moved over from historic Floyd Casey Stadium, their home for the previous 64 seasons.
- The Bears own a 36-17 record at McLane Stadium and a 379-238-27 record overall at home over a span of 116 seasons.
- The season attendance record was set in 2014, the debut of McLane Stadium, when an average of 46,710 attended each game, with a total of 280,257. A total of 318,621 attended seven games during the 2019 season.
- The single-game record for attendance came in 2015, a matchup with Oklahoma that saw 49,875 attend at McLane Stadium.
- Under Coach Dave Aranda, the Bears own a 12-3 record at McLane Stadium.
- The stadium was built on a 93-acre site that includes 2,150 on-site parking spaces, 334 tailgating spots with 256 set for power and cable, 18 boat slips for Sailgating on the Brazos River and the Umphrey Pedestrian Bridge, connecting the stadium to Baylor's picturesque campus.

- The stadium seats 45,140 and includes six founder's suites, 36 suites, 79 loge boxes, club seating for 1,200, 200 concession points of sale and five retail stores.
- The Baylor locker room is 50 yards long and 17 yards wide.

STADIUM HISTORIES

- The 2013 season was Baylor's 64th and final year of football at the 50,000-seat Floyd Casey Stadium. BU closed its run at the facility by winning its first Big 12 championship with a 30-10 victory over No. 23 Texas in the final game of the regular season.
- Originally named Baylor Stadium, the structure was built in 1950 after a bond sales program raised $1.5 million for construction costs. The first game played in the new stadium was Sept. 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over Houston.
- In 1989, the stadium was renamed Floyd Casey Stadium after longtime University supporter and trustee Carl B. Casey and his wife Thelma contributed $5 million of an $8 million renovation project in honor of his father, Floyd (the name change was officially announced at halftime of the 1988 Homecoming game).

- Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were used by the Bears. Baylor's first football squad took the field in 1899, but no records are available to prove where it played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.
- From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility (an unknown number of games were also played at the old Cotton Palace during this period).
- The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35. The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home.
- Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where Baylor played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 3, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 41,242

Eight Bears scored touchdowns as No. 10 Baylor routed UAlbany, 69-10, to open the 2022 season.

Blake Shapen threw for 214 yards on 17-of-20 passing and scored three total touchdowns, commanding the offense to 42 points in the first 34 minutes of play. The Bears rolled up 573 yards of total offense, held the Great Danes to less than 100 yards in the second half and used 89 total players in the victory.

Baylor wasted no time in taking control early, as Shapen found Monaray Baldwin on a 47-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring. After Bryson Jackson recovered his own forced fumble on the Danes' 29-yard line, Craig "Squirrel" Williams took a pitch around the left end for a four-yard score to extend the lead to 14-0.

BU's special teams got in on the act next, as Gavin Holmes returned a punt 72 yards to the house. Shapen and the offense answered UAlbany's only first-half points with a 38-yard strike to Hal Presley before the redshirt sophomore scored on a one-yard rollout as time expired in the first half.

In the second half, Baylor used a four-back rotation of Williams, Taye McWilliams, Qualan Jones and Richard Reese to pile up more than 250 yards rushing. Reese led the way with 62 yards on just nine carries and scored on a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns.

Baldwin, who finished with 130 yards on just six touches, capped off another scoring drive with a 50-yard end-around in the third quarter. Then, Kyron Drones entered and completed 5-of-7 passes for 100 yards, leading the Bears to their final four TDs of the night. He scored on a nine-yard keeper, then Jones felled up the two Reese scores with a 27-yarder of his own to put the exclamation point on the contest.

