Baseball

- Baseball went 3-1 last week in a crucial home stretch with wins over UT Arlington and a series win over Texas Tech. A midweek loss at Texas State on Tuesday started another crucial week, that will include the home, regular-season finale series with upstart UCF on Friday-Sunday.
- The Bears sit in a two-way tie for ninth place in the Big 12 standings. The top six in the league standings earn double byes and the 7 and 8 seeds earn a first-round bye for the tournament that starts in Surprise, Ariz., on May 19.

Softball

- The Bears went 1-2 last week to conclude the regular season schedule, earning an 8-7 win in the middle game at No. 2 Texas Tech on Friday.
- Baylor opens Big 12 Tournament play with the Red Raiders on Thursday in Oklahoma City, Okla.
- The Bears own a No. 39 RPI entering the postseason.

Men's Golf

- MG wrapped up its stay in Hutchinson, Kan., with a seventh-place finish at the Big 12 Tournament last week.
- UConn transfer Alex Heard led the Bears with an 11th place finish at 1-over to earn All-Tournament accolades.

Men's Tennis

- No. 10 MT quickly dispatched its first and second round foes in the NCAA Tournament at the Hurd Tennis Center last week, earning a hosting spot in the Super Regionals.
- The Bears will host No. 27 Pepperdine, who took down LSU over the weekend, with a bid to the NCAA Finals in Athens, Ga., on the line. The match will begin on Friday at 6 p.m.

Track & Field

- TF competed over the weekend at the Texas A&M Alumni Muster in College Station.
- The Bears were led by Molly Haywood's meet and facility records in the pole vault.
- The Big 12 Championships on May 14-16 are next for the Bears in Tucson, Ariz.

Women's Golf

- No. 26 WG earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament and will host the NCAA Waco Regional on May 11-13 at Ridgewood Country Club.
- The Bears will host top seeded Texas A&M, ranked No. 4, and No. 8 Oregon, No. 17 Tennessee, No. 21 SMU, LSU, TCU, Tulsa, Colorado, Northern Arizona, Tarleton and Prairie View A&M.

Women's Tennis

- WT earned a first-round win in the NCAA Tournament over No. 25 Wisconsin on Saturday in College Station, before falling to host Texas A&M, ranked No. 3 on Sunday.
- The Bears won the doubles point vs. the Aggies but a strong singles showing for TAMU ended the Bears season with their 27th NCAA appearance.
