Men's Basketball

- MBB split a pair of games last week, posting a 94-79 win at Oklahoma State on Tuesday in Stillwater, before falling vs. No. 25 Kansas in Lawrence on Friday night.
- The Bears now face a two-game homestand, hosting No. 12/12 Texas Tech on Tuesday night at 8 p.m., before hosting TCU on Saturday at Foster Pavilion.
- In the win at OSU, Tounde Yessoufou had 23 points to lead the Bears, with Michael Rataj adding 19 points and seven rebounds. Cameron Carr had 17 points on 12 shots in 27 minutes and Obi Agbim played 40 minutes and had 15 points and four assists. Isaac Williams IV chipped in 14 points in 27 minutes. The Bears shot 59.3% from the field, including a 22-of-30 stretch in the first half that featured 9-of-14 3-pointers made.
- Carr leads the team with 20.5 points and 5.1 rebounds per game. Yessoufou averages 18 points and six rebounds.

Men's Tennis

- No. 16 MT opened its 2026 season with a 3-1 mark last week that included a 5-2 loss at No. 8 San Diego, and a home tri-sweep over Lamar and Wisconsin.
- The Bears will host a doubleheader on Saturday, with Abilene Christian at 12:30 p.m. before a rivalry clash with SMU at 6 p.m. Baylor and SMU will meet for the second straight year as the two are co-hosts of the ITA Indoor National Championships, earning a bye to the final field of 16.
- Alexandru Chirita, Luc Koenig and Connor Van Schalkwyk each had three singles wins to lead the Bears on opening week.
- In the rankings, Devin Badenhorst (eight), Van Schalkwyk (17), Chirita (44), Drew Hedgecoe (95) and Zsombor Velcz (108) are all listed in singles.

Track & Field

- Baylor track & field opened its 2026 indoor season in Lubbock, Texas, at the Corky Classic over the weekend.
- Tiriah Kelley highlighted the event with a 22.56 time in the 200m, breaking the school record and posting the fastest time in the world on the year.
- Freshman Landon Freeman had a high jump total of over seven feet, the first 7-foot high jumper for BU since 2000.
- The Bears take on the Ted Nelson Invite on Friday and Saturday in College Station. The men's 4x400-meter relay for the meet has been renamed the Clyde Hart 4x400 in honor of legendary Baylor coach Clyde Hart, who passed in November.

Women's Basketball

- No. 14 WBB stretched its winning streak to six games with a 3-0 week that featured two road wins in Utah and a home win over Kansas.
- The Bears are now 17-3 and tied for first in the Big 12 with a 6-1 mark. Of their three losses on the year, those opponents are a combined 54-5. BU sports a NET ranking of No. 26.