POSTGAME NOTES

- BU is now 81-36-4 all-time in season openers. The Bears have won 13 of their last 14 season openers.
- This was the Bears' most points in a season-opening game since beating Wofford, 69-3, on Aug. 31, 2013.
- Baylor rushed for seven TDs in the win, its most since playing Kansas in 2019, and one shy of the program record set in 1969 vs. LSU.
- Gavin Holmes' punt return for a TD was BU's first since Grayland Arnold had a 73-yd return vs. UTSA in 2019.
- Monaray Baldwin became the first Bear to score a rushing and receiving TD in the same game since Dillon Doyle did so vs. BYU in 2021.
- Kyron Drones, Hal Presley and Richard Reese each scored their first-career touchdowns.
- Devin Lemear, Lorando Johnson, Seth Jones, Hal Presley, Micah Mazzucca, Devin Neal and Taye McWilliams each made their first-career starts.

21/25 BYU 26, 9/8 BAYLOR 20 (20T)

LaVELL EDWARDS STADIUM • PROVO, UTAH

SEPT. 10, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 63,470

After kicker Jake Oldroyd missed two field goals that would have won it, No. 21 BYU pulled out a 26-20 double-overtime win over No. 9 Baylor in front of a sellout crowd at LaVell Edwards Stadium in Provo, Utah.

The Bears (1-1) missed a 43-yard field goal in the first overtime period and then failed to score in the second OT after Lopini Katooa gave BYU (2-0) the lead with a three-yard TD run.

With a chance to win it, Baylor picked up two first downs in the second overtime period and had a first-and-goal at the 5, but two false start penalties pushed the Bears back to the 12 and quarterback Blake Shapen threw high on a fourth-down pass to Seth Jones in the back of the end zone on the final play.

Shut down for most of the first half, the Bears got on the scoreboard with 1:37 left when Qualan Jones capped off a 13-play, 68-yard drive with a one-yard TD run. However, Isaiah Hankins' extra point try glanced off the right upright, leaving the score at 6-3. The Cougars answered with an eight-play, 75-yard drive and went back on top following a 20-yard TD pass with just two seconds remaining in the first half.

Scoring on its second-straight drive, Baylor went back on top early in the second half, 13-10, on Jones' second touchdown run of the night, this one from seven yards out. BYU tied it on a 39-yard field goal by Oldroyd and then used a little trickery to take a 20-13 lead late in the third quarter, as quarterback Jaren Hall caught a 22-yard pass from wide receiver Chase Roberts.

Baylor answered again, driving 79 yards on 12 plays and tying it up with a four-yard TD pass to tight end Ben Sims. The Bears had a chance to go up with another trip in to BYU territory, but Craig "Squirrel" Williams was stuffed on a third-and-five from the Cougars' 46 with 2:15 remaining.

BYU had a chance to win it in regulation after getting the ball back, but Oldroyd missed a 35-yarder which sent the contest to OT. Both sides missed FG's in the first overtime period before the Cougars held off Baylor's second OT drive.

POSTGAME NOTES

- This was Baylor's first overtime game since 2020 at West Virginia, also a two-overtime contest.
- Qualan Jones rushed 16 times for 67 yards and two TDs. He now has a career-high three rushing TDs in 2022, and five in his career.
- Matt Jones led the team with eight tackles, including a sack, TFL and a pass break-up.
- Devin Neal finished with eight tackles, including his first-career sack, and two tackles for loss.
- Ben Sims had four receptions for 30 yards and a touchdown, his first of the year and 10th of his career.
- Issac Power punted six times for a 42.7 yard average. Four of his six kicks were downed inside the 20-yard line.

17/19 BAYLOR 42, TEXAS STATE 7

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
SEPT. 17, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,597

Behind the explosive running of freshman Richard Reese, Baylor scored 28 unanswered points and blew out Texas State, 42-7, before a Family Day crowd of 45,597 Saturday at McLane Stadium.

Recording the Bears' first 100-yard rushing day of the season, Reese went for 156 yards on 19 carries (8.2-yard average) and scored on runs of 14, 52 and five yards to break the game open. BU wrapped up non-conference play with its ninth-straight win over the Bobcats and rolled up 501 total yards, including 293 on the ground.

