NOTES YOU NEED TO KNOW

- The Seton Hall men's basketball team will play its first true road game of the season on Tuesday as the Pirates travel to No. 6 Baylor in a BIG EAST-Big 12 Battle contest on ESPN2.
- These two teams were originally scheduled to play a BIG EAST-Big 12 Battle game on Nov. 29, 2020 at Prudential Center in Newark before both teams mutually agreed to cancel the game amidst the unpredictable 2020-21 college basketball season.
- The Pirates are 1-2 all-time in BIG EAST-Big 12 Battle games, which features a win vs. No. 7 Texas at Prudential Center in 2022-23.
- After Tuesday, the Pirates will have been the road team in three of their four BIG EAST-Big 12 Battle games and they will have played three top 10 teams.
- The Pirates' last trip to Lonestar State came during the 2002-03 season when The Hall faced Texas in the Space City Basketball Classic in Houston on Nov. 20, 2002.
- This will be Seton Hall's first-ever true road game in the state of Texas.
- The Hall is 10-5 all-time against opponents from the state of Texas.
- Seton Hall has split its last two road games against non-conference opponents ranked in the top 10; a loss at No. 9 Kansas last season (91-65) and win at No. 4 Michigan on Nov. 16, 2021 (67-65).
- Seton Hall has won three of its last five games against non-conference opponents ranked in the top 10 going back to 2019-20.
- Tuesday will be the first-ever meeting between Seton Hall and Baylor.
- Both head coaches graduated from BIG EAST schools; Shaheen Holloway went to Seton Hall and Scott Drew attended Butler.
- The Pirates scored 85 points or more for the third time this season in an 88-75 win over Northeastern on Nov. 29.

- Seton Hall was bolstered by 46 combined points from Kadary Richmond (21 points) and Al-Amir Dawes (career-high 25 points).
- It marked the first time that Seton Hall teammates scored 20-plus points in the same game since Jared Rhoden and Bryce Aiken on Jan. 13, 2022 at DePaul.
- Dawes was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Monday after his career-high 25-point performance against Northeastern where he also grabbed five rebounds and dished out five assists.
- Dawes ranks 17th in Division I among active players in career three-point field goals made.
- Isaiah Coleman was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Week for the second time this season after scoring 11 points, grabbing three rebounds and tallying three steals.
- Coleman is the first Seton Hall freshman to earn multiple BIG EAST Freshman of the Week honors since Khadeen Carrington, Angel Delgado and Isaiah Whitehead all accomplished the feat in 2014-15.
- Jaden Bediako has two double-doubles so far this season and has scored in double-figures in six of Seton Hall's first seven games, his most through seven games in his four-year career.
- Bediako leads the BIG EAST and ranks 10th in the country with 4.0 offensive rebounds per game and he ranks sixth nationally in offensive rebounding percentage (19.4 percent).
- The Pirates lead the BIG EAST and rank 38th nationally in steals per game (9.1 spg) and they're paced by Dylan Addae-Wusu, whose 16 steals leads the conference.
- Seton Hall has been highly efficient from the free throw line through six games where they've shot 79 percent (103-of-130), a clip that ranks second in the BIG EAST and 12th nationally.
- Dre Davis' 91 percent clip (19-of-21) paces the Pirates from the charity stripe.

ARE YOU EXPERIENCED?

- Seton Hall has a veteran group and its starting five is made up of four seniors (Kadary Richmond, Dylan Addae-Wusu, Dre Davis, Al-Amir Dawes) and one graduate student (Jaden Bediako).
- The Pirates rank 27th nationally in KenPom's D-1 Experience metric (2.71 years), which measures a player's experience by minutes played in previous seasons.

BIG J TAKES A BIG JUMP

- Jaden Bediako has solidified himself at the five spot for the Pirates where he has scored in double-figures in six of the first seven games.
- His first double-double as a Pirate came against FDU on Nov. 11 when he scored 12 points and pulled down 10 rebounds.
- His second double-double was an 11-point, 11-rebound performance against Iowa.
- Bediako is also shooting an efficient 66 percent (31-of-47) from the field and 70 percent (12-of-17) from the free throw line.
- Bediako graduated from Santa Clara with a degree in communications and a minor in classics.
- His favorite book is The Iliad and his expertise is the heroes of Greek mythology.
- He comes from a basketball family; his sister is a freshman on the women's basketball team at Georgia Tech and his brother, who played at Alabama last season, is on a two-way contract with the San Antonio Spurs.
- Born in Chicago, Bediako is a dual citizen of both the United States and Canada.

SHA'S FIRST SEASON

- Shaheen Holloway's first season leading his alma mater was, statistically speaking, the best in program history among first-year head coaches:

Most Wins

- Shaheen Holloway (2022-23) - 17
- George Blaney (1994-95) - 16
- Tommy Amaker (1997-98) - 15
- Richie Regan (1960-61) - 15

Most BIG EAST Wins

- Shaheen Holloway - 10
- Tommy Amaker - 9
- George Blaney - 7
- Kevin Willard (2010-11) - 7

- Holloway's six true road wins were the most for a first-year head coach at Seton Hall since Bill Raftery registered five road wins in 1970-71.
- Holloway was the first first-year head coach to lead Seton Hall to a postseason berth since Tommy Amaker in 1998-99, Holloway's junior season, when the Pirates earned a trip to the NIT.
- Despite starting 0-3 in BIG EAST play, Holloway took a group of four returners and five newcomers and guided The Hall to a .500 record in league play for the eighth consecutive season.

KOOKS IS KOOKING EARLY

- Coming off of an injury shortened junior season, Kadary Richmond has looked solid through the first four games of the season for the Pirates.
- Richmond is averaging 14.7 points, 4.1 assists and 6.1 rebounds per game, leading the team in the first two categories and ranking second on the Pirates in the latter.
- Seton Hall is 15-2 all-time when he grabs seven or more rebounds and 4-0 when he posts a double-double.
- He currently ranks 27th among active players in Division I with 167 career steals and he ranks 20th averaging 1.8 steals per game in his career.

- Last week, Richmond tied his season high of 18 points and played a season-best 37 minutes against No. 23 USC.
- Richmond posted his first double-double performance of the season and the fourth of his career against Wagner where he scored 11 points, grabbed 10 rebounds and added five assists.
- He was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Nov. 13 after averaging 16.0 points, 6.5 rebounds, 5.0 steals and 4.5 assists.
- Richmond led the Pirates in scoring in both games.
- He stuffed the stat sheet in the season opening victory over Saint Peter's posting 18 points, six rebounds, seven assists and six steals.
- Richmond's six steals was the most for a Pirate in a season opener since 2007 when Paul Gause recorded eight steals vs. Monmouth.
- Richmond followed that up with a 14-point, seven-rebound and four-steal performance in a 85-55 dispatching of FDU on Saturday.
- It's the third BIG EAST weekly honor of his career.
- Kooks is a tri-captain this season and has been more vocal and outgoing, as seen in his social media interview series "Kooks' Korner" where he has interviewed his teammates, head coach Shaheen Holloway and FOX Sports' John Fanta.
- He picked up the nickname Kooks as a teenager because of the way he would "cook" opponents playing in multiple t-shirt tournaments a day around New York City.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

- The Pirates have traditionally been underrated by the BIG EAST coaches when it comes to the preseason poll.
- In the 43 previous preseason polls, Seton Hall has finished higher than its predicted finish 21 times, which is 49 percent of all the polls.
- The Pirates have met their preseason prediction 12 times (28%) and have finished below their preseason prediction just twice since the league reconfigured in 2013-14.

Year	Preseason Rank	Actual Finish
2023-24	9th	?
2022-23	7th	T-6th
2021-22*	5th	T-5th
2020-21	5th	T-4th
2019-20	1st	T-1st
2018-19*	8th	T-3rd
2017-18*	2nd	T-3rd
2016-17*	T-4th	T-3rd
2015-16*	7th	3rd
2014-15	6th	T-7th
2013-14	8th	8th

SIZING UP

- After playing all of last season with one true big man in Tyrese Samuel, head coach Shaheen Holloway went out and added three transfers and one European prospect whose collective average height is 6-10; Austin Peay transfer Elijah Hutchins-Everett (6-11), Boise State transfer Sadraque NgaNga (6-10), Santa Clara transfer Jaden Bediako (6-10) and Turkish freshman Arda Ozdogan (6-10).
- NgaNga, a former top 50 prospect coming out of prep school, is comfortable on the wing and at the four spot.
- Bediako, whose brother Charles played at Alabama last season and is currently with the San Antonio Spurs on a two-way contract, is more of a traditional big who comes to South Orange following a four-year career at Santa Clara.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for player interviews, either in person or via phone, must be arranged through Peter Long in the Athletics Communications Office. Advance notice of at least 24 hours is preferred. Interview requests for Coach Shaheen Holloway must be made at least 24 hours in advance.