To get the scoring started, Blake Shapen led a methodical 13-play, 75-yard opening drive and Reese sliced up the middle of the defense for the early 7-0 lead. After the Bears' defense turned the Bobcats away with a fourth-down stop from the BU 31, they strung together another good drive that was capped off by Craig "Squirt" Williams' 30-yard TD run which extended the lead to 14-0.

Overcoming the first interception of his collegiate career, Shapen completed 15-of-26 passes for 184 yards and a touchdown and also scored on a 35-yard run at the end of the first half to give Baylor a 21-7 lead. Texas State had gotten on the board with a 12-yard TD pass from Layne Hatcher to Ashtyn Hawkins, who caught 13 passes for 114 yards.

In the second half, Shapen hit Gavin Holmes for a 28-yard touchdown pass and the Bears never looked back. Reese caught a 17-yard pass, then scored from 52 yards in the next drive, and capped the game's tallies with a five-yard scamper with 12:19 remaining.

Baylor's defense held Texas State to three turnovers on downs, and also blocked a third-quarter field goal attempt. Chidi Ogbonnaya's swat was BU's first since TJ Franklin did so last season at TCU.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor extended its all-time series lead to 9-0 over Texas State.
- A 6:25 scoring drive to open the game was BU's longest of the 2022 season thus far.
- A 96-yard scoring drive was the longest since a 17-play, 96-yard drive at Oklahoma in 2020.
- A total of 11 different players caught passes, the most in the Aranda era and most since 2015 at Kansas.
- Chidi Ogbonnaya blocked a third-quarter field goal, marking Baylor's first blocked FG since TJ Franklin swatted one at TCU in 2021.
- Richard Reese set career highs in carries (19), yards (156) and TDs (three). It was Baylor's first three-TD rushing performance since Abram Smith vs. BYU in 2021.
- AI Walcott had a team-leading nine tackles, two for a loss, and a forced fumble, the first of his career.
- Blake Shapen's 35-yard TD run was the longest by a Baylor QB since a 50-yarder from Seth Russell at Texas in 2016.
- Brooks Miller recorded a career-high five tackles, including 1.5 for a loss and his first sack.

17/17 BAYLOR 31, IOWA STATE 24

JACK TRICE STADIUM • AMES, IOWA
SEPT. 24, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 58,069

Blake Shapen completed 19-of-26 passes for 238 yards and three touchdowns to lead 17th-ranked Baylor to a 31-24 win over Iowa State in its Big 12 opener at a packed Jack Trice Stadium in Ames, Iowa.

Already up by double digits, the Bears (3-1, 1-0) threw what looked to be the knockout punch with 9:37 left in the fourth quarter when Shapen connected with a wide-open Gavin Holmes for a 38-yard touchdown pass on a flea flicker. But, the Cyclones (3-1, 0-1) made things interesting after scoring 10 unanswered points on two late scoring drives before Baylor's Matt Jones recovered an onside kick with 55 seconds left to snuff out the comeback bid.

Converting twice on fourth down, the Bears marched 77 yards on 12 plays in their opening drive and scored on Shapen's 12-yard TD pass to Ben Sims to take an early 7-0 lead. ISU answered with a 12-play drive of its own to knot the tally at 7-7, but Baylor showed no signs of slowing down as Shapen connected with Hal Presley on a 40-yard strike to set up an eventual 24-yard FG from John Mayers to go ahead, 10-7.

Shapen found Holmes over the middle for a 36-yard gain on the first of a nine-play, 70-yard scoring drive. On third-and-goal from the 1, Shapen lofted a pass to linebacker Dillon Doyle for the Iowa City native's third-career offensive touchdown and first of the 2022 season, making it 17-7.

After exchanging three-and-outs, Iowa State responded with an eight-play, 63-yard drive to close within three, 17-14, in the final minutes of the first half. But, on the second play of the third quarter, Devin Neal snagged a tip-drill interception, Baylor's first of the year, to set the tone for the second half. It was Baylor's first of two second-half interceptions, in addition to a forced fumble at the goal line that was eventually overturned as ISU recovered in the end zone for a TD.