POSTGAME

Seton Hall head coach Shaheen Holloway will be available for interviews following a post-game cooling off period. The Seton Hall locker room is not open to the media.

- A native of Orange, N.J. who at one point lived minutes away from the Seton Hall campus, Hutchins-Everett has the ability to pop out and shoot from three-point range.
- Hutchins-Everett was the Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year in 2021-22 and comes to South Orange with 714 career points in just two seasons.

WUSU NOW IN BLUE & WHITE

- After going 2-4 in three seasons against Seton Hall while a member of the St. John's Red Storm, Dylan Addae-Wusu is now on correct side of the Hudson River and he brings toughness and experience to the Pirates.
- His 16 steals leads the conference and he helps the Pirates average 14 turnovers forced per game, second-most in the BIG EAST.
- Head coach Shaheen Holloway has called Addae-Wusu the Pirates' energy guy: "if Dylan goes, we go."
- His impact was evident in the win over Saint Peter's where he scored 10 second half points, including a three-pointer that tied the game at 47-47 with 8:42 left.
- On the next defensive possession, Addae-Wusu dove on the floor for a loose ball and came up with the steal that led to an Al-Amir Dawes layup, giving the Pirates the lead.
- In the win over FDU, a game where the Pirates collected their most rebounds in a game since 2001 with 61, Addae-Wusu finished with nine rebounds from his position in the backcourt.
- Wusu was recruited out of high school by Holloway when he was the head coach at Saint Peter's.
- Wusu led St. John's in 2022-23 in three-point field goals with 43 and posted career-highs in scoring average (9.3), field goals made (109), three-pointers (43) and rebounding (4.4) last season.

ALL DRE, ALL DAY

- Holloway has said that Davis is arguably Seton Hall's most important player; a guy who can defend one through five, crafty around the rim, a threat from beyond the arc.
- He was named to the Rady Children's Invitational All-Tournament team where he averaged 16.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and 3.0 assists in games against No. 23 USC and Iowa.
- Davis has been highly efficient from the free throw line where he's shooting at a 91 percent clip (19-of-21).
- A tri-captain, Davis also takes care of business off the floor as a stellar student and father of a one-and-a-half year old daughter named Malia.
- Malia's mother, Mikia, is a women's basketball player at Saint Peter's and together they're raising Malia while competing as Division I student-athletes.

ANOTHER YEAR, ANOTHER TOUGH SKED

- It's now an annual tradition that the Pirates face a difficult schedule that helps them prepare for the rigors of the BIG EAST.
- During non-conference play, the Pirates have two games against teams who landed in the Associated Press preseason top 25 in No. 20 Baylor and No. 21 USC.
- In total, the Pirates' non-conference opponents combine for five NCAA Tournament appearances from last season.
- The Hall could face up to six non-conference opponents that finished in the top 70 of the NET in 2022-23 and is guaranteed to go up against four foes that finished 55 or higher.

SETON HALL: CRADLE OF COACHING

- With NJIT's hiring of Grant Billmeier in March 2023, Seton Hall now boasts five alumni in the head coaching ranks of Division I men's basketball; Grant Billmeier (NJIT), Donald Copeland (Wagner), Shaheen Holloway (Seton Hall), Dan Hurley (Connecticut), Levell Sanders (Binghamton).
- Only Duke has more alumni serving as head coaches with six.
- At the professional level, Adrian Griffin became the third Seton Hall alum to be named an NBA head coach when he was picked to lead the Milwaukee Bucks on June 5, 2023.

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

- Head coach Shaheen Holloway has said repeatedly in the preseason that there are four Pirates who cannot have a bad practice; Dre Davis, Al-Amir Dawes, Kadary Richmond and himself.
- Holloway named the trio team captains this season and they will be the ones that will set the tone for the 2023-24 Seton Hall Pirates.
- The biggest key in the case of Davis and Richmond? Health. Both were hindered by injuries for long stretches last season.
- The Pirates were without either Davis or Richmond in 15 games last season, which made up for 45 percent of The Hall's contests in 2022-23.
- Seton Hall was 11-7 last season in games where Richmond and Davis were both available.
- In his first season playing back in his home state, Dawes led the Pirates in scoring with 12.6 points per game while shooting 38 percent from deep and 82 percent from the free-throw line.
- At the time of his initial battle with the injury bug, Davis was leading the Pirates in scoring averaging 11.2 ppg.
- Davis showed what he could do when healthy when he poured in a career-high 24 points in a rout at No. 20 Providence on March 4.
- A Preseason All-BIG EAST Second Team last season, Richmond has been more vocal this offseason as he enters his fourth season of college ball and his first with the same head coach in consecutive seasons.