Richard Reese sprinted for a 19-yard touchdown to push BU's lead back to double digits at 24-14 with 6:05 left in the third, then the apparent knockout blow came as Holmes hauled in the flea flicker with no defenders within 20 yards of him in the end zone.

Iowa State's scoring drives of 75 and 71 yards pulled the Cyclones within a touchdown, but the clock ran out on the Cyclones as Baylor grabbed its first conference victory of the year. Reese led the Bears with 78 yards on 11 carries, while BU shut down the Iowa State run game with just 66 yards.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor collected its first win at Iowa State since the 2016 season.
- Baylor is now 8-0 under head coach Dave Aranda when scoring a touchdown on its first possession.
- The Bears are now 12-3 when scoring first under Aranda.
- BU tallied a season-high four sacks and collected its first two interceptions of the season.
- Blake Shapen tied his career-high with three TD passes, also done in the 2021 Big 12 Championship Game.
- Richard Reese rushed a career-high 21 times for 78 yards and a touchdown.

9/7 OKLAHOMA STATE 36, 16/14 BAYLOR 25

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

OCT. 1, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 47,979

Baylor quarterback Blake Shapen threw for a career-high 345 yards and a pair of touchdowns, but ninth-ranked Oklahoma State picked off a pair of fourth-down passes and held on for a 36-25 win over the No. 16 Bears.

Spencer Sanders threw for one touchdown, ran for another and came up with a big fumble recovery late in the game to help the Cowboys (4-0, 1-0) avenge last year's 21-16 loss to Baylor (3-2, 1-1) in the Big 12 Championship game.

After a John Mayers field goal on the opening drive, OSU scored 16 unanswered points on Sanders' eight-yard TD pass to Bryson Green and a one-yard keeper by Sanders, sandwiched around a safety when the Cowboys tackled Richard Reese in the end zone.

OSU then opened the second half with a 98-yard kickoff return by Jaden Nixon that pushed the lead to 23-3.

That's when Baylor snapped into gear, as Shapen found Monaray Baldwin on a 49-yard TD pass. Then, after a pick by Christian Morgan, the Bears capitalized with a one-yard TD run by Reese to make it a one-score game, 23-17.

Another big OSU kick return set up a one-yard TD run by Dominic Richardson. The Cowboys added a chip-shot field goal after a fourth-down stop in BU territory to extend the lead to 33-17.

Going for it again on fourth down, Shapen hooked up with Baldwin once more for a 70-yarder, then hit Gavin Holmes on a two-point conversion to make it 33-25 with 2:14 left in the third quarter.

After Shapen's first interception of the game and just the second of his career, the Cowboys added another short field goal. The OSU defense came up with the clincher on the next series when Jason Taylor picked off a Shapen pass.

POSTGAME NOTES

- For the first time in a 19-game span, an opponent scored more than 30 points against Baylor, dating back to the 2020 season finale.

- Monaray Baldwin caught a career-high seven balls for 174 yards and two TDs.
- Richard Reese rushed for his team-high seventh TD of the year, which entered the game leading all NCAA freshmen.

WEST VIRGINIA 43, RV/23 BAYLOR 40

MILAN PUSKAR STADIUM • MORGANTOWN, W.VA.

OCT. 13, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,293

Using a 65-yard fumble return and a blocked extra point return, West Virginia rallied from a 10-point, first-half deficit to defeat the 23rd ranked Baylor Bears, 43-40, Thursday night in a wild game at Milan Puskar Stadium.

After quarterback Blake Shapen left the game with 6:30 remaining in the third quarter following a targeting hit by Andrew Wilson-Lamp, redshirt freshman Kyron Drones led a pair of scoring drives that gave the Bears (3-3, 1-2) a 37-31 lead. But, John Mayers' extra point attempt was blocked by Dante Stills and returned for a two-point play that proved critical.

Baylor lost its third turnover of the game on a Drones interception with the Bears in position to go back on top. Then, Dillon Doyle took it right back with an interception at the WVU 25. Mayers booted a 44-yard field goal to tie it at 40-40, but the Mountaineers drove 61 yards in six plays and won it on Casey Legg's 22-yard chip shot with 33 seconds left in regulation.

In a wild first half, Shapen threw for 294 yards and led the Bears to 24 points and 358 yards of total offense. But, Baylor only had a 24-17 lead to show for it, thanks in part to Jasir Cox's 65-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the second quarter.

It took BU just five plays to answer, as Shapen connected with Craig "Squirrel" Williams for a short screen pass that turned into a 39-yard touchdown and a 24-17 halftime lead.

WVU struck first with a seven-yard TD run by Tony Mathis, but Shapen threw for 52 yards on a time-consuming 14-play, 71-yard drive that led to a 40-yard field goal by Mayers to trim the deficit to 7-3. After the defense came up with back-to-back stops, Shapen hooked up with Gavin Holmes on a 56-yard pass that preceded a one-yard TD run by tight end Ben Sims. Holmes later hauled in a quick slant and took it 35 yards to the house for a 17-7 Baylor lead.

POSTGAME NOTES

- West Virginia has won all six meetings over Baylor in Morgantown.
- Baylor totaled a season-high 590 yards of total offense, including a season-best 421 passing yards.

- Gavin Holmes had a career game, with new personal-bests in catches (seven), yards (210) and a touchdown.
- Holmes became the first BU player with 200+ receiving yards since KD Cannon went for 226 in the 2016 Cactus Bowl.

BAYLOR 35, KANSAS 23

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
OCT. 22, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 45,882

Freshman running back Richard Reese ran for a career-high 186 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries to help Baylor defeat Kansas, 35-23, on a Homecoming Saturday afternoon at McLane Stadium.

After KU (5-3, 2-3) scored 20 unanswered points in the second half, Reese gained all but one yard on a seven-play, 69-yard scoring drive and punched one in from two yards out to stem the tide and help Baylor (4-3, 2-2) win its 13th-straight against the Jayhawks.

In a dominant first half that saw the Bears outgain the Jayhawks, 250-85, BU took a 28-3 lead into the locker room. Blake Shapen connected with Monaray Baldwin for a 17-yard TD pass to open the scoring. Reese scored his first touchdown of the day on a 14-yard scamper before the Jayhawks got on the board with a 30-yard field goal. Then, Kyron Drones came in for two plays in a specialty goalline package to cap a 16-play, 73-yard drive with a four-yard keeper that stretched the lead to 21-3.

Pinned back to their one-yard line on a punt, Baylor responded with a 15-play, 99-yard drive and made it 28-3 following a 10-yard end-around TD by freshman Jordan Nabors. The Bears almost cashed in for more after they got the ball back on a force fumble by Devin Neal and return by Devin Lemear, but Ben Sims dropped a would-be touchdown in the end zone and Shapen was picked off on the very next play.

A strip-sack snuffed out Baylor's impressive start to the second half, as KU returned a Shapen fumble to the 9 which led to a two-yard touchdown run. Kansas continued to make things interesting in the fourth quarter as Jason Bean connected with Quentin Skinner on a 24-yard TD pass and finished off a 93-yard drive with a four-yard run after the Jayhawks' defense stopped Baylor on a fourth-and-one play.

With the lead cut to five, Baylor answered with Reese's ground attack and iced the game on the freshman's ninth rushing TD of the season with 2:37 left to play.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor leads the all-time series with Kansas, 18-4, including an 11-0 mark in games played in Waco.
- BU set a program record for time of possession at 40:10.
- Freshman Richard Reese set career highs in carries (31) and rushing yards (186).
- Reese's 31 carries are the most by a Bear since Terrance Ganaway ran it 42 times vs. Texas Tech in 2011.
- Freshman Jordan Nabors found the end zone for the first time in his career on a 10-yard run.
- AI Walcott recorded his first sack of the season and third of his career.
- Chidi Ogbonnaya played in his 53rd career game, tying Raleigh Texada for fourth in program history.