HOW GOOD WAS SHA?

- Shaheen Holloway left South Orange as one of the best players to wear the Blue & White and a lot of his career numbers and accomplishments still hold up today.
- Perhaps his greatest achievement was serving as the starting point guard on the 1999-00 Pirates that advanced to the Sweet 16.
- In The Hall's first round game vs. seventh-seeded Oregon, Holloway hit the game-winning layup with seconds to play that helped the Pirates advance to the second round.
- Here are some of Holloway's career numbers and where they rank in program history:

Points	1588, 18th
Assists	681, 1st
Minutes	3865, t-8th

SHAHEEN HOLLOWAY

SECOND SEASON // SETON HALL '00

Desire. Dedication. Discipline.

The Three D's are the foundation of head coach Shaheen Holloway's program and they are the words that he has lived by on and off the basketball court. It's a foundation that is centered around winning, personal and athletic development, and a commitment to Seton Hall basketball.

When Holloway, a former associate head coach and standout student-athlete at Seton Hall, was named the new head men's basketball coach at his alma mater on March 30, 2022, he stated this was an opportunity that he couldn't mess up because "it's way too important to me." He bleeds Pirate Blue and, with The Three D's as the bedrock, he will look to build on a solid first season at the helm of his alma mater.

Holloway's first campaign was the best in the history of Seton Hall men's basketball for a first-year head coach. Holloway set program records for most wins (17), BIG EAST victories (10) and road wins (6) for a first-year head coach in school history. He was also the first Seton Hall head coach to lead the Pirates to a postseason berth in his first season since Tommy Amaker in 1997-98. Despite starting 0-3 in BIG EAST play, Holloway took a group of four returners and five newcomers and guided The Hall to a .500 record in league play for the eighth consecutive season.

The Pirates bought in to Holloway's philosophy on the defensive end of the floor in year one as they finished second in the BIG EAST and in the top 70 nationally in scoring defense (65.1 ppg), field goal percentage defense (41.5 percent), three-point field goal percentage defense (31.8 percent) and steals (8.2 steals per game). Seton Hall finished 20th in KenPom's adjusted defensive efficiency ranking.

As is always the case with Holloway's teams, the Pirates excelled in the classroom in 2022-23. The Hall earned the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award, one of only two BIG EAST teams to earn the honor in 2023, and a program-best six Pirates were named to the NABC Honors Court for posting a cumulative GPA above 3.2.

Holloway returned to South Orange after leading Saint Peter's on a miraculous run to the Elite Eight at the 2022 NCAA Tournament. The 2020 MAAC Coach of the Year, Holloway led the Peacocks to the 2022 MAAC Tournament title and three straight campaigns with 10-plus victories in conference play.

Holloway's teams in Jersey City played with a toughness and intensity that mirrored the way he played the game at The Hall, where he holds the program record with 681 career assists and was inducted into the Seton Hall Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012. He's the first Seton Hall graduate to lead the men's basketball program since all-time great Richie Regan '53 led the Pirates from 1960-70.

Holloway led Saint Peter's to a run of three consecutive top-three finishes in the MAAC from 2020-22, a first for the program since the school's first three seasons in the conference in the early 1980s. Under Holloway's tutelage, Saint Peter's produced five All-MAAC selections, the NCAA Division I leader in blocked shots, the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, and 10 student-athletes that were named to the MAAC All-Academic Team.

Saint Peter's steady climb under Holloway culminated in a run that made shock waves across the nation in March 2022. It started with the Peacocks earning the No. 2 seed in the MAAC Tournament and defeating Monmouth in the championship game to clinch the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Peacocks then did what many outside of Holloway's squad thought was unthinkable, defeating second-seeded Kentucky in an overtime game in the first round before knocking off seventh-seeded Murray State in the second round and then toppling third-seeded Purdue in the Sweet Sixteen. Saint Peter's became the first 15-seed ever to reach the Elite Eight. For his efforts, Holloway was named a finalist for the Hugh Durham Coach of the Year, Ben Jobe Coach of the Year and Skip Prosser Man of the Year awards.