BAYLOR 45, TEXAS TECH 17

JONES AT&T STADIUM • LUBBOCK, TEXAS
OCT. 29, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 60,705

Baylor's defense completely shut down Texas Tech's high-powered offense in the first half, then picked off four more passes in the second half as the Bears won a 45-17 contest in Lubbock.

AJ McCarty put the bow on it when he intercepted Tyler Shough's first pass of the night and returned it 18 yards for a pick-six with 4:04 left in the game. That was BU's fifth INT off three different Red Raider QBs. Qualan Jones later provided the exclamation point with a 17-yard rushing touchdown after the Bears' defense sacked Shough on three of four plays.

Freshman Richard Reese posted his second-straight and third 100-yard rushing game of the year with 148 on the ground and three touchdowns on a career-high 36 carries as Baylor (5-3, 3-2) rolled up more than 200 yards both rushing and passing in a balanced attack that had the Red Raiders (4-4, 2-3) on their heels all night.

Blake Shapen completed 19-of-30 passes for 211 yards and a touchdown, hitting Hal Presley for a nine-yard TD in the third quarter that gave BU a seemingly comfortable 24-3 lead. Tech did make it a one-score game late in the third, though, after scoring on a one-yard TD pass and an eight-yard QB keeper by Behren Morton on a fourth-down play.

Baylor answered with an 11-play, 75-yard drive and capped it with a one-yard punch-in by Reese to extend the lead to 31-17 early in the fourth. Earlier, Reese found pay dirt twice in the last four minutes of the first half to help the Bears take a 17-3 lead into the locker room.

Baylor had gotten on the board first with a season-long 48-yard field goal by John Mayers with 4:39 left in the first quarter. Safety Devin Lemear came up with an interception at the goal line to halt Tech's attempt at an answer. Lemear, McCarty, Mark Milton, AI Walcott and Tevin Williams III each came up with INTs in the Baylor victory. BU also recorded a season-high six sacks in the win, including three by Gabe Hall.

POSTGAME NOTES

- This was Baylor's first win in Lubbock since 1990, snapping a 10-game losing streak.
- Baylor intercepted five passes, its most since going for five in 1989 vs. TCU.
- AJ McCarty's pick-six was BU's first INT return for a touchdown since the 2022 Sugar Bowl.

BAYLOR 38, OKLAHOMA 35

GAYLORD FAMILY - OKLAHOMA MEMORIAL STADIUM • NORMAN, OKLA.
NOV. 5, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 83,546

After missing the previous two games, Craig "Sqwirl" Williams came back in a big way, rushing for a career-high 192 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries as Baylor became bowl-eligible with a 38-35 victory over the Oklahoma Sooners Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

The Bears (6-3, 4-2) won for just the second time ever in Norman, the other one coming eight years ago during a run to a second-straight Big 12 Championship in 2014.

Oklahoma (5-4, 2-4) pulled to within three with 4:05 left, but Baylor was able to run out the clock on its ensuing drive, converting a key third-down play with a 14-yard pass from Blake Shapen to Hal Presley and icing it with a 43-yard run by Williams, who went down at the Oklahoma 7-yard line with no defenders in front of him.

With the defense picking off three passes in the first half, the Bears took a 24-21 lead into the break despite being outgained, 334-187.

Williams, who sat out the last two games against Kansas and Texas Tech, rushed for 113 yards on 12 carries in the first half alone and scored on touchdown runs of 11 and one yard.

Set up by Dillon Doyle's interception and return to the 26, Baylor took just three plays to score and went up 14-7 on Jordan Nabors' end-around run with 3:50 left in the half.

Oklahoma's Dillon Gabriel, who had only thrown one interception in 201 passes all year, was picked off by Devin Lemear, setting up a 49-yard field goal by John Mayers that gave the Bears a 17-14 lead early in the second quarter. Christian Morgan collected the final INT of the day for BU.

Opening the second half with an impressive nine-play, 75-yard drive, the Bears pushed the lead to double digits at 31-21 on a two-yard TD run by Richard Reese, who was limited with the flu.

Qualan Jones also pitched in with 47 yards on nine carries, including a game-sealing 10-yard TD with 9:15 to go in the fourth quarter.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The win marked Baylor's second-ever victory in Norman and its second-straight vs. OU, a first since the 2013-14 seasons.
- Baylor rushed for five TDs, its fifth game with 5+ TDs in 2022.
- With three interceptions against the Sooners, Baylor now has eight picks in its last two games, its most in a two-game stretch since 1980.
- Craig "Sqwirl" Williams had a career-high 25 carries, 192 yards and 2 touchdowns.
- Dillon Doyle tied his career high with 15 tackles and picked off his second pass of the year.
- Devin Lemear recorded a personal-best 8 tackles and also grabbed his second INT of the season.
- Josh Cameron set career highs with five catches and 72 yards.

Monaray Baldwin and Josh Cameron both set career highs in catches, but it wasn't enough for the Baylor Bears to keep pace with No. 19 Kansas State, which used 17 unanswered points in the second quarter to roll to a 31-3 win Saturday night in Waco.

The Wildcats (7-3, 5-2) snapped the Bears' (6-4, 4-3) three-game winning streak and handed BU its second home loss of the year after previously winning nine in a row and 10 of its last 11 at McLane.

Blake Shapen threw for 203 yards on 22-of-38 passing, but was picked off twice. Baldwin finished with a personal-best eight catches for 75 yards, while Cameron had career highs in catches (6) and yards (83).

K-State's Will Howard, who came in when starter Adrian Martinez went down with an injury late in the first quarter, completed 18-of-26 passes for 186 yards and three TDs. Deuce Vaughn had 104 rushing yards on 24 carries and added eight grabs for 50 yards and one touchdown.

After the Bears' defense held K-State on downs, they had a chance to strike first with a 44-yard drive to the Wildcats' 17. But, Kobe Savage intercepted a Shapen pass that ricocheted off the hands of Cameron.

Baylor's only score came at the end of the first half when John Mayers booted a 37-yard field goal that trimmed the deficit to 17-3. He stayed perfect at 7-for-7 so far this season and increased his career field goal percentage to 80.5%, BU's all-time leader.

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

NOV. 19, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 44,393

After missing an extra point earlier in the game, TCU kicker Griffin Kell hit a 40-yard field goal as time expired to lift No. 4 TCU over Baylor, 29-28, Saturday afternoon at McLane Stadium.

Out of timeouts, quarterback Max Duggan led a nine-play, 46-yard scoring drive that put Kell in position for the winning kick in a game the Bears (6-5, 4-4) led most of the way. TCU improved to 11-0 overall, 8-0 in league play, and kept its CFP hopes alive, already assured a bid to the Big 12 title game.

Baylor scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns after falling behind 20-14 on Duggan's 26-yard TD strike to Gunnar Henderson. Kell missed the extra point that kept it a six-point game.

Following Blake Shapen's 12-yard touchdown pass to freshman tight end Kelsey Johnson, who scored the first two TDs of his career, the Bears went back on top, 21-20. Then, Richard Reese pounded one in from a yard out for his 14th touchdown of the season, extending the lead to 28-20 with 9:47 left.

Baylor twice had a chance to ice the game, but couldn't pick up a first down and left the door open for the Horned Frogs.

Emeri Demercado scored on a three-yard TD run but dropped the two-point conversion pass attempt that preserved the BU lead. But, TCU had just enough time to get in range for Kell's game-winner as time expired.

Shapen threw for 269 yards and one touchdown, but threw a costly pick in the end zone at the end of the first half. Craig "Sqwirl" Williams led the rushing attack with 112 yards on 19 carries, while Monaray Baldwin had a huge day with six catches for 123 yards.
